1-1-2016

See Shakespeare's First Folio: First Time in Idaho - Opening Carnival Invitation

Boise State University
First Folio! The Book that Gave Us Shakespeare, on tour from the Folger Shakespeare Library, is a national traveling exhibition organized by the Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, DC. It is produced in association with the American Library Association and the Cincinnati Museum Center. First Folio! has been made possible in part by a major grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities: Exploring the human endeavor, and by the British Council. First Folio! has been made possible in part by a major grant from the British Council in association with the Folger Shakespeare Library. By the national traveling exhibition organized by the Folger Shakespeare Library, the book that gave us Shakespeare.

See Shakespeare’s FIRST FOLIO FIRST TIME IN IDAHO
Hear Ye! Hear Ye! Let it be known that Boise State University is celebrating First Folio!
The Book that Gave Us Shakespeare
On tour from the Folger Shakespeare Library

Saturday, August 20, 2016
1:00-5:00 p.m.
Boise State University
Yanke Research Building
220 Parkcenter Blvd.

Printed in London in 1623, the First Folio is the first published collection of Shakespeare’s plays and will be on display in Idaho for the first time. Join Boise State as we celebrate this historic occasion!

1:00 p.m.
Ribbon-Cutting Ceremony
With the Folger Shakespeare Library’s Eric Weinmann Librarian Daniel DeSimone

Grand Opening Carnival
All Afternoon
Food, performances, activities and demonstrations on the lawn
Visit the complete calendar of events at go.boisestate.edu/first-folio

“Delight in Masques and Revels!”
–Twelfth Night I.iii

Exhibition on display
AUGUST 20 TO SEPTEMBER 21, 2016