At the third reading of a bill or constitutional amendment, debate is allowed. The third reading shall not be suspended. This reading shall be followed by a final roll call vote of the Senate.

N. Every bill amending a legislative act shall refer to the title of such act and the "act or section" as amended shall be set forth in full length. When a bill to amend an existing legislative act is presented to the Senate, words to be added shall be shown in capital letters and the omission of words shall be indicated by a line passing through the words.

O. A simple majority vote in the presence of a quorum in the Senate meeting shall be necessary to pass on legislation unless further stipulated by enacted legislation. All bills so passed shall be signed by the Chairperson.

P. During all stages of the passage of a bill or other measure through the Senate, it shall retain its original number. If the amount of amendment to an existent bill is substantial enough, in the opinion of the author, to warrant a completely new form, he shall be permitted to introduce his amendment as a "substitute bill" unless a two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Senate objects. Should a substitute bill be presented, said substitute bill shall bear the number of the original it displaces, but the words "substitute bill" shall be prefixed to the number.
Q. Bills to amend an existing act shall, when passed, maintain the original Act §.

R. The period of one (1) week between each reading of a bill is a minimum period of time.

S. A legislative resolution or a legislative directive may be passed by a simple majority vote of the members present.

T. A majority vote of those present shall be necessary to discharge a committee from consideration of a legislative resolution, legislative directive, or a fiscal action and place the legislation in debate before the Senate.

U. All special financial requests shall be placed in itemized form with the Chairperson and the Treasurer at least five (5) days prior to the meeting at which it is to be considered.
