TAKE IT OR CHANGE IT

Boise State is a group of individuals representing a diversity of social and intellectual life styles. Because the college community recognizes the value of your personal freedom, constitutional rights, and maximum use of services and facilities on the campus, some rules have been set by students, faculty, and administrators as a group to ensure the continuation of these privileges and rights.

Ideally, each member of the college community assumes individual responsibility for his personal freedom and responsibilities. However, when self-responsibility fails and rules are broken, it may mean you'll be expected to settle the problem with a judicial body. Educational judicial bodies are not meant to be criminal courts. However, due process is observed during any hearings.

As a member and representative of the college community, remember you're living with and responsible to other students, faculty, and staff, just as they are responsible to you for protecting personal freedoms. Instead of breaking a policy, if you don't agree with a policy, initiate change through established channels.

The college community has chosen to be somewhat self-regulating, but you're not immune from responsibility to society though, because the college community is a segment of the "real world". For some of those apprehended by city, state, federal, or county officials, the college community may feel an obligation to educate and correct through counseling whenever possible to better enable the individual to adjust. (This does not constitute double jeopardy.)

If you're snatched by a cop or caught in court and your continuation in the college community will endanger: (1) the health and safety of any students, faculty, or staff, (2) the protection of institution and personal property and (3) the educational goals of the college community: the student judiciary may become involved in the education, correction and counsel of the individual.

DUE PROCESS

If you get in a bind you can't cope with, call either the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women. Fair play and due process are your rights. In cases where conduct probation, suspension, or expulsion might occur, the Deans are here to make sure you get a fair deal. Make sure you talk-it-out with one of them. Sometimes, if you elect, you can settle your situation through individual counseling with one of the Deans and no hearing board is necessary.

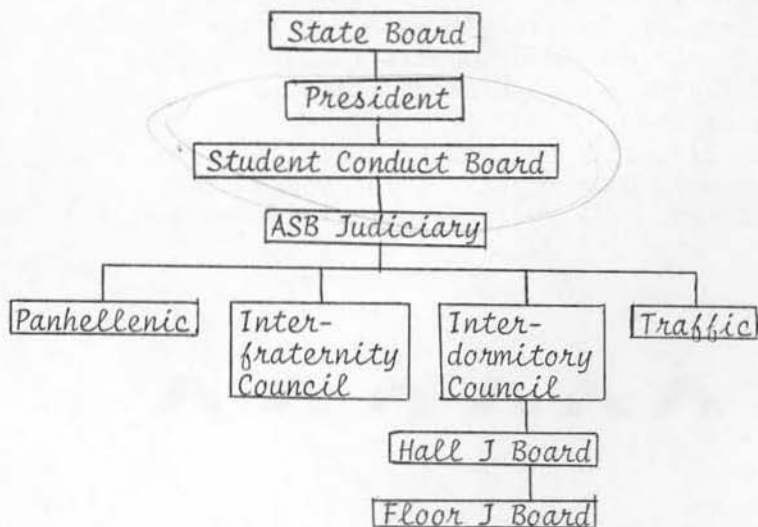

If you're accused of a violation, remember your rights. (The Deans will help you with these - just give them a call.)

IF YOU'RE CAUGHT

You Have A Right:

1. To receive a written statement of charges, and adequate notice of the date, time and place of the hearing.
2. To receive a fair hearing, being allowed to appear alone or with counsel of your choice, hearing all evidence and offering evidence on your own behalf.
3. To question the source of the evidence and all witnesses.
4. To access to the transcript of the proceedings and findings of the board.
5. If the decision of the board doesn't make it for you, appeal to the next higher judicial body through the Deans.

ADJUDICATORY ADMINISTRATION

By delegation of the President of the College the Student Conduct Board under the chairmanship of the Vice-President of Student Affairs is designated as the primary agency with original jurisdiction for the development and administration of the student code of conduct, and for recommending policies to the President relating to student conduct; i.e., rules and regulations, enforcement procedures, and subordinate regulatory bodies. It is also responsible for hearing appeals that may properly come before it. The board will review all cases involving possible suspension or expulsion other than for academic disqualification and make recommendations through the Vice President for Student Affairs to the President. The Student Conduct Board is composed of the Vice-President for Student Affairs as Chairman, the Dean of Men and the Dean of Women as non-voting members of the Board, the Academic Deans of the College or their faculty representatives, and the elected Associated Student Body Executive officers or their student representatives. The Dean of Men serves as administrative advisor and assists the Board in the discharge of its responsibilities.

The ASBSC Judiciary Council, IDC, IFC, Panhellenic, Appellate Traffic Council and all other judicial or minor tribunals are subordinate to the Student Conduct Board and have specific areas of responsibilities. The Dean of Men and the Dean of Women have the authority to establish residence hall councils or standards committees, Panhellenic, IFC, IDC, or ICC Committees to hear cases concerning violations of group rules and regulations. The councils or committees may recommend to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women Sanctions such as admonition, censure, probation, or disqualification and/or loss of privileges.

PROCEDURES

Violations of college regulations with the exception of traffic violations, are reported to the Dean of Men or Dean of Women. The head of Campus Security may be asked to assist and investigate by the appropriate Dean.

1. Investigation of Incident
Interviews are conducted and statements taken from the individuals involved and from witnesses, if any. A report is then compiled of the statements, evidence, and reports of incident as well as with the accused student's personal background, academic record and potential.
2. Determination of Status
The report may be reviewed by the Vice President for Student Affairs, The Dean of Men, and/or Dean of Women to determine what procedure or action the case warrants.
3. Procedural Referral
 - a. The report may indicate insufficient facts or basis for further action.
 - b. The case may be referred to the ASBSC Judicial Council or appropriate minor hearing board.
 - c. The case may be handled by the appropriate Student Personnel

Dean, Faculty or staff at the option of the accused, if the case so warrants.

PROCEDURE FOR REINSTATEMENT OF SUSPENDED STUDENTS

A suspended student, after completing his period of suspension, must apply for reinstatement by writing to the office of the Vice-President for Student Affairs. The written request must state the reasons for seeking reinstatement, commendable activities since suspension and other pertinent information the student may wish to submit. The request will be reviewed by the Vice-President for Student Affairs and the student notified of the decision.

THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW

Presented in the dryest way possible

Following are sanctions which may be used by the college community in an effort to help the individual correct irresponsible behavior. The college community's judicial bodies may choose to use these sanctions if one of the sanctions is determined to be educationally beneficial for an individual. These sanctions are not considered by themselves to be totally educationally correcting without complimentary counseling by concerned college officials. A J-Board should not pride itself in choosing one of the following sanctions as the best "one" for a certain student, but should pride itself in creativity and concern in ensuring justice and in making a positive decision to help a student realize personal responsibility. Sanction, by definition, does not negate positive decisions.

HERE GOES: Correctional action on or off campus may include one or a combination of the following;

ADMONITION: An expression from the administration, generally in the form of a verbal warning or caution, that the expected standards of conduct are not being maintained. Used primarily with the first time minor infractions.

CENSURE: An expression of disapproval or condemnation of a specific act against the standards of conduct - generally in writing - with the possible loss of a minor privilege.

CONDUCT PROBATION: Generally a written warning with or without a judicial hearing signifying that additional disregard for the standard of conduct will constitute grounds for suspension or expulsion. Usually a minimum time period is set.

DISQUALIFICATION: Disciplinary action excluding the individual from participation in certain activities or privileges for a prescribed period of time. A loss of privilege, i.e. relinquishing a student office.

SUSPENSION: An administrative or student conduct board action terminating registration, with a possible loss of academic credit for a prescribed period of time not to exceed two years. Re-enrollment must be requested by petition.

EXPULSION: An administrative or student conduct Board action indefinitely terminating a student's registration at the institution. Re-admittance is possible only by action of the President of the College.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

The college community may take corrective action on the misconduct stated below.

Expulsion or suspension from the college, or any lesser disciplinary action may result for the following misconduct:

1. ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

Cheating or plagiarism is unacceptable. The course instructor is responsible for handling each case of dishonesty in the classroom except where a major or repeated offense is involved. In any case he has the right to refer the offense to a higher authority—through his department chairman, division chairman, and/or Conduct Board.

In proven Judiciary cases of cheating, a student will be dismissed from the class and a failing grade issued. The student must petition the Dean of the school in which he is enrolled and be accepted before repeating the course.

2. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

Possession, furnishing and/or use of alcoholic beverages on College owned or controlled property, in College related housing for single students, or at any college sponsored or supervised function is prohibited. This includes disorderly conduct or irresponsible behavior due to the use of intoxicants.

3. DRUGS

Possession, manufacture, distribution, use or sale of drugs or narcotics classified as illegal except those

- taken under a doctors prescription is prohibited on college owned or controlled property, in college related housing, or at any college sponsored or supervised function.
4. FALSIFICATION OF COLLEGE RECORDS
Willful falsification of official records or documents or omission with the intent to deceive is subject to dismissal or suspension. Included in this regulation is the forging, alteration, or misuse of college documents, records, identification cards, meal tickets, etc.
 5. HAZING
Any practice by a group or individual that degrades a student, endangers his health, jeopardizes his safety, or interferes with class attendance or the pursuit of educational objectives is prohibited.
 6. ILLEGAL ENTRY

 9. LEWD OR INDECENT CONDUCT
 10. GAMBLING IN ANY FORM

Student Code cont.

11. FIREARMS

- a. Because of their recognized danger, firearms will not be kept in student living quarters. Possession of explosives, loaded or unloaded firearms on campus is strictly prohibited. Possession of explosives or a loaded weapon on campus will result in immediate dismissal from the college. The City Code interprets air rifles, pellet, or BB guns as being weapons or firearms.
- b. Possession and use of fireworks in any College building or on campus is prohibited.
- c. Occupants in College housing and off-campus housing, living within the city limits, are subject to Boise City ordinances and State Laws.

12. TRAFFIC-PARKING

Traffic and parking violations are processed in the Campus Security office according to the rules and regulations distributed by that office.

13. GROUP OFFENSES
