1976-1977 Season

The Boise State University Department of Theatre Arts is in the process of planning the 1976-1977 season of plays. Five dates have been selected but as yet no titles have been announced. If you have any plays you would like to see, please drop a line to the department in care of Boise State University. We cannot always accommodate requests but they do help us keep in touch with our audience.

Green Room Gossip

BSU theatre students and faculty will participate in a new summer program of the Boise Little Theatre. Jon Irwin and Gerry Bryant will direct one-act plays and Mike Riddlemoser and Dr. Charles Lauterbach will present workshops on set design and directing.

Staff designer Delores Ringer will again spend the summer as designer for the Utah Shakespearean Festival in Cedar City. She will return to BSU in the fall.

L. L. West, guest director for the past two years, will leave BSU to pursue further graduate studies. Before leaving Boise, he will direct "The Prime of Miss Brodie" at the Intelist Theatre. Larry has done a fine job with the Idaho Invitational Theatre Arts Festival and will be remembered for his productions, especially "One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest."
