"Videos" Research Guide

Alexander Street Press and Films on Demand provide an extensive collection of streaming videos on a variety of topics and disciplines. Many of these videos are available to watch on your desktop or your mobile device; can be embedded in coursework pages or Blackboard; or sections of video trimmed to specific segments.

American History in Video

American History in Video includes approximately 1,000 hours of newsreels from the late 1890s to the 1980s. Beginning with the Spanish American War, the early films provide documentary footage of actual people, places, and events together with interviews and other broadcast content from the period.

Counseling and Therapy in Video

Over 280 streaming videos that support the study of social work, psychotherapy and psychology.

Dance in video

Over 450 dance productions and documentaries by the most influential performers and companies of the 20th century.

Education in Video

The first online collection of streaming video developed specifically for training and developing teachers.

Ethnographic Video Online

A comprehensive resource for the study of human culture and behavior.

Films On Demand

Over 6000+ videos in 28 subjects areas. These include many of Films Media Group's best selling and most popular titles in the areas of Anthropology, World Languages, History, Mathematics, Criminal Justice, Business and Economics, Psychology, and many more.

Theatre in video

Streaming recordings of thousands of original plays. Contains more than 250 of the world's most important plays, together with more than 100 video documentaries, online in streaming video—more than 500 hours in all.

World History in Video

Documentaries that explore human history from the earliest civilizations to the late twentieth century.

IMAGES: ARTSTOR

The screenshot displays the ARTstor website interface. At the top, a browser window shows the URL www.artstor.org.libproxy.boisestate.edu/index.shtml and a search bar with the text "Google". The website header includes the ARTSTOR logo and a navigation menu with links for "Collections & services", "Interested in access?", "Using ARTstor", and "News". A prominent green box on the right side of the header reads "ARTstor Digital Library" with an "ENTER HERE" button. Below the header, there are several large art images: a classical painting of a figure in white drapery, a painting of two figures in a close embrace, a painting of a woman in a blue fur coat, and a landscape painting of a coastal town. A banner below the images reads "Featuring: Réunion des Musées Nationaux" and includes social media icons for WordPress, Facebook, Twitter, and YouTube. The main content area is divided into two columns. The left column features a section titled "Export to PowerPoint" with a sub-heading "Now available to all ARTstor registered users" and a "LEARN MORE" button. The right column is titled "What's New" and contains two news items: "Meet ARTstor staff at upcoming conferences" and "Remembering 9/11".
