NEED A CLASS?-UNIV 115: Transitions for International Students

This two credit class will help international students build an effective support system and explore academic skills and behaviors necessary for educational success. This class provides academic support to familiarize students with Boise State Culture, campus resources, policies, procedures and student life opportunities. Students will also develop an academic plan.

Dear New & Returning International Students,

On behalf of my friends, officers and advisor at the International Student Association (ISA), I would like to welcome you all to Boise State University.

As officers of a very active student organization, we are honored to serve you all. With your support, we at ISA shall do our best for a better integration and stay of international students here at Boise State. However, please remember that this is collective work, which means that your attendance, suggestions, ideas, comments, and constructive criticism are all valued and needed, so please GET INVOLVED and share who you are with ISA!

We are also so glad and proud to have a strong connection and fruitful collaboration with several BSU entities such as International Student Services, the Legacy Corps, and the Saudi Club.

ISA has sponsored and contributed to numerous, successful activities for both international and American students, such as Bowling evenings, Thanksgiving Dinner, welcoming receptions, potluck gatherings, ice skating, snow tubing in McCall, movies and community service in Boise, and a 4-day trip to Seattle. Exciting as they are, such events also help students develop a better idea about the hospitality of Americans and certainly encourage students to learn from, and share their cultures with, our new community. ISA's biggest event, the Food, Song and Dance Festival, held in March this last spring, was a huge success, with over 400 people attending the Festival. We hope you'll join us in planning the Festival for Spring, 2012. It takes many ideas and hands to make this event great!

Coming up is an Iftar Dinner for BSU Muslim students to share the experience of fasting with all students, organized by Muslim Student association, International Student Association, and the Saudi Club. It is scheduled for Friday, August 26, 2011; we're also considering organizing the third edition of Bowling Night in September. More about that later . . .

In the end, this is an open invitation to ALL BSU students to actively join us at ISA, and remember that this student organization is for both internationals and non-internationals. It's simply YOURS. Go Broncos!

Truly yours, Adil Bentahar, President
International Student Association, ISA

Our home is simple and spacious with over 1,400 square feet. Tenant will have own private bedroom and share bathroom with one other tenant. Rent includes all utilities and high speed internet, as well as use of common areas: living room, washer/dryer, kitchen, and a beautiful piece of property with an awesome backyard that is embellished with fruit trees, flowers and vegetable garden and a spacious back porch to enjoy the serenity.
