Presents

OKLAHOMA!

Morrison Center

March 6-8

Rogers and Hammerstein's all-time, all-American musical smash hit. Every tune a Hit Parade "golden oldie." The first musical production in the Morrison Center by the BSU Departments of Music and Theatre Arts. Enjoy this landmark musical in Idaho's center for the performing arts. (Increased prices for "Oklahoma!" but subscribers will have tickets at a reduced rate as part of the season ticket package.)

THE LION IN WINTER

Special Events Center

March 14-15, 21-22

Domestic squabbles and power politics enliven James Goldman's lyrical tale of King Henry of England and his matchless queen, Eleanor of Aquitaine. Glittering language and gifted comic repartee abound. A work of wit and abundant theatrical skill. History was never this entertaining.

PICNIC

Special Events Center

April 30-May 3

Author William Inge won the Pulitzer Prize and the Critic's Circle Award with this warm comedy of love and yearning in a small town. The play deals with changes in several women's lives when confronted with a sensuous, vital young man. Made into a popular film with Kim Novak and William Holden.
