O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

"The Jesus Game" . . . . . Jay Scott

* Christ The Lord Is Risen Today

Benediction. . . . . Benidict Reidel

O sacred Head, now wounded,
With grief and shame weighed down;
Now scornfully surrounded
With thorns, Thine only crown:
O sacred Head, what glory,
What bliss till now was Thine!
Yet, though despised and gory,
I joy to call Thee mine.

What Thou, my Lord, hast suffered
Was all for sinners' gain:
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But Thine the deadly pain.
Lo, here I fall, my Savior!
'Tis I deserve Thy place;
Look on me with Thy favor,
Vouch-safe to me Thy grace.

What language shall I borrow
To thank Thee, dearest Friend,
For this Thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
O make me Thine forever;
And should I fainting be,
Lord, let me never, never
Out-live my love to Thee.

One of the greatest needs in the world today is reconciliation. But between whom is reconciliation needed? Reconciliation is needed between men and men and between man and God. This reconciliation may occur on several levels. It may occur on the level of our everyday relations with people or it may occur between nations on the international scene. Christ's sacrifice on the cross made atonement for our sins thus leaving the way open for reconciliation with Him. It is our choice if we are to respond to the cross or not and accept the reconciliation God has offered us on its many levels. How great God's desire for reconciliation must be!
