

MAY 1972

CHAMBER MUSIC CONCERT

For the benefit of "Summer in Paris" Scholarship

MUSIC AUDITORIUM

BOISE STATE COLLEGE

SUNDAY, JANUARY 9, 1972

8:15 P.M.

James Hopper, Clarinet
Madeleine Hsu, Piano
William Hsu, Viola
Ronald Itami, Clarinet
Carol March, Piano

BOISE STATE COLLEGE LIBRARY

PROGRAM

Trio in E^b Major, K. 498-----Mozart for Clarinet, Viola and Piano

Andante
Menuetto
Allegretto

Sonata, Op. 120 in E^b Major-----Brahms for Viola and Piano

Allegro amabile
Allegro appassionato
Andante con moto

INTERMISSION

Sonata for Clarinet and Piano-----Poulenc

Allegro tristamente
Romanza
Allegro con fuoco

En Blanc et Noir-----Debussy

Avec emportement
Lent. Sombre
Scherzando

Scaramouche-----Milhaud

Vif
Modere
Brazileira

JAMES HOPPER, a graduate of Juilliard School, University of Iowa, and Washington State University, is principal clarinetist with the Boise Philharmonic and the Boise City Band. He has performed as soloist with various orchestras throughout the Northwest. He was 1970 recipient of the Governor's Medal of Honor in Arts and Humanities; on Sun Valley Music Faculty for many years. He is teaching clarinet and wind ensemble at Boise State College. He studied with Professor Corrodo Sarri in Florence, Italy.

MADELEINE HSU studied with Cortot, Kempff, and Lhevinne; a graduate from the Juilliard School with the Josef Lhevinne Memorial Award, she won many prizes in international competitions in Europe and South America and commendatory press reviews during her tours. She was soloist in important programs in New York, including TV NBC, Channel 4 and the Festival of Contemporary South American Music. She is teaching piano at Boise State College. She is scheduled for a concert with orchestra in Paris.

WILLIAM HSU, a graduate from Nanking University and Brussels Royal Conservatory, studied with Crickboom and Wagemans. For the past fourteen years, he has been teaching violin, viola and chamber music at the Mannes College of Music in New York; he was professor in the viola department at the Usdan Center, New York, and principal violist in New York orchestras. He is teaching violin and viola at Boise State College. He is scheduled for a solo recital in Paris.

RONALD ITAMI, student of James Hopper, is a clarinet major at Boise State College. He is a member of the College's band and orchestra. He will join Carol March and the Hsus in concert at the Paris American Academy.

CAROL MARCH, student of Richard Skyrn and Fern Davidson at the College of Idaho, is a senior at Boise State College where she prepares a B.M. with Madeleine Hsu. Staff pianist and recent soloist with the Boise Philharmonic, she was faculty accompanist and teacher at Sun Valley Music Camp for six year. As a senior, she will play with the Boise State College orchestra in April, 1972. She is scheduled for a concert at the Paris American Academy.

BOISE STATE COLLEGE MUSIC DEPARTMENT COMING EVENTS

*Jan. 28 - Puccini's one-act comic opera, Gianni and Schicchi, directed by Mr. William Taylor, 30 8:15 P.M., Music Auditorium.

Feb. 13 - BSC Community Symphony Orchestra Youth
Concert, 4:30 P.M., Music Auditorium

Feb. 15 - BSC Band Concert, 8:15 P.M., Music Auditorium

Feb. 18 - Student Recital - Sarah Stobaugh,
Bassoon, 8:15 P.M., Music Auditorium

*Admission charged, to defray cost of production.

Admission charged; proceeds for Music Department Scholarship Fund.