BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

Since 1969, when Boise State entered the state system of higher education, significant progress and growth has taken place. The Department of Music, an accredited member of NASM, offers degrees in music-education, theory-composition, and performance. For further information write: Boise State University, Department of Music, 1910 College Boulevard, Boise, Idaho 83725.

WILBER D. ELLIOTT

Wilber D. Elliott, a native of Oregon, and a graduate of the University of Washington received his master's degree from Central Washington State College. He has appeared as tenor soloist with the Louisville Philharmonic, Kentucky Opera Association, and throughout the Northwest.

Mr. Elliott joined the BSC faculty in the Fall of 1969 as the Director of Choral Music, coming from the Public Schools near Tacoma, Washington. He assumed the duties of Chairman of the Department of Music in the Fall of 1970.

DANIEL RUSSELL

Director of the Chorale, Mr. Russell came to BSC from Beaverton High School, Beaverton, Oregon, in the Fall of 1971 after eight years of successful secondary choral directing. In addition to his teaching duties, he is the Staff Accompanist.
