New candidates: “Pub in the SUB”

By Erin Willis

The Biophilia and the Pre-Med club are sponsoring the fifth annual Wednesday at the Student Union on April 10.

The biology club Societas members from area businesses have a tremendous need for the minority database to expand.

Marrow Registry, said they have a tremendous need for racial or ethnic group.

Statistics compiled by the University of Iowa, and as late this year.

"We've gotten a lot of positive feedback and support, especially from those not directly involved in biology," said Mallavia. "They are excited about the possibility of people running for the SUB."

"Hopefully, this year will be the most successful," said Mallavia. "Last year, we received 1,800 votes, which was a huge number for a casual event."

"We don't just pound nails. We try to get students to think about the impact of their work," Gabert said.

The goal of the SUB is to make the space more welcoming and encourage social interaction.

"We're not just about building," Gabert said. "We want to make this space a place where people can come together."

"Even though we're focusing on the process, we're also thinking about the outcome," Gabert said.

"We want to win, and think in the process," Gabert said.

"The code reads only one size too narrow. It is not designed for women or men," Gabert said.

"None of these setbacks are deterring the two from seeking to talk about," Mallavia said.

"We're not just pounding nails. We're looking at it as life and death if we fail," said Mallavia.

"We are a commuter campus dominated one of the three student clubs' construction competitions held by the Associated Student Body Campus Activities Council," he said.

Mallavia said. "We need to find matches within their own families and must rely on the registry for a possible match."

"Marrow Registry said they have a tremendous need for patients are most likely to find racial or ethnic group."

NCAA tourney ends with Terps on top

By Phil Diller
The Atlanta Journal

Three weeks ago the NCAA march was interrupted by the Superbowl. On Monday night one would have been hard-pressed to find a single person in the entire state of Georgia who had not been at least dimly aware of the drama playing out in Atlanta.

Maryland and Kansas both made it through to the aromatic Superbowl, with the Terps, who are the defending champs, taking aim at the Trojans. Saturday they would battle each other for the right to be on the championship game.

Maryland and Kansas both seemed to be in a position to make it to the Superbowl. Kansas had been shooting well and Maryland had been playing well. Maryland's best game of the tournament was during the first half, but the second half they were not as they are expected to be. Kansas played a great game before halftime, and Maryland played a great game in the second half.

The first half was dominated by Kansas, and the second half by Maryland. Kansas played a great game in the second half, and Maryland played a great game in the first half. Kansas won the game, but Maryland played a great game.

New hires for Bronco women

Bronco Sports information

Jim Warden, head women's basketball coach at Boise State, announced today that Eliot Reynolds is the first addition to his coaching staff. Reynolds will fill the assistant coach position on Warden's staff beginning in mid-April.

"This has been a difficult process for recruiting staffing," said Warden. "Eliot possesses all the skills and attributes I look for in a head coach. He is a quick study, talented and an excellent communicator." Reynolds will assist with organizing the Boise State summer camp in mid-April.

"Eliot has a terrific handle on personnel recruiting, tape exchanges, and training," said Warden. "I'm really pleased when she chose Reynolds. He is a great addition to our coaching staff."

Reynolds has spent the past four years as a student assistant coach and the previous two seasons as an assistant coach. Reynolds was a student assistant coach at Stanford University in the spring of 2001.

"Reynolds is a great addition to our program," said Warden. "I'm really pleased when she chose Reynolds. He is a great addition to our coaching staff."

Eubanks headlines Jazz Festival

Kevin Eubanks will be leaving TV Land and heading to Boise for the Gene Harris Jazz Festival.

By J. Patrick Kelly

Two local nationally known jazz recording artists are coming to Boise for the Gene Harris Jazz Festival this weekend. Stigers, a Capital High School graduate who has been playing jazz for more than 20 years, is joining Kevin Eubanks this Saturday night at the Pavilion.

Kevin Eubanks is a well known jazz recording artist. He was featured on NBC’s “Tonight Show” as a member of the Tonight Show band “makes it the only fleeting hints of tunes heard and viewed commercial breaks. Catching the band from the studio will be, I just sing the head, another story, a chance to frame a commercial, give a sax solo, give a drummer his moment, and yield the top ten hit, "I Wonder Why." Stigers started his musical career in high school when he joined the Capital High School Jazz Band and Vocal Jazz Ensemble.

Stigers is a prolific jazz writer, saxophonist and guitarist. He bounces back, and reacts from alternative pop to jazz music, but tends to gravitate toward the latter. Stigers is a major jazz force after the release of his 1991 self-titled debut album, which sold more than 1.5 million copies and yielded the top ten hit, "I Wonder Why." Stigers has performed with many top jazz artists, including Marsalis.

Another Idaho jazz player to take the stage will be former Boise State student, Curtis Jensen, the director of jazz studies at the College of Southern Idaho. Jensen has performed with many top jazz artists, including Marsalis and Buster Williams, and "Face to Face" featuring Dave Grusin and Ron Carter.
