Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. For assistance with this collection of student newspapers, please contact Special Collections and Archives at archives@boisestate.edu.
By J. Patrick Kelly

The Arbiter ------------------
Center is once again packing helps new Boise State students ready themselves for day backpacking orientation, tions about financial aid, academia, clubs and organizarations, trips to Idaho's Frank Church Wilderness in central Idaho.

"Stahle has the largest modern area in the lower 48 states and we will be journeyning into the middle of it," Outdoor Center director Geoff Harrison said.

"Idaho has the largest pristine backcountry in the lower 48 states and we will be journeying new skills and activities." The Arbiter, Outdoor Center director

"Wilderness Quest is the backcountry," trip leader

"This program's success is due to the participation of the Outdoor Center's Hun-ing Outdor Center director Geoff Harrison said.

"This program's success is due to the participation of the Outdoor Center's Hun-ing Outdor Center director Geoff Harrison said.

Six Helpful Hints from the Bronco Books staff:

1) You may order your textbooks online at www.boisestatebooks.com. You can either have the shipping charges added to your order at the store and save the shipping. They will ship within twenty-four hours of the first week of classes. Please allow 24 hours to process your order.

2) You can also order online by using the following Bronco Books EXPRESS after you register on BroncoWeb. After you register on BroncoBooks, a link will appear that asks if you would like to order your books now. Click and the system will automatically to your order. You will then have the option of ordering and/or optional, new or used involves a trip itinerary, gear list and and meet with 65 students on campus for post-you can skip the lines!

"This program's success is due to the participation of the Outdoor Center's Hun-ing Outdor Center director Geoff Harrison said.

"This program's success is due to the participation of the Outdoor Center's Hun-

If you go...

The cost of the five-day backpacking, climbing and rafting adventure is $175. This covers transportation, instruction, on-trail food, cooking gear and equipment. Call the Outdoor Center at 426-4464 for more information or log onto www.boisestate.edu/recreation/outdoor.

Women's Center offers numerous services

By Melissa Winstead

The Boise State Women’s Center is a supportive environment for students wanting to be part of the campus community of women. They host events throughout the year that support and promote the women of Idaho. The program is under the direction of Program Coordinator Mike Esposito.

The Volunteer Fair is an annual event that helps students find volunteer opportunities. The Volunteer Fair is planned for August and September. Organization and club representatives come to the fair to talk to students about their organizations. There will be a fair held on Sept. 10 in the quad from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Esposito said this fair will allow students to see what volunteer positions are out there. The Volunteer Fair is held each semester.

Student Organization Fair is another annual event. This fair gives students a chance to discover new organizations and learn more about the organizations that are already on campus. The Student Organization Fair is planned for September.

Esposito said the organizations will have representatives to talk to students about their organizations. These representatives will discuss their goals and the work they do. This is a great opportunity for students to find organizations that match their interests.

The Women’s Center is a great place to get involved. There are many organizations and clubs that are interested in having new members. The Women’s Center is a great place to start exploring new opportunities.

Get involved with student organizations

By Matt Rizzani

The Arbiter

Welcome to higher education

Starting college is an exciting and rewarding experience. Some people know exactly what they want to do with their lives from the moment they graduate high school. But for others, the decision to pursue a college degree can be scary. The mentors at the Women’s Center can help them find their own path.

The Volunteer Fair is a great place to start. Students who are looking to get involved on campus will find many opportunities to explore. The Volunteer Fair is a great way to discover new organizations and clubs. The Volunteer Fair is planned for September.

The Student Organization Fair is another annual event. This fair gives students a chance to discover new organizations and learn more about the organizations that are already on campus. The Student Organization Fair is planned for September.

Esposito said the organizations will have representatives to talk to students about their organizations. These representatives will discuss their goals and the work they do. This is a great opportunity for students to find organizations that match their interests.

The Women’s Center is a great place to get involved. There are many organizations and clubs that are interested in having new members. The Women’s Center is a great place to start exploring new opportunities.

Get involved with student organizations

By Matt Rizzani

The Arbiter

Welcome to higher education

Starting college is an exciting and rewarding experience. Some people know exactly what they want to do with their lives from the moment they graduate high school. But for others, the decision to pursue a college degree can be scary. The mentors at the Women’s Center can help them find their own path.

The Volunteer Fair is a great place to start. Students who are looking to get involved on campus will find many opportunities to explore. The Volunteer Fair is a great way to discover new organizations and clubs. The Volunteer Fair is planned for September.

The Student Organization Fair is another annual event. This fair gives students a chance to discover new organizations and learn more about the organizations that are already on campus. The Student Organization Fair is planned for September.

Esposito said the organizations will have representatives to talk to students about their organizations. These representatives will discuss their goals and the work they do. This is a great opportunity for students to find organizations that match their interests.

The Women’s Center is a great place to get involved. There are many organizations and clubs that are interested in having new members. The Women’s Center is a great place to start exploring new opportunities.
Outdoor Center helps students have fun in wild Idaho

The key to a cashless campus and rising popularity across campus is ID services: access and discounts. Student access to buildings and classrooms is enhanced by the Boise State University Campus Card: Passport to campus services.

Campus Card: Passport to campus services

By Campus ID staff...

Boise State University has taken a "one card" approach to the Campus Card program. The Campus Card program is designed to provide students, faculty, staff, and community patrons only with one card in order to accomplish many tasks across the entire campus. Boise State University Card (BSUC) procedures produce over 2,000 cards each semester during the orientation sessions and over 6,000 cards annually. These include cards for students, staff, faculty, commuter and other special campus card types.

ID services: access and discounts

The Campus Card is a credit card that looks like a plastic ATM card. It reads Boise State University when you swipes it at the ATM. The Campus Card is one of the access keys for many campus facilities. It can be used to access classrooms, residence halls, employee parking, and more.

The Campus Card is also accepted at most on-campus retail locations, including the Bronco Shop and on-campus vending machines.

Bronco Bucks

Bronco Bucks are the cash equivalent of meals that are purchased with a meal plan. They can be used at the bookstore or other non-Boise State University approved merchants to purchase goods and services.

Flex Dollars

Flex Dollars are the cash equivalent of meals that are purchased with a meal plan. They can be used at the bookstore or other non-Boise State University approved merchants to purchase goods and services.

Meal Plans

There are many meal plans available for students at Boise State University. They include options such as the Bronco Shop, Parking, Recreation Center, and more.

Fall 2002 Outdoor Center Calendar

By Patrick Chertow

Fall 2002 Outdoor Center Calendar

Bicycle Clinic
9/5/02 Recreation Center
Backpacking Trip
9/7/02 Frank Church Area
Dutch Oven Cooking
9/10/02 Recreation Center
Bicycle Clinic
9/12/02 Recreation Center
Kayak Roll Session
9/18/02 Swimming Pool
Bicycle Clinic
9/19/02 Recreation Center
Family Camping Trip
9/21/02 Location TBA
Kayak Roll Session
9/25/02 Swimming Pool
Bicycle Clinic
9/26/02 Recreation Center
Kayak Roll Session
10/2/02 Swimming Pool
Rock Climbing Level 1
10/4/02 Climbing Gym
Rock Climbing Level 1
10/5/02 Black Cliffs
Kayak Roll Session
10/9/02 Swimming Pool
Sky Film
11/1/02 TBA

For more event information, drop by the Outdoor Center or check out our website at: www.boisestate.edu/recreation/outdoor.

FREE DRAFT (CHECKING) ACCOUNTS

How can you beat FREE?

FREE* ATMs
AT ALL OUR OFFICES & IN THE BSU SUB!

BSU Employees and Full-time Students

NO monthly service charge, NO per item fees, unlimited check writing, NO minimum balance requirement, PLUS we pay dividends on your account.

We have NO surcharge* ATMS at all three office locations PLUS one in the BSU SUB. Check out our website at www.capedfcu.org and FREE Home Banking!!!

Call 208-377-4600 or 1-800-223-7283, visit our website, or stop by today.

NCUA

Savings federally insured to $100,000 by NCUA, and Agency of the U.S. Government

4750 Thunderbolt Dr., Boise
500 E. Highland, Boise
12195 McMillan Rd., Boise
Cultural Center welcomes students

By Matt Neznanski

The Cultural Center at Boise State provides a safe, open, friendly home-away-from-home atmosphere where cultural diversity is appreciated and valued and people with different values, beliefs, and lifestyles can interact in an environment of mutual respect and dignity.

The center is located at the corner of University Drive and Locust Avenue in the Student Union Annex, across the street from the Student Recreation Center.

Haynes said the center is in the process of hiring a new director. The center drew nearly 120 applicants for the position, she said.

A committee has forwarded six names to Peg Blake, vice president of student affairs, for consideration. Haynes said the selection committee will hold a block-party style grand opening and the Boise State student section of the Boise Mercury.

Summer classes, break or burden?

By Kelly Ringer

Luly days of summer are gone for college students. Attending classes, working and volunteering are in order and students want to know if and when employment is at times, anything but pleasant.

"One of the worst summer job experiences I have ever had was when I worked at the local diners for the City of Boise," Redfield said. "They had me working in a restaurant that was right in the middle of the city. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun on the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun.

"First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Bradfield considers herself to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.

Tiffany Bradfield, a junior at A&M, found the conditions to be an active person. When summer rolled around, she decided to be part of the fun. "First, the building I worked in was a remodeled giraffe barn. The lighting was terrible, the work was boring, and I was depressed," Balderas said. "I was doing an important job. It was depressing having to be stuck inside while everyone else was having fun at the beach."

Apples do not have to be perfect to be picked. The center is located at the Student Rec Center.
SPB has big plans for academic year

New director keeps students' interests in mind

By J. Patrick Kelly

The Student Programs Board is setting their calendar for another year of special events and activities. Students can look forward to having more than 100 events throughout the year, including concerts, comedians, lectures, and special events. The board also has a new director, Kelly, who said that they have a rebel side as well as a serious nature.

Kelly said that the board's goal is to bring in events that are not only entertaining but also educational. He mentioned that the board has tried to bring in events that reflect the diverse interests of the Boise State student body. Kelly said that the board is looking for students to get involved and help plan events.

Kelly also talked about some of the events that the board has planned for the upcoming year. He mentioned that they are planning a Fall Film Festival, which will feature a variety of films from different genres. The board is also planning a Spring Fling event in Julia Dee Center, which will feature live music, food, and activities.

The board is also planning to start a new program called " endif," which will focus on showcasing the talents of Boise State students. The program will feature student performances in a variety of formats, including music, dance, and comedy.

Kelly said that he is excited about the upcoming year and is looking forward to seeing what the board can accomplish. He encouraged students to get involved and help plan events. He said that he believes that the board can make Boise State a more exciting and interesting place to be.

Summary

The Student Programs Board is planning a busy year of events and activities. They have a new director, Kelly, who said that the board is looking for students to get involved and help plan events. The board is planning a Fall Film Festival, a Spring Fling event, and a new program called " endif." Kelly said that he is excited about the upcoming year and is looking forward to seeing what the board can accomplish.

Try Gateway Center for advising, tutoring, or other services

By Andrew Bevan

Life as a new student at Boise State can sometimes be a harrowing and frustrating experience, both for returning and new students. There are often obstacles to completing your education.

However, Gateway Center for Academic Support can help new students navigate these obstacles and become successful in their classes.

Gateway Center provides a variety of services, including academic advising, tutoring, and other support services. The center's mission is to "empower students to achieve academic success and personal growth."

The center is currently in the fall advising program, which includes academic advising and testing. This program helps students understand the requirements and policies of the university. The center also provides a variety of other services, including career planning, study skills, and personal development.

The center is located in the College of Education, in the newly renovated Wiegand Hall. They are open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

For more information, visit the Gateway Center website at gatewaycenter.boisestate.edu.
Welcome Week celebrates diverse student body

By Matt Nenamzki

Welcome Week is a full week of activities designed to set the tone for an amazing year. Autumn Haynes, Student Activities Coordinator of Boise State, said she hopes to make Welcome Week exciting for students. Haynes is excited about Welcome Week events including the REC Center grand opening and the Boise State vs. Idaho football game. Haynes said all students can enjoy the noon-hour break during the first week of classes at the REC Center.

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.

Student Information Desk

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.

Welcome Week celebrates diverse student body

By Matt Nenamzki

The Student Activities Office is the center for information about student involvement and campus life. The office acts as a resource to over 60 student organizations including Student Programs Board, Student Government, Student Housing and Organizations, TAS, Boise State, and the Student Activities Office.

Student Activities Office is the center for information about student involvement and campus life. The office acts as a resource to over 60 student organizations including Student Programs Board, Student Government, Student Housing and Organizations, TAS, Boise State, and the Student Activities Office.

Welcome Week is a full week of activities designed to set the tone for an amazing year. Autumn Haynes, Student Activities Coordinator of Boise State, said she hopes to make Welcome Week exciting for students. Haynes is excited about Welcome Week events including the REC Center grand opening and the Boise State vs. Idaho football game. Haynes said all students can enjoy the noon-hour break during the first week of classes at the REC Center.

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.

Student Information Desk

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.

Welcome Week celebrates diverse student body

By Matt Nenamzki

The Student Activities Office is the center for information about student involvement and campus life. The office acts as a resource to over 60 student organizations including Student Programs Board, Student Government, Student Housing and Organizations, TAS, Boise State, and the Student Activities Office.

Student Activities Office is the center for information about student involvement and campus life. The office acts as a resource to over 60 student organizations including Student Programs Board, Student Government, Student Housing and Organizations, TAS, Boise State, and the Student Activities Office.

Welcome Week is a full week of activities designed to set the tone for an amazing year. Autumn Haynes, Student Activities Coordinator of Boise State, said she hopes to make Welcome Week exciting for students. Haynes is excited about Welcome Week events including the REC Center grand opening and the Boise State vs. Idaho football game. Haynes said all students can enjoy the noon-hour break during the first week of classes at the REC Center.

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.

Student Information Desk

Students can find Boise State maps and information including campus schedules and catalogs. The Information Desk can also add Boise Bucks to Student ID cards. A student ID card is required for purchases at the REC Center.
Department of Theatre Arts 2002-3 Season

Dead White Males by William Missouri Downs
Directed by Gordon Reinhart
Stage II
October 3-5, 9-12 at 7:30 p.m.
October 6 and 13 at 2:00 p.m.

Metro by Euripides
Directed by Ann Klautsch
Stage II
November 14-16, 20-22 at 7:30 p.m.
November 17 and 24 at 2:00 p.m.

Tijuana Toss Tuesdays:
Directed by Mark짭
Stage II
Every Tuesday in October:
Night Owl Breakfast in Table Rock Cafe,
November: Beat The Clock Month
December: $2 for $2 cheeseburgers, hamburgers, Moxie
For any purchase over $3.00 receive $1 Off fee and receive a Monster Cookie for 10 cents at all participating Union Food Court locations!

Fall Showcase 2002:
Stage II
April 17-19, 23-25 at 7:30 p.m.
April 27 at 2:00 p.m.

Spring Showcase 2003:
Stage II
May 7-10 at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets are free for students and faculty and can be picked at the Student Info desk in the SUB.
Students can save thousands by avoiding lease problems

By Aleah Purcell
Daily Evergreen (Boise State University)

For most students, summer is the time to move, whether to a different campus or city or to a new area altogether. Many students do not know the correct procedures to follow when entering or leaving the correct procedures to prevent this from happening.

A new lease should list any damages, which are not legal of what landlords and tenants need to know about landlord-tenant laws can be read in the Landlord-Tenant Act. In these cases, a landlord may not be aware of this problem, so students may consult with Student Legal Services. Students have free thirty-minute consultations with Morris as long as the conflict does not involve another student.

The Landlord-Tenant Act requires all leases to include state-provided legal information. Any WSU students with legal consult a-...