VOL. 2, NO. 1

Fun-Raising Dance Scheduled Friday

A "Beat Ricks" dance will be held in the SUB on Friday, Jan. 28, from 9 p.m. to 12, sponsored by the International Relations Club. The $1 admission charge will entitle one to two servings of "Champunch," an effervescent beverage resembling champagne, the recipe for which was collected from a far corner of the world by Mr. Avery Peterson, I. R. C. advisor.

Instead of the traditional "fund-raising" activity, this will be a "fun-raising" dance, according to Mr. Peterson. Napoleon and the Conquerors, a local dance band, will furnish the music. School clothes will be in order.

Proceeds from the dance will help to send members to the International Relations Club in San Francisco for the Model United Nations held in April. The conclave will be sponsored by Stanford University.

COLLEGE MUSICIANS REHEARSING FOR ANNUAL YOUTH CONCERT, OPERA

February will be a month for music entertainment at Boise College, with the coming of the 12th Annual Boise College Community Symphony Youth Concert and the Boise Choristers' presentation of the opera, "Dido and Aeneas." According to Mr. John H. Best, director, five youthful musicians will perform with the BC symphony at the Youth Concert to be held Sunday, Feb. 13 at 4 p.m., in the South Junior High School auditorium.

Two of the five soloists are pupils of BC faculty members. They are Jeffrey Shumway, 8th grade pianist from Hillside Junior High, student of Carol Meyers, and Sherwood Scribner, Borah High violinist, student of Kathryn Eckhardt Mitchell.

Opera Deplets Greek Mythology
Boise Choristers, under the direction of Miss Georgia Standing, BC voice instructor, will present the opera, "Dido and Aeneas," Saturday, Feb. 12 at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Auditorium.

"This is the only early English opera still being performed and is a great classic of its kind," stated Miss Standing.

The opera will be of particular interest to those students who have studied Greek mythology.

All proceeds will go towards the annual Choristers' organ scholarship fund. Pamela Tillman, this year's scholarship recipient, will play the offertory music on the college's pipe organ.

The date for the dress rehearsal has been set for Friday, Feb. 11.

Canadian Educator To Speak on Campus

DR. NORMAN A. M. MACKENZIE

Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, president of the Canadian Centenary Council to mark the 100th anniversary of Canada as an independent nation, will speak at a dinner to be held in the SUB Friday night, Feb. 4, at 7 o'clock.

A distinguished Canadian educator and president of the University of British Columbia for 18 years, Dr. MacKenzie will speak on "The Changing Scene in Canada." Students and faculty may make reservations for the dinner at the switchboard in the Administration Building. The price of the dinner is $1 and Monday, Jan. 31 is the deadline for reservations.

Dr. MacKenzie will be a guest of BC political science professor Avery Peterson, who served as a consul general in Canada three years. MacKenzie has been a frequent delegate to international and Commonwealth conferences and has written several books on international law and foreign affairs.

Deans Remind Students Of Dress Regulations

Dean Edwin E. Wilkinson and Dean Helen Moore wish to remind all students that they must conform to campus dress regulations as listed on page 14 of their Student Handbooks. Copies are available at the Dean's office.

Students are especially urged to study the regulations for the Friday night dances. "Grubbles" are unacceptable unless it has been otherwise so announced. Everyday school clothes are accepted apparel at most of the informal dances.

Enrollment, Buildings Shoot Skyward

IN LINE (or bottleneck?), students waited patiently during registration.

Record Enrollment Marks Embarkation On New Semester

Signs of Boise College's growth are in evidence as the school's more than 2,300 day students get under way with classes and activities of the spring semester. Due to the mild weather during the Christmas vacation, contractors were able to make rapid progress on the science building and vocational technical additions. A look at this semester's enrollment figures tells at a glance the reason for the rapid expansion.

This semester's enrollment increased 41.1 per cent over last year's figure. The unofficial day registration through Jan. 21 (one week after classes began), was recorded as 1,325 freshmen, 662 sophomores, 219 upper division, and 126 part-time students. The total of 2,332 full-time day students is nearly twice as large as the 1,638 day students enrolled during spring semester last year.

Building Progresses

Present building accommodations and additions, with their completion dates set for Aug. 15, 1966, will be supplemented by a new student union building, a liberal arts building, a 300-man dormitory to be completed by fall of 1967.

Men students outnumbered the women this semester by 746, for a near 2 to 1 ratio of men to women. Night school registration revealed different proportions, however, with 339 men and 479 women enrolled.

The beginning of classes early in September this year has been of real value to the college students and faculty, according to President Eugene B. Chaffee. The early start made it possible for the first semester to end immediately before the holidays, and will allow the spring semester to terminate academic studies and exams in time for graduation on May 15.

More Study Space

Due to the increased enrollment at the college and the need for more study space in the library, the informal group study room on the west side of the library has been converted to conventional reading space. The double doors have been removed, and no talking or smoking will be allowed in the area.

The administration anticipates reconverting the area when the new liberal arts building is completed.

Notices From the Registrar

Students planning to graduate with a two-year credential this spring must have filed an application with the Registrar.

All students are asked to check the cumulative totals on their final grade report for this fall semester; if they do NOT agree with the personal records, please report the discrepancy to the Registrar.

Student Senate Eyes Constitution

By MARCI MCKEETH

The Student Senate is drafting a new constitution, the old one having been made obsolete by the advance to a four-year program. ASB President Frank Frantz, at the Monday night Senate meeting, said "... among constitutional changes being considered is a rise in the minimum grade point average for eligible officers. The basic makeup of the executive council also is in need of revision."

Marilyn McKean, a BC junior, was elected executive council secretary, succeeding Linda Morgan.

Financial aid also was voted to the AWS in their sponsorship of the annual Sweetheart's ball. The AWS will do the actual work as they always have in the past.

A wardrobe allotment for Miss Boise College was also discussed to assist the future Miss BC in competing for the Miss Idaho title.

The Senate also approved an Esquire plan to promote patriotism on the campus by means of inspiring posters.

Carol Jensen, yearbook editor, urged all clubs to submit their copy to her on club history and present activities, for use in LES BOIS.

Guest speaker at the Student Senate meeting was Mrs. Helen Thomson, who updated the student government on campus publicity facilities. She pointed out the necessity of a publicity chairman for any club which hopes to succeed in its objectives. Mrs. Thomson showed the Senate a sample copy of the news sheet supplied by the new BC News Bureau to 15 different media to publicize the college.

The second Student Senate session is scheduled for Feb. 7, at 7:00 p.m. Subjects to be discussed include the new constitution and the results of the service club survey to determine needs and interests of the student body in new organizations.

Intramural Skiing Now Being Offered

Ski classes, for the first time, are available through the college's intramural program, as well as the Physical Education department.

Those interested in the intramural skiing program should contact the P.E. office immediately, according to Mr. Jack Perrin, supervisor. The first lesson for intramural skiers will be given this Friday from 2 to 4 p.m. at Bogus Basin, with instructors furnished by the Bogus Basin Ski School.

More than 100 men and women have enrolled in skiing through the Physical Education program for credit, representing an increase of almost 50 per cent over last year.

Six lessons cost $15, with equipment available for rental at a nominal fee.

ANNUAL BALL POSTPONED

The annual Sweethearts Ball has been postponed to avoid conflict with other college events.

Special Events Dated for Students

Play Tryouts

Tryouts for the spring play, "The Little Foxes," by Lillian Hellman, will be held in the Little Theater of the Library at 3:00 p.m. on Friday, Jan. 28 and at 10 p.m. on Saturday, Jan. 29. All those interested in aiding and abetting the play to be held March 30, 31 and April 1, 2, should be at these tryouts, or contact Dr. William Shankweller.

Foreign Film

The college's first foreign film presentation of this semester has been set for Friday night, Feb. 4, at 8 o'clock in the Science Auditorium. The program will feature a Russian-produced film entitled "The Lady With the Dog," adapted from the story by Anton Chekhov.

The film, which speaks quietly but with eloquence and compassion of the frustrations of Czarist Russia's uneasy middle class, won one of the prizes at the 1960 Cannes Film Festival.

Miss BC Pageant
Saturday, April 2 is the date set for the Miss Boise College Pageant. This is the third annual pageant, which is sponsored by the Golden Z's and the Intercollegiate Knights. Lynda Miller and Steve Shue are this year's joint chairmen. Entry blanks will be available soon in the offices of Mrs. Dorothy Lee and Mr. John Woodworth, club advisors.

Year of the Horse

Friday was the beginning of the Chinese New Year—the time for new beginnings; all debts of the past are terminated; old enmities are forgiven and there are resolutions for improvement in the new year. And this year is the Year of the Horse.

Perhaps many of you made New Year's resolutions which you have undoubtedly forgotten or have given up already. But here is your chance to make new resolutions—to get better grades, to support your favorite club or organization, and to support your school.

With each succeeding semester bringing Boise College closer to its goal of a full four-year academic schedule, we should strive to contribute to the traditions being formed now. One of the major features of a college atmosphere is its spirit, the interest of its students in extra-curricular activities and participation in college-sponsored functions. School spirit is low when such a small percentage of students attend the ball games, concerts, plays and dances offered to them.

Just as this is the Chinese Year of the Horse, let's make this year OUR Year of the Horse, Year of the Boise College BRONCOS!

What Goes On Here?

Do you know what is happening on campus? Are you using your eyes, ears and other senses? Why is there constant complaint of "we didn't know about it" whenever any event has occurred. The bulletin boards are covered, doors and doorways are decorated with posters and notices. The ROUNDUP carries information on all upcoming activities, along with news on what has happened.

The Student Senate has become aware of the need to encourage school spirit and participation and it is in the process of attempting to determine ways of involving more students in the many and varied extra-curricular activities on campus. But all the inducements, advertising and public relations are of no avail unless the students of Boise College are willing to put forward the effort to support these events.

So, come on you deadheads, wake up! Find out what is going on and get in on the fun! Become the well-rounded student by participating in the extra activities on campus that many of you have been denying yourselves, they're yours for the asking.

Lockers Needed for Students

Whatever happened to the old tradition of school lockers? They certainly have not become obsolete. Many students who don't drive to school grumble about the load of books they have to carry around all day. Even those who do have cars must carry an incredible load of books, notebooks, class equipment, plus wraps.

With the advent of parallel parking along river road and the subsequent shortage of parking space, more and more students are beginning to feel a need for some place they can "stow their gear." There seldom is sufficient space even in the classrooms for the student burdens.

Locker facilities wouldn't necessarily have to be an added expense to the college. An optional fee of $5 could be charged at registration time to those students wishing to rent lockers for the semester. After a year or two, the lockers would be paid for and would prove a source of income for the service club or organization who installed them.

Such facilities would be a boon to many students, and would prove an added convenience of the much needed new Student Union.

WORDS WORTH REPEATING . . .

The art of awareness is the art of learning how to awaken to the eternal miracle of life with its limitless possibilities.

It is searching for beauty everywhere—in a flower, a mountain, a sonnet and a symphony.

It is developing the deep sensitivity through which we may suffer and know tragedy . . . but through which we will also experience the grandeur of human life.

It is identifying yourself with the hopes, dreams, fears and longings of others. It is learning to interpret their thoughts, feelings and moods.

It is keeping mentally alert to all that goes on around you; it is being curious, observant, imaginative, that you may build an ever-increasing fund of knowledge of the universe.

It is striving to stretch the range of eye and ear; it is taking time to look and listen and comprehend.

It is through a growing awareness that you stock and enrich your memory—and as a great philosopher has said: "A man thinks with his memory.—From THE ART OF LIVING, by Wilfred A. Peterson.

EDITOR RECEIVES AWARD

FIRST SEMESTER EDITOR Joe Patterson receives cash award from President Eugene B. Chaffee for journalistic achievements. The scholarship award for journalism, believed to be one of the first given at Boise College, was from an anonymous donor "to help promote greater interest in the communications skills."

Use the College Paper

Publication dates for your college weekly, the ROUNDUP, this semester will be:

February 3, 10, 17, 24; Mar. 3, 10 (Spring vacation on the 16th), 31; April 7, 14, 21, 28, and May 5. All news or notices MUST be in the Publications Office by noon on the Friday, except for weekend news. This deadline will be strictly enforced.

Bring all news stories to TIA or call extension 49 before the deadline date. — The Editor.

Dr. Anderson Joins Institute Staff

Dr. Richard V. Anderson has joined the LDS Institute of Religion as associate director. Dr. Anderson, who holds LL.B., M.Ed., and ED.D. degrees, practiced law for seven years in southern Colorado, where his experiences with juvenile delinquents prompted him to help guide young people. He has taught in the Denver public schools, and seminary classes in Salt Lake City before coming to Boise Jan. 1. Religious classes are taught at the Institute Monday through Friday.

CLUB NEWS

Young Democrats

The Young Democrats are planning to organize on campus, according to Nancy Garrett. The organizing parties have not yet located an advisor but are hopeful of finding one in the near future.

All interested people are urged to call Jack Haymond, Jr., at 343-9048. A tentative meeting time has been set for once a month on Thursday noon.

Esquires

The Esquires have announced their new officers for the spring semester as follows:

President, Dick Kendall; vice president, Dave Croft; secretary, Ed Rees; treasurer, Tim Hedges; sergeant-at-arms, Wally McGolden; Student Senate representative, Dave Ackley; historian, Jack Cane, and publicity chairman and social director, John Poulson.

The Esquires hold meetings every Tuesday at noon in room "E" of the Student Union building. The Esquire club is dedicated to the promotion of patriotism and scholarship among college students; service to the college and community, and fellowship and social activities for the ex-servicemen. All ex-servicemen who are interested, are invited to join.

Golden Z's

The club is now busily making plans for the Miss Boise College Pageant, which they co-sponsor with the Intercollegiate Knights.

As a Christmas project, the Golden Z's treated the Winsky children to a shopping trip and dinner at the Chuckwagon. The children had never eaten out before, so it was a real treat for them.

Jan. 31 Deadline Set For Foreign Registrants

All students who are not citizens of the United States are reminded that Monday, Jan. 31 is the deadline for registering with the Immigration and Naturalization service.

Non-citizens are required by law to fill out the cards available at all post offices, giving their names and current addresses.

RELIGION ON CAMPUS

By
PHOEBE LINDSEY

The Boise College Inter Faith Council will hold its first meeting of the second semester on Thursday, Jan. 27 at noon in room E in the SUB. All religious organizations on campus are urged to send representatives to this important first meeting. Meetings will be held monthly, according to Nancy Garrett, president. Any religious group which does not have a member on the Council is urged to talk with Dr. William Y. Fung, the faculty advisor for the Council.

The Newman Club will sponsor group activities and projects every Wednesday evening at 7:30 in their Center, according to Carolyn Braden, president. The first meeting of the semester was held on January 26th. Mass will be said every noon Monday through Friday at the Center and at 9 a.m. on Sundays.

The Baptist Student Union will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 8 in the SUB ballroom. The group sponsored a pizza party-fellowship recently at the Mountain View Baptist Church. Members of the Union are planning a trip to Mountain Home to join in the Sunday services of a Baptist church there.

The Methodist Student Movement will meet every Tuesday at noon in the SUB, according to Nancy Garrett. Rev. Dwight Williams will lead the first discussion on the Book of GENESIS with particular reference to a recent publication, THE SECULAR CITY by Harvey Cox.

Dr. Richard V. Anderson, the new associate director of the LDS Institute of Religion, will speak at the lecture forum Friday noon, Jan. 28. The Boise College LDS group held a joint Snow Party at their Pine Top retreat near Idaho City with the members of the Treasure Valley Community College LDS group last Saturday.

Plans are being made for a special "Preference Ball"

Dr. John Caylor, a member of the Political Science and History department, is a native of Sioux City, Iowa. He earned his BA at Nebraska State Teachers College, his MA and Ph. D. at the University of Nebraska, and was awarded an honorary degree by Morningside College in Sioux City. The Caylor has two sons, a college freshman and a fourth grader.

Dr. Caylor was appointed to the Nebraska Navy while teaching in that state during the summer of 1959. He was nominated for this honor by one of his former professors, also an Admiral of the NSN. The late Governor Ralph G. Brooks of Nebraska and Chief Admiral Theodore W. Metcalfe approved the nomination and Dr. Caylor was dubbed "Admiral" on July 22, 1959. Admiral Caylor says he has yet to receive an order.

The seals on his document of admiralship are those of the Governor of Nebraska and the Great Navy of the State of Nebraska.

Although the final snowfall of winter is in the indefinite future, it's not too early for the wise girl to start planning her spring wardrobe. JANTZEN has already entered the spring fashion scene with its new line of cotton permanent-press sportswear.

My lady has her choice of long-wearing, machine-washable Koratron capris, jamaicas, or skirts, which are available in sizes 8-18. They come in beige, pink and light blue. Not only do the skirts come in all sizes, but in all shapes too (belted straight or beltless A-line).

You don't have to search far to find tops to match these co-ordinates—just step to the opposite side of the clothes rack at the BON MARCHE, and view the colorful blouses made to complete the ensemble. Sleeveless numbers, with a pointed collar, have a tiny pink, blue, or beige flowered pattern on a white background. Also available is a three-quarter length, roll-up style. These are patterned or solid pastel.

JANTZEN also has handsome sweaters to wear with the other garments. They're 70% wool, 30% Acrilan-acrylle.

Remember, no ironing is necessary on any of these co-ordinates. Just wear them, wash them, and enjoy them.

College is said to be a status symbol, according to Vance Packard in his recent speech before the student body at the U. of I. He said college was a definite status symbol—for parents. The success of the Faculty-Business Club basketball game held last Friday night was attributed to the good sportsmanship and showmanship of all those participating, including Mrs. Helen Johnson in her black lace stockings and the "strip act" by Mr. William Belknap.

The Phi Beta Lambda team racked up points when Captain Gary Bengochea mounted the shoulders of Jim Strohmeier and retained a favorable position under the basket. The action had begun when Sylvia Tibbets, who stands less than five feet tall, made the jump for the ball. Heckling by Howard Swafford kept the referees busy. Mrs. Johnson rallied the faculty with her cheering and was the envy of the coeds in her "Slippery Rock" sweatshirt.

Several scores have been reported, ranging from 37-34 to 42-39. Everyone is sure about one thing—the faculty lost.

"Curses, foiled again," is a cliché heard in the gym these days now that a class in Fencing (for women only) has been added to the PE curriculum. Approximately 50 coeds, under the supervision of PE Instructor Mrs. Jean Boyles, are learning the fundamentals of the international sport.

Broncos Test Ricks Here Saturday

SOPHOMORE LEE HARVEY stretches up towards the basket for the rebound in a recent North Idaho JC-Bronco game.

Boise Faces Rexbug in a Make-It Situation

By STEVE LAWRENCE

For our Boise College "round-ballers," it seems to be a do-or-die situation. This Friday, as they prepare for Saturday's game with Ricks College, they must further that worrying about the outcome of the one game, worry about their own league standing and what possibilities they have for a conference title. Obtaining a conference title is the only opportunity junior colleges have of going into league competition. There is no runner-up or consolation round.

Dixie is in command of the conference now with four conference games and the Snow tourney title under its belt. Following close in numerical standings are the Boise Broncos. Numerical standings are stressed to emphasize the fact that although mathematically the locals are one game down, the fact does remain that they would have to win all remaining games for a bid for the title.

The "big game" will be Friday, Feb. 11 when Dixie makes a trip to Boise, Coach Murray Satterfield points out.

Third ranked in the conference at present is Ricks college with a two-win and two-loss record. For the Broncos to lose to the team from Rexburg would be very unfortunate. This is the importance of the game Saturday; maintaining a second place position in the conference race and beating a team with only a 2-2 record.

Intramural Program Begins for B-Ball

The intramural basketball program steps into its 1966 season this next week with 20 teams scheduled to participate and with a limit of 10 men to a team. Coach Jack Perrin specified: "All teams participating must have their 10 members registered by Monday, Jan. 31."

Coach Perrin further stated there will be two leagues participating. In each league there will be 10 teams and the champions from each league will play off for the championship of the entire cage program. The games are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m.

Reported to be vigorously preparing for this "free-for-all competition are the Bandits from Driscoll Hall. The football team under the same name participated for Driscoll in the fall program and were successful in capturing the over-all title. Leading the Bandits into their first game will be the playing Coach Steve Farden, supported by 67" Jack Crowell, a recent Bronco standout, now a junior, and Rod Chester from Vale, Oregon.

Chaffee, Harvey Cited

Sophomores Bart Chaffee and Lee Harvey were selected as members of the All-Snow Tournament team which consisted of the ten most outstanding participants. Both boys were presented trophies in recognition of their selections, which were determined by a poll of the referees and coaches.

Basketball Statistics

The statistics for the Boise Bronco basketball team now stand as follows:

Sophomore Lee Harvey definitely leads his team with a 295 total and an average of 18.5 per game. Harvey's position is being challenged by upsurging Nep Lynch, the other forceful guard on the Bronco squad. Lynch has been developing an exceptional percentage of completing attempts, both from the court and from the foul line. In the last five games, Lynch has averaged better than 22 tallies per game. His total now reads 251 with an average of 15. His percentage at the foul line is to really be looked at. Lynch has hit 49 of 60 attempts for a percentage of success at 80%.

Other Broncos who support the above leaders include Bart Chaffee who has a total of 192 and a 12-point average; Wayne Broyles who has totaled 165 and averaged 10.5, followed by Renee Ruth who now has 150 total and an average of 9.5.

HOOPSTERS BUSY OVER HOLIDAYS; CAPTURE THIRD IN SNOW TOURNEY

While most college students spent their Christmas holidays in grateful relaxation or enjoyable trips to the ski slopes, Coach Murray Satterfield and the Bronco basketball team kept busy competing in the Snow Tournament at Ephraim, Utah, and met three different opponents in scheduled dual contests.

The basketball tournament held at Ephraim, and with six teams competing, began on Dec. 28. Taking part were Mesa College of Grand Junction, Snow College of Ephraim (the host), Rangely College from Rangely, Colo., Mesa Community from Mesa, Ariz, Hill Air Force Base, the Boise College Broncos, and Manhattan Beach from California.

Broncos Open Tourney

The first day of action, gave the Broncos a fine win, as they moved into the second bracket following their victory over Rangely College, 92-78. Also moving up into the second bracket was Snow College and thus the opponents for the Broncos' second game was known. Dixie College also moved into the second bracket.

The second day of action resulted in defeat to the Broncos as they went down under the thunder of the obviously heavy "tenny runners" of Snow College. Snow moved on into the championship bracket to meet Dixie.

The Broncos stepped into the consolation bracket to meet Manhattan Beach, who had been the victims of Dixie's successful climb throughout the tournament. Boise marched over Manhattan Beach to claim third place, 95-83, while Dixie defeated Snow. The final outcome was: Dixie, first; Snow, second; Boise, third, and Manhattan fourth.

Continuing on through the holiday season, Boise College hit hard against North Idaho J.C. on January 7 and 8 at the home court, and were inundated twice, 61-54 and 64-62.

Other opponents and games played during the holidays were against Ricks College at Rexburg in which the Broncos squeaked by 78-74, and two encounters against Treasure Valley, which must have been relaxers, for Boise dominated both, the first 74-55 and the second, 84-54.

NEP LYNCH, transfer from Idaho State, demands the ball from a Mesa opponent. The Broncos took the contest, 78-63, with Lynch leading scorer with 22 points.
