Cockrell Is First Senior Chief

SHE'S MISS RODEO IDAHO AFTER HECTIC WEEKEND; MISS CONGENIALITY, TOO!

Over two-thirds of Boise College's first senior class turned out last Friday to vote for their class officers with some 137 juniors, 332 sophomores and 53 freshmen also participating in the balloting. The voters elected 12 students to represent their classes in student government.

Chosen to represent the senior class as their first president is Jim Cockrell, fellow of the Boise Republicans, and hopes to belong to the Idaho chapter. According to Cockrell, "I plan on recalling the Alfano Administration a service and Boise College's spirit of student-staff relations. Furthermore, I hope to get more student recognition and develop more time social affairs." He continued: "We need a senior representative. We need a voice on the floor, and in the college. We need a student to look into the future, to see what we will need."

The new GI Bill law requires that monthly certificates of attendance signed by veterans be sent to the VA office. Of the veterans who have attended the college, 12 have signed certificates and 30 have not. The VA office is located in the lower level of the Administration Building.

ROSEMARY VASSAR winning a dream trip from Red Raynover of the Boise College Rodeo Association during her official presentation in the Boise Junior College Idaho of 1965.

Rosemary Vassar, a tall, statuesque blonde, has made a victorious return to Boise College. She is Miss Rodeo Idaho, won at the state contest last weekend in Pfer, Idaho.

Competing with 12 other girls from all parts of Idaho, Rosemary won the heart's contention as well as the prize of the judges who saw her given the gold and other gifts chosen to receive the award by the other girls and was presented with a gold buckle.

When thinking back to the winning of the Congeniality award, she said she thought she would never be able to get the gold buckle even if she didn't win the title of Miss Rodeo Idaho. When on the continent, and she did win the coveted award, she explained, "I was so excited, I couldn't believe it. It came as a surprise that I won my first rodeo contest."

"I feel looking at the beautiful things that I didn't see during this time my house. Gold is was sterling silver. I bought the collection of own. Rosemary was retired in the contest by the Idaho Rodeo Association. She also won Miss Idaho for Boise College."

31 Hall of Fame

Along with the title of Miss Idaho, Miss Vassar received a handcrafted saddle made in Yamn, Texas, a matching head stall and breast collar for her horse, a $250 gift certificate and $250 for travel expenses and many other fabulous prizes.

Before leaving for the contest with Rosemary, Rosemary was presented with another gift of $25 from H. T. Wood, a Boise business man.

"It was the best experience of my life," according to Miss Vassar, that 1,500 Boise business men.

All the activities associated with the contest, including fare, transportation and other expenses for the girls were paid for by the Idaho Rodeo Association. The girls were transported to the contest by the Idaho Rodeo Association.

Traveling to Las Vegas in November, Rosemary was named Miss Idaho Rodeo Association, and Miss Idaho for Boise College.

THESE THREE NEW TRUSTEES were elected by the general public on Nov. 4th. The election turnout was shocking—only many for an election of such great importance, according to many election officials.

The new trustees are Helena, John P. Tun, who led the field with 3,201 votes; Donald Day, with 2,926 votes; and Ralph Contreras, Jr., with 2,040 votes. There were 130 write-in votes not for a majority of persons.

2-S Classification 'Stiffened' by Board

Action by the Ada County Board of Education shows that classification as a 2-S will bring trouble even to the best of secondary schools. One default action will be stiffed to schools formerly in the 2-B classification.

The Ada County Board voted the 2-B classification to schools by a vote of 4-2, with one vacancy casting the deciding vote. The 2-B classification was retained for schools that have already been approved as such by the Ada County Board.

The decision was made after a thorough review of the various schools' performance in the last academic year. The Ada County Board took into consideration factors such as academic achievement, extracurricular activities, and community involvement.

The Ada County Board's decision is in line with the state's educational standards and guidelines, which aim to ensure that all students receive a quality education.

The Ada County Board's decision is expected to have a significant impact on the schools that were previously classified as 2-B. The schools will now be required to meet higher standards, which may include increased funding and additional resources.

The Ada County Board's decision is also expected to have a ripple effect on other school districts in the state, as they may be forced to re-evaluate their own classification systems.

The Ada County Board's decision is expected to be met with mixed reactions from the affected schools. Some may see it as a challenge, while others may view it as an opportunity to improve their performance and meet higher standards.

The Ada County Board is committed to ensuring that all students receive a quality education, and this decision is a step in that direction.

Coed Learns Mysteries Of Motorcycle World

Linda, who was walking by while I was putting books on the backs of my friends and stopped and looked at me, "It's pretty, kind of," she said.

"It's a very fast, anyway," according to my friend who was standing next to me.

"It's a five-speed," I replied.

"What does that mean?" she asked.

"It means that there are five different gears," I explained.

"I see," she said.

The movie came about from a zany, madcap adventure of several friends who decided to take a trip on their motorcycles.

The motorcycle is a popular mode of transportation around the world, but also a sport for many enthusiasts. The story of the movie is set in a small Italian village and follows the adventures of the characters as they ride their motorcycles.

The motorcycle features a powerful engine and is capable of high speeds. It is also easily maneuverable and can handle rough terrain. The movie captures the thrill and excitement of riding a motorcycle, as well as the camaraderie among the riders.

Innocent Question

"But what does that mean?" she asked.

"It means that there are five different gears," I explained.

"I see," she said.

The movie is a great way to learn about the history and culture of motorcycle riding, as well as the camaraderie among the riders. It is recommended for anyone interested in motorcycles or looking for a thrilling adventure.
