BOISE COLLEGE ROUNDUP

THURSDAY, NOV. 3, 1977

FIRST PLACE WINNERS of the Battle of the Bands, The BARDs, Provo, Utah, were awarded $2,500 in cash prizes and medals, and will perform a banquet.

A MAN OF MANY FACES

Something more than just an entertainer, Glenn Yarbrough is a man with a deep love for people and a devotion to the world and its individuals who will appear in concert, Sat., Nov. 5 at 8:00 at the Boise College Performing Arts Center.

Displaying his skill in music, Yarbrough will present a two-hour show to the public, singing his smash hits "Going Berserk," "Rain, Rain Must Fall," and "When the Honey Winds Blow," sponsored by the Associated Student Body of BC, Yarbrough will be accompanied by the Stanney Street Quartet and a college-orchestra-accompanied comedian.

During his years as being one of the nation's top singers, the '70s folk singer was attached to his name, but Yarbrough feels that it is inaccurate. "It's taken three albums, but I think that at last people no longer think of me as a folk singer. Yes, I am grateful to my background because it made me a better musician, but I don't want to be categorized as a 'folk singer' because I am not. I sometimes sing songs with a folk flavor but it is as long as it means something to me musically and especially lyrically." Yarbrough feels this is accurate, as he has been described as a 'folk singer' because he is not. He once sang songs with a folk flavor, but it is as long as it means something to him musically and especially lyrically.

BARS TAKE FIRST PLACE IN BATTLE OF THE BANDS

"Swingin'" battle was fought last weekend, with The BARDs of Provo, Utah, and the BC Oasis being victorious by winning first place in the Battle of the Bands. The Oasis was given second place, Marauders were given third place, and The BARDs were given fourth place. All in all, the Oasis were the winners from the West except for Mike, who is from Benton, Mo.

The Oasis, whose name means turning around, how the director of business-minded with the Oasis, because the Oasis, one after the other, were not impressed with the Oasis's choice. After working together for a year and a half, the Oasis are still friends.

Trample Ricks Vikings 38-20 to Win Second Consecutive Championship

By BILL WINKLER
Roundup Sports Editor

The Boise College Broncos went into Rexburg Saturday afternoon and came out with a 38-20 victory, winning the season sweep and winning the Intermountain Collegiate Athletic Conference for the second consecutive year.

The Broncos started early, waiting only six minutes in the first period to put the first TD on the scoreboard. This came with Jim Mahan grabbing a Richard Samuelson interception and zipping 40 yards for a 6-0 lead. Mahan would be the Broncos' top receiver for the game with three catches for 58 yards.

On defense, the Broncos limited the Vikings to 141 total yards of offense, only 23 yards in passing, and forced three turnovers. On offense, the Broncos scored 414 total yards, 386 in passing and 28 in rushing.

The Broncos improved to 6-2 overall and 5-0 in the conference. The Vikings dropped to 6-2 overall and 2-3 in the conference.
