and one of them will go to New York City to participate in the National College Queen Pageant in June. Boise College has produced one of the State Finalists.

She is Marilyn McKean, a senior, 1967, majoring in social science. Candidates were judged on their record of scholastic achievement, their leadership in campus activities, their community service work, and based on essays which they wrote.

If the candidate from this college reaches the National Finals, she will be seen on a coast-to-coast television spectacular. The entire National College Queen Pageant will be televised, in color, on the NBC network on Friday, June 16th.

For 10 days preceding the telecast, the 50 state winners will participate in a series of forums and seminars. They will be tested and graded in 10 competitive events. The candidates will discuss education, campus life, current events, literature, fashion, career goals, and many other topics. Panels of national judges will award points for the best opinions and comments.

It is during these events that our State Finalists will be able to demonstrate the training and educational background which she acquired at this college. She will be in competition with some of the finest scholars from colleges and universities in the other 49 states.

It is up to us—the students and faculty on this campus—to help decide which of the four young women shall represent our state in the National Finals. For the first time in the history of any major pageant, the selection of the State Finalist will be determined by the ballot boxes. Ballot boxes are now being set up and voting will take place throughout the state. Our votes will count in determining which of four young women will become the "Idaho College Queen."

The four finalists are: Marilyn S. McKean, Boise College, Boise, Idaho; Michelle Annette Dumas, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; Catherine Mary Connor, University of Idaho, Boise, Idaho, and Margie Felton, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho.

Information on the four Idaho coeds can be found on page 2 of this issue.

In June, one of these young women will be the guest of the National College Queen Pageant in New York City. The competition enrollment of 3,130 daytime and is now in its 13th year, sponsored by Best Foods, a division of Corn

Who are lucky three for eastern trip

Who are the lucky three?

There are just three vacancles left for an exceptionally nteresting trip to the historic and glamorous East (June 10-21), Dr. John Caylor declared. Already many teachers from Idaho schools and students have signed up, he said.

The trip covers everything from Broadway play to a visit to Wil. liamsburg, an entire town built as It was when George Washington, trod its paths. Other places to be visited are Yorktown, Washington, D.C., and New York City.

The cost is only $345 which includes everything except most meals. Restaurants are reasonably inexpensive in the area covered -- and you can pick up college

"There are only three more spaces available on this unusual, interesting trip," said Dr. Caylor "See me at once if interested."

Tryouts set for songleaders

Coeds interested in trying out for Boise College songleaders may register in room 108 of the Administration building. Registration ends April 28 and the election will be held Monday, May 1 at 7 p.m. in the SUB ballroom.

All participants must have a GPA of 2.0 or above to qualify.

Deadline announced for AWS scholarships

A May 3 deadline has been set for receiving applications for Associated Women Students scholarships, according to Miss Helen Moore, dean of women. Any Boise College coed with a 2.8 or above GPA is eligible to apply. Applications are available in room 108 of the Administration building.
