Officials to Represent BC At State Board Meeting

Boise College Acting President W. L. Gottenberg will leave Boise today for a meeting with the State Board of Education in Lewiston, Idaho, where the problems, essential to a smooth transition of BC into the state's higher system of education, will be discussed. Traveling with Mr. Gottenberg will be other Boise College officials; Willis Maffatt, college attorney; John P. Tate, trustee, and Dwane Kern, secretary-manager.

The four college representatives were given authorization to attend the meeting Tuesday of the Boise College Board of Trustees. The encounter between the two bodies is being held early so that problems concerning the conversion will be worked out by Jan. 1, 1969, when the college will officially become a state institution, according to Board members.

As explained by the college attorney, Willis Maffatt, the meeting was necessary because the State Board of Education has to approve the machinery for issuance of revenue bonds to finance the Student Union and the men's dormitory, which are now under construction.

The state board will handle the bonds, to be redeemed from revenue from operation of the dormitory and Student Union, after the college is integrated, he said.

Other items discussed at the board meeting were the acceptance of a gift property of the Welsh Brothers at 922 Broadway Avenue and assuming a $34,000 mortgage. According to Maffatt the property will "provide a corridor across Broadway from the campus."

The completion date of April 30 for the Liberal Arts building was announced and the board authorized opening bids for the painting and redecoration of the two existing dormitories, Morrison and Driscoll Halls.

April 10, a bill making Boise College part of the system of higher education effective Jan. 1, 1969, was passed by the legislature and was then signed by Gov. Don Samuelson. No appropriation for the next biennium was included in the bill, but BC will only be part of the state system for six months of this biennium.

During the heated discussions over the college going into the state system, arguments for the change included the fact that a state institution was needed in Southwestern Idaho because over one-third of the state's population was located there.

Opposing arguments included the idea that if such a bill was passed, the next legislature would be obligated for $8 million to $10 million and would take away from the money available for the University of Idaho in Moscow and Idaho State University in Pocatello.

According to H. Ferd Koch, 1967 legislator, the college (taxing) District could no longer support the cost and the state had to assist us or Boise College would have been forced to restrict enrollment and students would have been forced to look elsewhere. He said the whole idea was a question of providing opportunity for a lot of kids who want to get an education. He added that the taxpayers in this area were paying half the state's taxes.

Last fall, Boise College had an enrollment of 3,130 daytime and 1,700 night students. BC now has the largest freshman class of any institution in the state and by 1969 it is estimated there will be 4,500 day students enrolled in the college.

Marilyn McKean to represent BC

From thousands of young women who entered the National College Queen competition this year, the judges have selected the final few candidates. Four students in Idaho have been chosen as State Finalists, and one of them will go to New York City to participate in the National College Queen Pageant in June. Boise College has produced one of the State Finalists.

She is Marilyn McKean, a senior, 1967, majoring in social science. Candidates were judged on their record of scholastic achievement, their leadership in campus activities, their community service work, and based on essays which they wrote.

If the candidate from this college reaches the National Finals, she will be seen on a coast-to-coast television spectacular. The entire National College Queen Pageant will be televised, in color, on the NBC network on Friday, June 16th.

For 10 days preceding the telecast, the 50 state winners will participate in a series of forums and seminars. They will be tested and graded in 10 competitive events. The candidates will discuss education, campus life, current events, literature, fashion, career goals, and many other topics. Panels of national judges will award points for the best opinions and comments.

It is during these events that our State Finalists will be able to demonstrate the training and educational background which she acquired at this college. She will be in competition with some of the finest scholars from colleges and universities in the other 49 states.

It is up to us—the students and faculty on this campus—to help decide which of the four young women shall represent our state in the National Finals. For the first time in the history of any major pageant, the selection of the State Finalist will be determined by the ballot boxes. Ballot boxes are now being set up and voting will take place throughout the state. Our votes will count in determining which of four young women will become the "Idaho College Queen."

The four finalists are: Marilyn S. McKean, Boise College, Boise, Idaho; Michelle Annette Dumas, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho; Catherine Mary Connor, University of Idaho, Boise, Idaho, and Margie Felton, University of Idaho, Moscow, Idaho.

Information on the four Idaho coeds can be found on page 2 of this issue.

In June, one of these young women will be the guest of the National College Queen Pageant in New York City. The competition is now in its 13th year, sponsored by Best Foods, a division of Corn Products Company.

When the final moment comes, on millions of television screens across the nation, the new National College Queen will be honored as "the nation's most outstanding college girl." The young woman who wins will know that a trip to Europe, a new car and many other awards will be waiting for her. And so will the congratulations of her fellow undergraduates and the faculty which helped to train her. We want that girl to be from our campus. Cast your vote today.

Mass confusion described the starting lineup of the contestants in the Boise College raft race, Sunday, April 23. Members of the Esquires, Hul-O-Hawaii, Pi Sigma Sigma, Circle K and Driscoll Hall are shown five minutes before the starting gun was fired at Barber Bridge.

Circle K's paddle to damp Grand Champions

Soggy and cold, an eight-member team representing the Circle K's paddled down the Boise river and across the finish line in Ann Morrison Park to win the title of Grand Champion and the first place upper-division trophy in the annual Boise College raft race held Sunday, April 23.

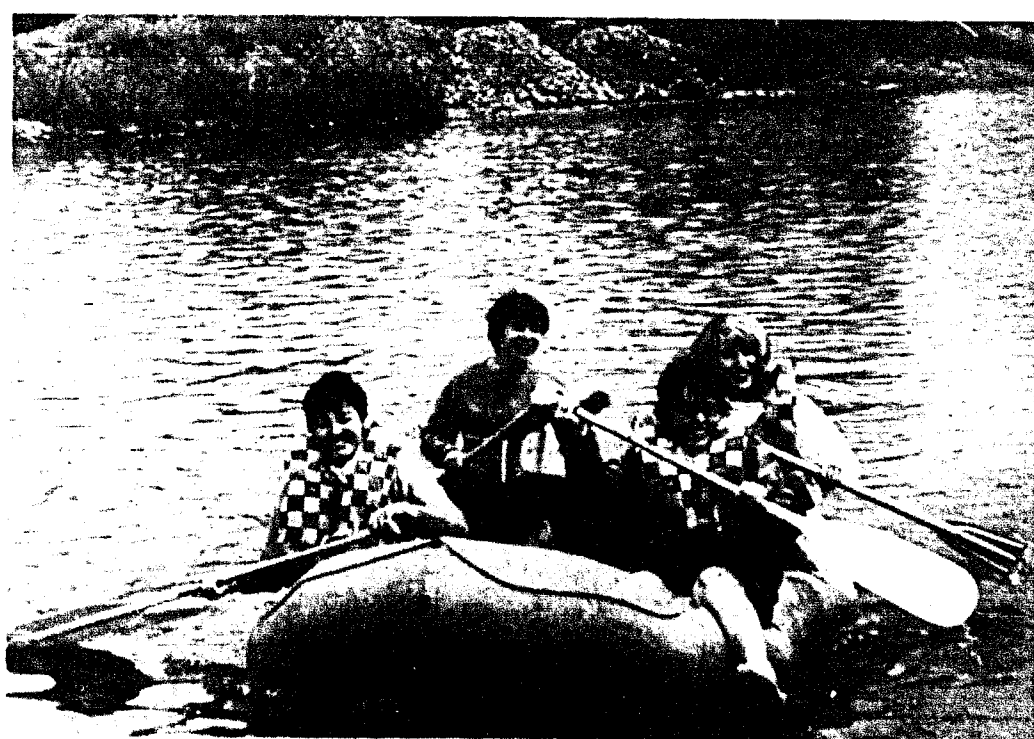

First place winners in the lower division, Pi Sigma Sigma fraternity, "plowed" past the finish line just some 20 feet behind the grand champions. The Esquire Club was awarded second place in the upper division and Driscoll Hall residents took the second place lower division trophy.

Five coeds, representing the Golden Z's, were sixth in the race and first place winners in the girls division. They were the only girls entered in the race.

Thirteen rafts of all shapes and sizes started out in the race at 12:10 from Barber Bridge, but one was lost on the way. Hul-O-Hawaii's entry sprung a leak and dropped out.

Contest fans greeted the crafts at Broadway Bridge with eggs, tomatoes and buckets of garbage. Further on down the river, boxes of wet straw were poured on the contestants. It took Circle K's 59 minutes to reach Ann Morrison Park. Once there the contestants and spectators played a game of baseball and partook of a barbecue furnished by Saga Foods. Pi Sigma Sigma sponsored the race.

Paddling across the finish line are (left) Diana Parker, Linda McKissick, Becky Ackley and Anita Williams. Representing the Golden Z's, they were sixth in the race and won first place in the girls division.

Who are lucky three for eastern trip

Who are the lucky three? There are just three vacancies left for an exceptionally interesting trip to the historic and glamorous East (June 10-21), Dr. John Caylor declared.

Already many teachers from Idaho schools and students have signed up, he said.

The trip covers everything from a Broadway play to a visit to Williamsburg, an entire town built as it was when George Washington, trod its paths. Other places to be visited are Yorktown, Washington, D.C., and New York City.

The cost is only $345 which includes everything except most meals. Restaurants are reasonably inexpensive in the area covered—and you can pick up college credits.

"There are only three more spaces available on this unusual, interesting trip," said Dr. Caylor. "See me at once if interested."

Tryouts set for songleaders

Coeds interested in trying out for Boise College songleaders may register in room 108 of the Administration building. Registration ends April 28 and the election will be held Monday, May 1 at 7 p.m. in the SUB ballroom.

All participants must have a GPA of 2.0 or above to qualify.

Deadline announced for AWS scholarships

A May 3 deadline has been set for receiving applications for Associated Women Students scholarships, according to Miss Helen Moore, dean of women.

Any Boise College coed with a 2.8 or above GPA is eligible to apply. Applications are available in room 108 of the Administration building.

Senate amends two by-laws

Two by-laws were amended at the Senate meeting, April 17, including one on the Lyceum committee and on the membership of the Social Chairman on the Executive Board.

On the Lyceum committee by-law the Senate amended that portion of the constitution reading:

"Student Chairman shall be selected by secret ballot among the student members."

To read: "The student chairman shall be appointed by the ASB president from a list submitted by the present Lyceum committee."

It also amended that portion reading:

"Student members shall be appointed by the current chairman of the committee with the approval of the Student Senate and the college administration. One of the student members will act as student chairman and be a member of the Student Senate."

To read: "Student members shall be appointed by the current chairman of the committee with the approval of the Executive Committee and the Faculty Committee Chairman."

Also amended was the portion reading:

"Committee members for the following academic year shall be appointed by April 15."

To read: "Committee members for the following academic year shall be appointed by May 1."

With the Social Chairman by-law the Senate amended the portion reading:

"The Executive Board shall be made up of the student body officers, class presidents, the chairman of the social committee and chairman of the interservice club council."

To read: "The Executive Board shall be made up of the student body officers, the class presidents and the president of the Inter-service Club Council."

And another clause of the by-law was amended which read:

Students represent BC at western conference

Four Boise College students, Bill Hett, Marilyn McKean, Ernie Weber and Bob Christopher, will represent BC at the Pacific Student Presidents Association Convention to be held May 4, 5 and 6 at the Ramada Inn in Salt Lake City, Utah. Traveling with them will be Dr. Alfred McCauslin, dean of students.

The association is made up of student council members of colleges, junior colleges and universities in the western section of the United States. This will be the first time in the college's history that BC students will be present at the convention.

Some 50 schools will be represented at the convention, which will be hosted by Weber State College. During the convention, officers for the following school year will be elected.

According to Bill Hett, former ASB president, "The purpose of the organization is to unite the councils in hopes of solving like problems in student government." This is the only convention put on by the associate student bodies, he said.

During the PSPA meetings, another meeting will be held by the Idaho Association of Student Government.

"All members of the Executive Board shall be able to vote in the Executive Board with the exception of the Social Chairman. The president may vote only in the case of a tie."

To read: "Each Executive Board member shall have a vote on matters coming before the board with the exception of the president who will vote only in case of a tie."

Cheerleaders tried out before the Senate for next year and Dianna Norris, Opal Cooper, Dan Nottage and Van Heffner were elected.

Tentative social schedules should have been turned in by each organization to Bob Hough by Monday, April 24. Also, tentative budgets of all student body financed activities should have been turned in by April 24.

Grand Champions of the raft race—the Circle K's—bask in their glory with their hard-won trophy.

Here are the four Finalists in our state—vote for your choice today!

Catherine has an academic record which includes being named to the Dean's List each semester, and has been in the Highest Honors division for the past two semesters. She also received the Delta Gamma pledge award for scholarship and has served as Secretary of Phi Theta Kappa (Scholastic Honor Society). A member of Delta Gamma sorority, Catherine has also been a Junior Panhellenic Representative. She was elected Treasurer of Associated Women Students, Secretary of the International Relations Club, and a member of the Student Senate. Active in Angel Flight, she also enjoys swimming, golf, water skiing and hiking. Catherine's hobbies are sewing and designing clothes, reading, and painting. She has done volunteer work for the Cancer Society and Valkyries Service Club. Her goal: to be a diplomat, then a homemaker.

Michelle has earned a scholarship, has attained membership in Spurs (Sophomore Leadership Recognition Society), and has been named to the Dean's List. She was Pledge Class President for her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Michelle also served as a Junior Panhellenic Representative, and as Secretary of the Newman Club. She has been a member of the General Planning Class Activities Committee and the Women's Recreation Association. Active with the Intercollegiate Swim Club, Michelle also enjoys volleyball, gymnastics, tennis, and basketball. Among her hobbies are sewing, sketching, painting and cooking. She is a Red Cross swimming teacher and works for the St. Joseph's Children's Home. Before being married, her ambition is to serve as a teacher in the Peace Corps in Africa or Southeast Asia.

Margie has a scholastic average which earned her recognition on the Dean's List. She has also achieved membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, Spurs, and Phi Kappa Phi. Margie has been President and Treasurer of Associated Women Students, and has been on the Student Faculty Committee, the Executive Board and the Activities Council. She has served as Vice President of her sorority, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and has been a member of Phi Beta Lambda (Business Honorary). She has been a member of the Vandalettes drill unit and the Helldivers swimming honorary. Margie also likes horseback riding, water and snow skiing. Among her hobbies are sewing and cooking. She has been a volunteer during Campus Chest activities and fund drives. After graduation, Margie would like to become an executive secretary and a married homemaker.

Marilyn has earned a scholarship, has been named to Phi Theta Kappa (Scholastic Honor Society) and to the Dean's List. She has been Vice President, Secretary and Homecoming Chairman of the Associated Student Body. Marilyn also served as Publicity Chairman and Senior Representative of Associated Women Students. She has been Publicity Chairman of Life-Lines (honorary service organization), and was Chairman of the annual Valkyrie Intercollegiate Knight Carnival. Among her favorite sports are swimming and water skiing. She enjoys sewing as a hobby. Marilyn does community service work for the Red Cross. During elections, she has been a volunteer worker for gubernatorial, senatorial and presidential candidates. She hopes to become a married homemaker, but first she would like to pursue a career in Personnel or Public Relations.
