FLINTSTONE FROLIC SET FOR SATURDAY IN STUDENT UNION

Dressed in animal furs and carrying their favorite clubs, Boise College sent out dance invitations to the music of The Wandering Wind at the Flintstone Frolic which will be held Saturday from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. in the Student Union ballroom.

Originally, the dance was called the Flintstone Formal but was changed to the Flintstone Frolic this year because the spade of dress was inappropriate to the title. According to Thomas Christiansen, publicity chairman, "Not only was the name a little misleading, it was dumber than a bugaboob when a couple actually turned up in formal dress and walked into a ballroom full of Fred and Wilma Flintstones!"

Prizes will be awarded to the best dressed male and female couple and best hour and base pose will be awarded in the USB for this special occasion only, officials said. "The place to buy your rugs for this occasion is the Salvation Army store. Every year at this time, Boise College cleans out the supply of old fur coats and bear-skin rugs and the money spent goes for a very worthy cause," Christiansen explained. He added that those who really want to conform, "no baths or coma between now and then!"

Final plans and decorations are being made by the Exquiries' 71 members, 42 of whom were accepted into the club this year. Approximately 500 more members will be voted on next week.

DANCE FOR PRIZES

The Barogons will play on campus Friday night in the Student Union ballroom. The dance is sponsored by the Volkyrle and tickets will sell for $1 per person.

Dancing instruction will be held from 9 to 12 midnight and all students are asked to dress casually but wear shoes.

AT THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION

Under the baton of Maestro Abravanel, the Utah Symphony will perform its concert in the Capitol High auditorium at 8:15 p.m. on Oct. 1. This is an opportunity to hear not only one of America's top symphonies, but orchestra of international reputation as well.

Each season the KSLA Utah Symphony travels about 5,000 miles, playing to a combined audience of over a quarter million people. Last season the orchestra gave concerts in cities outside the boundaries of Salt Lake City. In 1966, the symphony received an invitation from the Greek government to play at the Athens Festival for these concerts.

In addition, the orchestra gave its Carnegie Hall debut in New York, concerts in Athens and also concerts in Vienna, Berlin, London, and several cities in Greece, Turkey, and Germany, making a total of 26 concerts during the tour.

Hundreds of favorable comments have been made by the orchestra's conductor, Abravanel, and the orchestra's executive director, Thomas Sessions.

KBCS TO SPONSOR OPEN CAR RALLY; MAYOR JAY AMYX WILL COMPETE

Mayor Jay Amyx will drive the first car over the starting line to begin the Boise College Open Class Car Rally on October 7.

Sponsored by KBSC radio station, the rally will begin at noon in front of the Boise College Administration building and is open to anyone with a driver's license, $1.50 for a registration fee, one-quarter tank of gas and a navigator.

The rally, which can be won by any kind of a car, is not a race, according to radio staff member Will Baker. "It is a test of one's ability to follow directions from printed instructions and drive over a pre-set route. The car with the closest time and mileage to the pre-determined time and mileage allotted for the rally will win," he said.

Miss Boise College, Diane Norris, will present the trophies and prizes to the winners following the timing. Prizes include first place trophy and a set of chrome reverse wheels; a second place trophy and a set of decals; and a third place trophy with a case of motor oil.

Further information can be obtained in the Roundup office or from any KBCS staff member.

VOC-TECH ON PARADE

Editor's Note: Informing BC students of the recent activities and achievements of those in the Vocational Tech- nical Department of Boise Coll- ege has become much easier this year with the addition of a weekly column written by two of the department's representatives. We, of the Roundup, sincerely hope that this article will aid better student communication.

Congratulations! You are reading the new Vocational-Technical Department column, which will contain information on classes including dental assistants, electronic welding, machine shop, drafting and design, office ma- chine repair, data entry, auto me- chanics, auto body, practical nurs- ing and others.

Standing out in the social world of Vocational students is Tau Alpha Phi, the Vocational-Technical Department service club, which has begun the year with the very successful Bards dance held in September. Two Alpha Phi officers for this year include Terry McNett, president; Mike Heath, vice president; Carl Brown, treasurer; and Mel- lace, secretary and the club's ad- visor. John Ogden, newly elected, is a bigger and better than ever, so watch for and support Tau Alpha Phi-sponsored activities throughout the year.

CIRCLE K MEMBERS PLAN PROGRAM ON TELEVISION SHOW 'PERISCOPE'

Circle K service club members are working on a new project, a television spot on the Periscope program (KTVB-TV). The eight-minute show airs on the air every second Wednesday of the month with news of Boise College cam- pus activities.

Planning the project is Circle K member Rich Justice, who is as- sisted by members Steve Heath, Jim Trevorbush and Bob Richiez. Service club members interested in partic- ipating in the show should contact Rich Justice or leave word in the Associated Student Body office in the Student Union.

New officers are Gary Felt, president; Paul Oakes, vice president; Don McClain, secretary; Craig Harvey, sergeant-at-arms; Charlie Ronnste, historian, and Dr. Peter Wilson, advisor.

Another project of the club for the month of October is the build- ing of a Homecoming float and the handling of the publicity for the week-long event.

FRENCH CLUB TO MEET

Wednesday, Oct. 3, the French club meeting will be held in the president's conference room in the SUB, at 7:30 p.m.

All interested persons who would like to join are urged to contact the club as its candidate for French club as Its candidate for the coming year. She is a senior majoring in elementary education.

The SNEA is also planning to build a float for the Homecoming parade.

The next meeting is tentatively scheduled for October 19th at 7:00 p.m., at the President's Dining Room, at which there will be a guest speaker.

Young English Teacher Likes 'City of Trees'
By MIKE SCHNIDELLE
Roundup Feature Editor

"I became a teacher because I thought that it would be easier than doing housework all the time. I'm the only person I know of who has a pile of dirty dishes and a dirty stove easier than doing housework all the time. I'm the only person I know of who has a pile of dirty dishes and a dirty stove easier than doing housework all the time."

These words were spoken by Mrs. Aileen Burns, a new English instructor at BC this year.

Mrs. Burns was born in 1943 in a little industrial town in the heart of England, Leicester. She was raised in Quorn, high school in the "city of trees" previous to his enlistment. It was most convenient that the college was located here," she said.

As for her hobbies and pastimes, Mrs. Burns stated that she had a deep passion for books. "Whenever I got into the bookstore, no matter what I saw, I always ended up coming out with a stack of books." She also enjoys making wind chimes and has various types of items emblazoning her name. All other hobbies of hers is music. "I have all kinds of records, ranging from the Beatles to Gregorian Chants, and I like all of them. In fact, the only kind of music that does not appeal to me is "country and western."

When asked what she liked most about the school thus far, she replied, "The enthusiasm of the faculty; this is good indicator that the college has great potential."

ART ASSOCIATION PRESENTS SLIDES, LECTURE SERIES
The Boise Art Association is sponsoring a series of slide lectures dealing with the understanding of art, which will be presented during the 1967-1968 season. The lectures are open to the public and no admission will be charged. The first presentation in the series will be held late this week at the Boise Gallery of Art in Julia Davis Park.

Joseph Sturt, director of the Boise Gallery of Art, has researched and written the series, gathering material during summer breaks of absence the past two years.

In 1966 he issued museum catalogues, art monographs, and artists' studios across the country, in New York, and in eastern Canada. This year he toured the Southwest, West Coast and British Columbia. Sturt has been in the museum field for the past seven years, and during this time he was able to and lectured extensively on the understanding and appreciation of art.

The eight lectures will be supplemented with photographic slide projections of non-art as well as art, taped sound tracks, and special "object" diaporas. The series is designed to give the audience a basis for subsequent consideration, evaluation, and understanding of works of art. Although it is not necessary to attend all lectures, it is suggested that they all be attended as an individual is serious about understanding art.

BC Wins Everett Shrine Classic; Hoopai, Williams Cited for Effort

By JEFF HARRISHONE
Boise Roundup Sports Writer

The Boise College Bronco used an awesome running attack, coupled with an alert pass defense, to overpower the Trojans of Everett, Wash., 29-21 Saturday night.

Despite the difficulties BC had in trying to contain Everett’s ground game, the Bronco defense was responsible for posting the team’s only score of the half, early in the first quarter.

Steve Snow, playing in his first game at BC over on its own 12.

The second half was a different story as BC defense stopped numerous Everett plays on the ground and in the air.

The defense showed great strength by stopping the Trojans in four consecutive plays, then turning a bad snap from center into a safety, which helped keep the Broncos ahead of their opponents for the rest of the night.

Moments later Squivi found Jim Bianchi on a 70-yard scoring toss, which gave the Bronco a 14-7 lead.

After Boise’s stubborn defense had again thrown Everett back, the Broncos ended the third quarter in possession. Shortly after the start of the fourth, Squivi’s passed arn little “Puddin’” Grayson on the same pass play which had clicked against Columbia last week, Grayson caught the ball in the end zone for a 35-yard score.

The real threat from the Trojans came when Gary Hughes recovered a Bronco fumble on the 22-yard line.

Snow played halfback and Montgomery moved through the middle for the second Trojan touchdown, making the score 24-14.

Intramural Teams Announce Schedule For Coming Year

Intramural football started Monday with eight teams participating, thus far. Although the rosters were due Thursday, the program is still open to any club with a team. Club organizations as well as independent teams are eager to enter into the competition. A referee, including eligibility rules, is free for the asking from either Coach Bob Conner or Dr. Gene Cooper, directors of the program.

The intramural program will run for the entire year, leading into an eight-week touch football season. Intramural team crowning will begin, scheduled to end by Christmas.

Activity slated for after the holidays include basketball, wrestling, badminton, track, and if enough interest is shown, a swimming team will be sponsored.

The program will run on a points system and the team with the most total points at the end of the year will be awarded a trophy.
