Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. Nine Coeds Seek Homecoming Title

Boise College male students will choose from nine coeds today and Thursday, Oct. 5, at the balloting for the five finalists for 1967-68 Homecoming Queen and her court. The polls will be open from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the Library and the Student Union, according to Denny Sauer, homecoming chairman.

Student National Teachers Organization on campus is sponsoring the only senior, Janine Kay Valley, who is a senior major in English and is publicity chairman for SNEA. She was A.W. graduate in 1965-66 member of Lifelongs in 1966 and freshman representative for A.W.S. in 1964-65.

Two juniors, Diana L. Parker and Janice Waardenburg candidates for homecoming queen. Diana, who is a 20-year-old biology major, is sponsored by the Esquire Club. She is the club’s official sponsor and also is pledge captain of the Golden Z service club. The Esquire club is for service men.

Janice, who also is 20 years old, is majoring in English with a journalism minor. She is editor of the campus newspaper, The Roundup, and is a member of French Club. She is sponsored by the Roundup and Wes Booth, the alumni representative. Nineteen-year-old Susie Johnson is a sophomore art education major at Boise College and is being sponsored by Intelligentsia Knights for homecoming queen. She is a member of Valkyrie service club and a member of the BC Broncettes drill team.

FASHION merchandising major, Linda Eyre is a 20-year-old sophomore in Art at Boise College, and is secretary-treasurer of the Chuck Miller Band. She is a member of the Chuck Miller Band Sunday night as a benefit dance for the Boise College Rodeo Association to be held in the Chuck Chaffee Hall, 9 p.m., according to Bernie Jespe, adviser. The dance will be open to all ages and will proceed to the Association to pay back loan from Thu Alpi’s PF service club. Dance chairman is Dave Allbery.

Chuck Miller Band Plays for BCRA

The well-known western singer, Chuck Miller, will be featured by the Chuck Miller Band Saturday at a benefit dance for the Boise College Rodeo Association to be held in the Chuck Chaffee Hall. The dance will be open to all ages and will proceed to the Association to pay back loan from Thu Alpi’s PF service club. Dance chairman is Dave Allbery.

Boise College Rodeo Club officers are John E. Jennings, president; Mark E. Welsh, vice president, Yolanda Welsh, secretary; Beverley Martin, treasurer, and Comie Bennett, senior representative. Advisors are Robert Sylvester and Glenn Dierden.

The club members will split this event, half will be arranged for the dance and the other half will be in Provo, Utah, representing the club at a rodeo event at Brigham Young University.
