BOISE COLLEGE ROUNDUP

VOLUME 5, NO. 20

FRIDAY, FEB. 23, 1968

BOISE, IDAHO

Davis, Johnson, McDermott and Law Place Second in Conference Competition

By LYN HEINE
Staff Reporter

"Intercollegiate debate," said debate coach Mr. Harvey Pitman, "has the longest competitive season of any activity." The program starts in September and ends in May.

Recently, BC debaters returned victorious from the Idaho Speech Conference which was held on campus of NNC, Feb. 16 and 17. Both Charles Davis and Gary Johnson took second place in the senior debate division and Pat McDermott and Larry Law took second place in the junior debate division.

50% Win Loss Record

To date, Pitman feels that the team has done exceptionally well. He said that a 50% win loss record is good for any school and added that, "the BC debate team is certainly above this."

Jan. 26-27 marked the University of Utah tournament. Debaters Gary Johnson and Charles Davis won four out of five debates. Other participants in the meet were Eugene Brown, Mike Ransom, Joel Flake and Larry Law.

BC will enter 12 debaters in the Idaho Speech Conference to be held in Nampa Feb. 16-17. All colleges in Idaho will be debating.

Six debaters will be entered in the Linfield College tournament Feb. 29 and Mar. 1-2.

BC debaters will meet Washington, Idaho and Montana debaters at the North Idaho Invitational in mid-April.

The concluding debate will be at the University of Montana in late April.

TV Championship

The Intermountain TV Championship series on special educational television features debaters from Idaho, Utah, Montana, Wyoming, Colorado and Arizona.

Brown and Ransom have won their first two rounds and will compete in the finals within a few weeks. The BC men will likely meet a team from Colorado or Arizona.

Major tournaments of last semester were Pacific University in October, Idaho State University in November, and Northwest Nazarene College in December.

This school year's debate resolution is: "Resolved, that the government should guarantee a minimum annual cash income to all citizens."

The first TV debate topic in which BC took the negative and defeated Utah State was, "Resolved, that the powers of the President of the United States to make U. S. foreign policy commitments should be curtailed."

"Resolved, that only those males with severe physical and/or mental handicaps should be deferred from military service" was the second TV debate resolution. BC took the affirmative on the issue and outwitted the Snow College team for the win.

Argumentation and debate class is a two credit course at Boise College. To be eligible for Intercollegiate Debate, a one credit course, a student must be enrolled in argumentation or have previously participated in Intercollegiate Debate. Debaters must have a minimum of a 2.0 G.P.A., although Pitman said that most of the Intercollegiate Debaters have a 3.0 or better.

No experience in debating is necessary, Pitman emphasized. He further stated that only one-fourth of the debaters have previously debated in high school. He explained that veterans, freshmen, and high school graduates all seem to work about equally as well.

BREAKFAST SPONSORED BY SENIORS TO FEATURE CHURCH AS SPEAKER

Senior Class President Howard Swafford has announced that the senior class will have a breakfast Feb. 29 at 7:00 a.m. in the Student Union Bldg. Featured speaker will be Senator Frank Church.

"The topic of his address is yet to be announced. However, it is possible that he will speak regarding Southeast Asia," stated Swafford.

Tickets for the breakfast are on sale at the business office of the SUB and may be obtained from either Swafford, Robert Harkin, Robert Richey, Michael Wardel, Ernie Weber, Gordon Pirrong or Julie Booker. The cost per person will be $1.50.

Honored guests at the breakfast will be President John B. Barnes, Dean of Students, Dr. J. A. McCauslin, Senior Class Advisor Dr. David Torbet and the State Board of Education.

BREAKFAST SPEAKER

'Chase' Takes Place Of 'Mouse' Mar. 1

Due to the unavailability of the film, "The Mouse That Roared," the color film "The Chase" will be presented on March 1 by the members of Phi Beta Lambda. Starring are Marlon Brando, Angie Dickinson, and Jane Fonda. The film is the story of the effect an escaped convict has on the community from which he came and to which he returns.

Admission is 50c for BC students, 75c for adults and children will be priced accordingly. The film will be shown in the LA Auditorium at 8 p.m. March 1.

BULLETIN

There will be an important emergency Senate meeting at 12:10 Friday in the West Ballroom.

Pitman hopes to double the number of debaters in the next few years. The team, which started out with only three participants, now is composed of 20 men. "Debating at Boise College has been a man's world — 100%," said the coach. "Ladies, wake up!"

'Hunk of Paper' Disputed

The proposed college Constitution is a vast improvement over that "hunk of paper" currently in effect. But in improving the effectiveness of student government, this recent Suggestion has also created some inequities through its distribution of power and authority.

The proposed Constitution grants the Senate the honor of choosing two representatives to sit on the Executive Council. The Senate itself became little more than a Lobby of organizations composed of the interested students who involve themselves in the affairs of the school, and who are deeply interested in its good name.

HIERARCHY

The Executive Council would become the hierarchy of student government, virtually determining all effective policy and activities of the "ship of State." Coupled with it is the Judicial Committee, which decided constitutional questions (provided there are any).

The Executive Council believes that the matters of school government should be expedited speedily. Consequently, the Council advocates a smaller body, a ruling group, that would process legislation with "expediency." This is being accomplished by removing the Senate from the decision-making process.

The Student Senate may be slow, but it takes time for the representatives of that body to meet with their clubs and discover how the students react to the matters under question. This knowledge is essential in order to view any subject from the student level.

FLOCK OF SHEEP

To the Executive Council, the Senate represents a flock of sheep, people content to follow the dictates of one persuasive speaker. In actuality, the Senate delegates are inclined to be "yes" men, but only because the proposed legislation is usually presented by only one person giving only one side of the picture. If both sides of the issue were presented fairly and equally at the same moment, then the Senate members, after conferring with their peers, could weigh each side and obtain the best choice.

The members of the Executive Council, because each is a part of an interested campus organization, can represent the students who benefit directly from student government. But duplication of affiliations among Council members would narrow the scope of the members. The Senate, however, allows no such duplication and represents more organizations, thereby reaching a larger portion of the students.

CONCRETE POWER

As it now stands, outside of appointing two members to the 18-man Executive Council and two to the 3-man Judicial Committee, the Senate has no concrete power.

Well, actually, that is not quite right. It can implement its own bylaws.

Action taken by the Executive Council can be reviewed by the Student Senate, and that is all. It is said that the Senate exists primarily to obtain and disseminate information for use by the Executive Council.

The Senate must have the authority to reject Executive Council legislation, in addition to initiating its own policy. An amendment to the Constitution should be drafted that calls for more democratic control in the hands of the Senate.

Chief among reasons for granting power to the students through their Senate is the fact that such authority would force the Council to partake in more responsible government.

Second, by giving the Senate authority, it could create committees under its bylaws that would become meaningful and effective subordinate units with the power to implement legislation.

REVIEW

Finally, the Senate would initiate the review, but that review would not be automatic. If all legislation were required to be reviewed, then the ineffectiveness of the present snail-paced government would again exist.

Unless the suggested Constitution is changed to meet this requirement of Senate participation in student government, there will be little point in having a Senate. Why should any organization ask one of its members to attend Senate meetings after the Senate has made its four appointments?

Furthermore, without the change, certain clubs represented on the Council would have a marked advantage over those not so honored.

ARTICLE III

If this suggested Constitution is ratified article by article, then Article III, must be rejected unless changed as indicated. But, if the proposed Constitution is approved as a whole, then it must be turned back in protest. Following such action, a new Constitution Revision Committee would be formed to correct the majority and minor flaws existing in the present Suggestion.

This is the only way in which the students can get proper representation, because under the Suggestion only the Executive Council can approve amendments (which also need changing). It is politically feasible that this body would subject itself to democratic control.

It is suggested that each student call for revision of the Suggested Constitution and the removal of usurpers of his right to representation.

OFFICERS OF KAPPA PSI, the newly organized BO business fraternity are (seated, l. to r.): Ray Green, vice president; Don Broyles, treasurer; Russell LeBourdals, president; (standing): Richard Carr, master of ritual; Dr. Peter Willson, director; Wayne Mittlender, secretary; and Leo Knowlton, director. The Boise College chapter will be known as Kappa Psi until such time as it is formally accepted into the national organization of Alpha Kappa Psi.

Business Fraternity Campus Newcomer

The newest organization to make the Boise College scene is Kappa Psi. Organized for male business students, Kappa Psi has just elected its first leaders: Russ LeBourdals, president; Ray Green, vice president; Wayne Mittlender, secretary; Don Broyles, treasurer and Dick Carr, Master of Rituals.

Under the sponsorship of the Pocatello chapter of Alpha Kappa Psi, a national business fraternity, Kappa Psi plans to petition the national fraternity for admittance early in '69. The charter membership of approximately 40 will hold meetings bi-monthly with a guest speaker at least once a month.

"The purpose of Kappa Psi is to further the relationship between business students, leaders in the business community, and the faculty," reported Bob Harkin, Director of Public Relations.

Membership by invitation will be open to students with an accumulative GPA of 2.00 or better and at least a standing of second semester freshman. The faculty advisors this year are Dr. Peter Willson and Leo Knowlton.

Phi Beta Lambda

The members of Phi Beta Lambda will meet on Feb. 29 at 7 p.m. in the Silver Room of the SUB.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Donna Porritt, personnel manager for Boise Cascade.

If you are a business or business education major, plan to attend and join if you're not already a member.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

While rummaging through some material I had at home, I found the following letters. I think you may find them very interesting.

"Dear Dr. Flagg:

Each morning, when I get up, I start the day feeling fine. After taking a shower and eating a good breakfast, I drive to school singing or whistling my favorite song or listening to the radio.

However, when I get to school, after the raising of the National Flag sometime between 7:30 and 8:00 a.m., I suddenly get sick. What's wrong with me?

Signed: G. W."

Dr. Flagg's reply went along these lines.

"Dear G.W.:

Your problem is what's known as AMPERICARIONITIS in doctor's language, which is commonly called AMERICANISM with a strong PATRIOTIC syndrome. This is caused by the sight of students who just walk on by and show no respect at all for the STARS AND STRIPES. The easiest remedy to take for this is to ignore the students, but this would not be very patriotic. The next thing to do is to attempt to awaken the students of the school as to their patriotic duty.

Signed: Dr. Flagg."

I don't know what G.W. has done about it but I've tried to awaken the students of this school to their patriotic duty, but it appears like the students have a tendency to listen with their elbows and read with their ears. Very few of the students seem to have gotten the message. Thus far this year I have seen or know of approximately four students, other than the two who have accompanied me at different times, who have stood at attention with the right hand over the heart when the flag is raised.

I know how G.W. feels because I get the same feeling. There's one other feeling I get at that time in the morning, and that is the urge to collar the students and get nasty with them. But being a non-violent person, I don't.

I often begin to wonder if the students of this school can honestly call themselves Americans when they never seem to show it when it counts. American soldiers have and still are dying in defense of our flag. Our flag is more than just a cloth of red, white and blue. It is a symbol for a way of life, the freedom of a nation and its people.

An American by definition is a person who is willing to give his life in defense of his country; one who backs the Constitution and the freedoms for which it stands; one who respects the laws of the nation; and one who respects the American Flag and the principles for which it stands.

A great lack of patriotism is evident everywhere in the United States and is quite evident on this campus. I can excuse no one on campus for this because last semester I wrote a letter to the editor and explained the proper respect due the flag. For those who missed that letter I'd like to restate the method of respecting the flag: "When the National Flag is being raised or lowered, all persons shall halt and render a hand salute by placing the right hand over the heart with the hat removed. Women shall render the hand salute in the same manner, but it is permitted for them to leave their hat on. When the flag is passing in review, the hand salute shall be rendered in the same manner."

The letter from G.W. to Dr. Flagg expresses my feelings on the subject to a tee. It makes me sick to see people ignore the flag raising and lowering. I've seen many people ignore the flag in the almost two years I've been putting the flag up. In that time I've seen four people stop and respect the flag while it is being raised or lowered. Four people out of the student body of Boise College and the public of Boise. That's a pretty lousy percentage. I'd like to see this percentage increase a thousand fold and I shall continue to do all I can to increase it. I'm proud of my country and its flag whether anyone else is or not.

Signed:

Caruso J. Bongiovi, Jr.

Abstract Painting Needed by Student

A 5 ft. by 5 ft. abstract figure painting was taken from the upstairs LR building hallstair stairs hall in the LR building. The painting belongs to Miss Suzanne Weidner and is desperately needed for a class grade and art contest. Miss Weidner would appreciate greatly the return of the painting to the place where it was "found"; there will be no questions asked.

4 P.M. Force Strikes Pocatello Pub For Conversation Piece

Yes, the rumor is true. The HELLO WALK sign has returned to its loving home. The sign was liberated from a pub in Pocatello where it has hung since being stolen by Pokie Pub Patriots. The "beer garden" which operates under the infamous name of MaGoo's was struck by a Circle K commando force consisting of Gary Felt, Scott Baker, Craig Harvey, Gary Benoit, Don Woods and Jim Gray.

The C-K force struck MaGoo's at nearly 4 p.m., Feb. 3. The pub, by the way, has an air of ?????? about it. (The building is old and shabby, the fixtures are out of place, the chairs and tables do not match, and invariably, everything is broken.)

Upon ascertaining the situation (the sentimental sign was hanging in a not-so-sentimental position, six feet over the door), the

GOLDEN Z's LIST SEMESTER PLEDGES

This semester's golden Z pledges are: Freshmen, Jean Axelton; Sue Brown, Jane Bucknam, Janis Chapman, Michelle Morrison, Anne Morrow, Kathy O'Brien, and Sue Thompson.

Do the very best you can today—and tomorrow you can do better . . . One of the best face-saving ideas is to keep the lower half of it shut.

C-K force, led by President Gary Felt, sat down to have a couple and arrive at a solution for liberating the sign. Needless to say, a solution was found, and HELLO WALK was taken down, much to the dismay of the proprietor, Ron Colwell, who had become attached to the radiating friendliness of HELLO WALK. The sign is now awaiting a C-K face-lifting and will be put up shortly.

The solution arrived at? Tit for tat!

Boise Ends 23-3 Season; Win Over CSI 68-66

The Boise College Broncos wrapped up their regular season with a close 68-66 victory over the CSI Golden Eagles, Feb. 20.

The Broncos jumped out to an early lead on Rodell Hill's accurate shooting and led 26-15 with 8:30 left in the first half. CSI's Tom Bush then dumped in five straight goals and the score was knotted 35-all at the half.

In the second half, CSI jumped out to a slight lead, but the Broncos battled back and led by a small margin. Boise started to stall and look for the god shot in the closing minutes.

Keith Burke was fouled and calmly canned both free throws with 46 seconds left. Eagle Tom Adams stole a Bronco pass, and drove toward the basket, only to commit an offensive foul with 19 seconds left.

The Broncos gained control of the ball and CSI's Bush fouled Wendy Hart with four seconds remaining. Hart missed both charity stripe tosses and the following Eagle lay-in missed. With the capacity crowd screaming, the Broncos won 68-66.

In a torrid shooting match, Boise hit 54 per cent, while CSI had a 52.9 percentage from the floor. The Broncos also out-rebounded the Eagles, 20-18.

MESA

The Boise College Broncos lost their first ICAC conference game Saturday night to Mesa College

76-71. This leaves the Broncos with a 7-1 record in conference play and a 22-3 overall record thus far in the season.

High-point man for Mesa was Paul Coggins with 30; Howard Beddow added 16 and Jack Cammack had 13. For the Broncos Bill Otey was the leading scorer with 18 points, followed by Keith Burke with 14.

At half time the score was tied 36 all but the second half Mesa pulled away and went on the win 76-71.

WEBER FROSH

The Boise College Broncos dropped their second contest of the season 62-59, to the Weber State Frosh, Feb. 16, in Ogden. The Broncos had a 17-game winning streak going before the loss, and now stand 22-3 for the year.

The Wildkittens broke on top and swapped the lead in the first period before 6'8" Willie Sojourner rattled the twine with a jump shot and converted the following attempt to make it 30-26 Weber at the half.

Boise tried throughout the second half to pull even, but Weber's Bob Razor and Sourjourner put the game out of reach for the Broncos.

Weber out-rebounded Boise 47-41 as Soujourner had 20 grabs and Tom Sackolwitz added 13. Bill Otey led the Broncos with 14 and Austin added 8.

From the field Boise hit 38.3 per cent and Weber had a 36.4 per centage. At the charity stripe the Broncos converted 13-21 to a 14-20 for the Kittens.

Otey led the Boise scoring with 21 markers, and Wendy Hart chipped in 15, while Austin helped with 10. The Bronco attack was hampered with Austin spraining his ankle late in the first half, and Keith Burke being the victim of the flu bug.

AND IT WAS A MAN TOO!

An applicant for a driver's license in Mississippi came to the question, "How many FEET are required to stop a car traveling 30 mph?" He answered straight-forwardly, "Two-feet, one for the clutch, one for the brake." He got his license.

TVCC Matmen Fall To Broncos, Ricks; Tourney Scheduled

Feb. 20 Boise College wrestling team defeated the Treasure Valley Community College Chukars 25-12.

The following pinned their men; 137 lb. class Wilcox pinned Cleaver, and in the 167 lb. class Ward pinned Todd.

The Boise College Broncos wrestling team takes on the Ricks College Vikings Feb. 23 at 6:30. This will be the last home meet of the season for Coach Lewis's hard-working grapplers, who now sport a 7-2 record. They will depart for Rexburg March 1 in hopes of taking home the ICAC trophy.

Dennis Ward, Ed Terry, Rocky Lima, and David Bayes are just a few of the men who have done such a fine job during the 1968 season. Ward, who has returned after two years of inactivity, holds the best record among grapplers, with 6 wins and three losses.

The Ricks crew proved to be tough opponents in their last meeting with the Broncos, but god performances from Boise's more experienced members could pose a real threat to the Viking outfit.

Ten Commandments For Motorcyclists

Thou shalt honor large trucks and other four-wheel vehicles that thy days may be long upon the land.

Thou shalt always have a solemn face and clenched teeth lest thy mouth be filled with bugs.

Thou shalt check thy gas and spark plug lest thou end up walking down the road muttering to thyself.

Thou shalt refrain from foul language when cars runneth thee off the road.

Thou shalt avoid the very appearance of dogs lest they bite thy legs.

Thou shalt not squeeze in between cars and the curb, lest they smite thee with their fenders.

Thou shalt not race or make sharp turns on gravel roads, lest they scrape thee up from the pavement.

Thou shalt not show off with thy girl friend behind thee, lest they scrape thee both up off the pavement.

Thou shalt constantly look back over thy shoulder lest thou end up as a hood ornament.

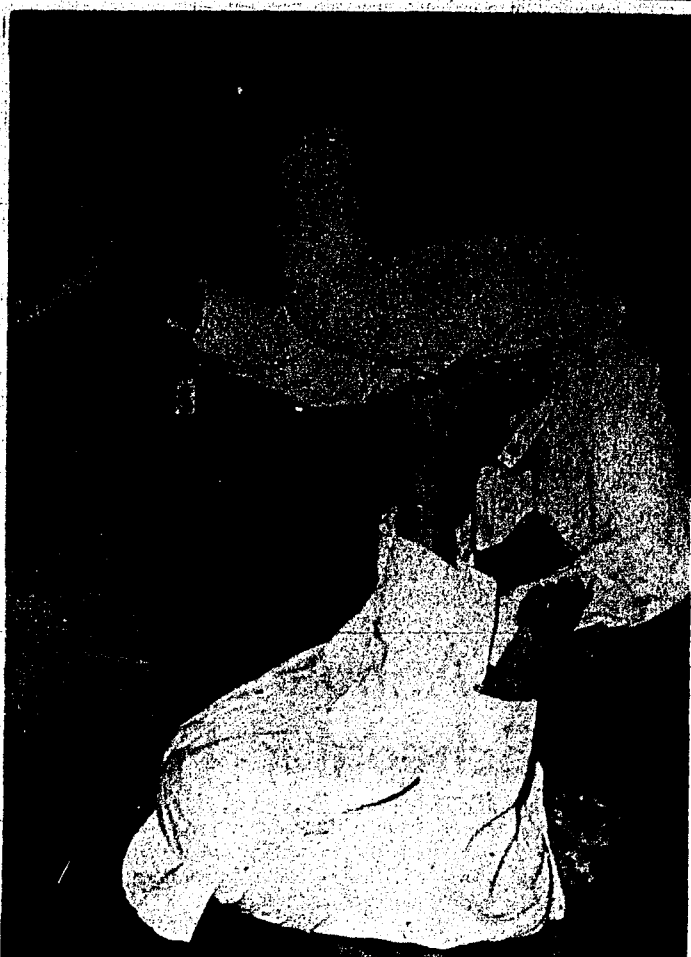

Thou shalt not race thy engine early in the morning or late at night lest thy neighbors deen thee their enemy.

ABOVE ARE TWO STUDENTS of judo engaged in a match of skill which they have acquired through much practice and help from professional instructors. They are also members of the Judo Club which is part of the self-defense program recently established as part of the Physical Education program of the college. As well as physically enhancing a person's ability at self-defense, the art, originally developed in the orient, conditions the body for everyday living which involves rat-racing for the majority of Americans.

Oriental Art Makes Way on BC Campus

The Judo Club is a new organization on campus. It had its charter ratified last year but was organized for the first time this year. The officers are: Jack Matlock, president; Charles Campbell, vice president; Bob Hobson, secretary-treasurer; Don Davis, senate representative, and Lina Blackletter, first lady. The advisors are Ralph Tipling and Bob Taylor.

"Judo training provides means for physical and mental exercise and recreation, and cultivates an unstrained upright posture and poise, which is the important factor for the health of mind and body, a sense of balance, self-confidence and self-reliance, courage, and self-recognition; thereby stimulating man to rise to be the master of his own body and of his mind and emotions," according to G. Koizumi (7th Dan). This epitomizes the function and objectives of the Boise College Judo Club. The club strives to attain these objectives by stimulating participation in true Kodakan Judo.

The BC Judo Club has participated in several tournaments this school year and is planning on competing in a number of others. The club has represented BC at Salt Lake City, Utah; Caldwell, and Ogden invitational tournaments, and is scheduled to compete at Ontario, Ore.; Twin Falls and their own invitational here.
