Sectionalism Hurts Colleges in Idaho

The session of the 40th Idaho Legislature has concluded—the legislators have returned to their homes and businesses—Boise State College administration, faculty, and students can breathe easier. One might look at the session's accomplishment to evaluate the legislation passed. One might notice that a record-number of bills were acted on in the 72-day session. One also may look at the higher education budgets for Idaho's Universities, Colleges, and Junior Colleges.

One might look at Gov. Don Samuelson's closing statements to the legislature. His comment of "All the legislature did was 'play politics' and talk about sex". Perhaps this statement has some merit. When one considers the higher education budget.

Yet, BSC administration, faculty, and students can breathe easier. It was hoped in the December 13 issue of the Arbiter that the problem of "common sense" would override "sectionalism." In evaluating the legislature, one observes that the 'battle of budgets' became a political battle of sections of Idaho, rather than a common sense approach to benefit all of the schools of higher education in the state. Along with the sectionalism, the appropriations also had to fight the voting down party lines with the Democrats opposing the highly Republican Ada County.

After the smoke had cleared March 29, it found BSC with a 9.0 million appropriation for the biennium, ISU 11.7 million and the U of I with 18.3 million. According to T. H. Eberle, chairman of the Boise Chamber of Commerce's College Committee, the funds per student during the 1970-71 school year would be $1,470 at the U of I, $1,445 at ISU, and a scant $915 per student at Boise State. It looks like the students at BSC received the short end of the appropriations.

At no time did the legislature consider which institution of higher education had its accreditation threatened—or even which school was the fastest growing in the state—All the legislature worried about was sectionist politics. Perhaps the suggestion of a lump sum appropriation to be handled by a state chancellor would be the best idea. Perhaps this would remove the politics which hurt all the institutions of higher education in the State of Idaho, rather than politics which would eventually destroy the institutions of higher learning throughout the state.

HEW

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

The United States is wrong in supporting oppressive and regressive governments in South Viet Nam. The governments of Diem, Ky, and Thieu have been a continuation of minority rule serving only the rich and prominent.

Diem "reduced" land rents that the Vietminh, who were victorious in defeating the French, had abolished. He also sold land that the peasants thought they owned. He forcibly relocated several million Vietnamese creating a buffer zone around Saigon.

In December of 1960, the National Liberation Front was organized, issuing a ten-point program calling for the overthrow of the Saigon regime, establishment of a democratic government, guaranteed free expression, free press, free association, religious tolerance, and freedom of organization regardless of political tendency. They also proposed sweeping land reforms, development of education, a foreign policy of neutrality, reunification of Vietnam and prohibition of nuclear weapons.

The NLF and Vietcong have widespread support among the people, and Ky himself admitted they were closer to the people's yearnings than his own government. This could not come from massive terrorism. The Vietcong terrorism has been aimed at the populace.

The war is a civil war, except for U.S. troops, involving only Vietnamese. In 1965 the U.S. had up to 181,000 troops in Viet Nam and had equipped 679,000 Saigon troops, while no North Vietnamese troops were found in the South and the State department was able to find almost no supplies in the South that might have come from the North.

For these reasons, and for many more too numerous to mention, I support the NLF and ask the U.S. government to correct their 20 years of mistakes in this area and to end immediately their unjust and illegal campaign against Vietnam.

3 Coeds Compete For Uruguay Trip

The Boise International Club scholarship committee met last week to interview candidates for the club's 1969 Community Ambassador scholarship award. Three BSC coeds are competing for a summer "Experiment in International Living" in Uruguay.

Mrs. William Carson, chairman of the scholarship committee, said that the announcement of the award will be made following confirmation by the Experiment in International Living Foundation at Putney, Vermont.

At the club's monthly meeting scheduled April 24 at 8 p.m., U. S. Senator Frank Church will speak. Students, faculty, and public are invited to the address, which will be given in the ballroom of the Student Union Building. His topic will be announced later.

STATE PRESIDENT for Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda is Michelle Morrison (center), BSC sophomore. She was also named Miss Future Business Executive at the group's annual convention recently at Nampa. At left is Wilma McTavish, who won the typewriting contest, and at right Gordon Fisher, who was named Mr. Future Business Executive. Both are BSC seniors.

Morrison Is Prexy

Michelle Morrison, a BSC sophomore, has been elected president of Idaho's Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda (a national business fraternity).

At the eighth annual convention of the group recently at Northwest Nazarene College in Nampa, Miss Morrison was also chosen "Miss Future Business Executive." She has been active with FBLA-PBL for five years and held the office of state vice-president for two years. She plans to attend the national convention in Dallas, Texas in June.

Miss Morrison is also serving as historian for Alpha Omicron Pi, a newly-formed sorority on campus; as co-chairman for the Miss Boise State College pageant; and as a member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national honorary dramatic fraternity.

Other BSC business students winning honors were Gordon Fisher and Miss Wilma McTavish, both seniors. Fisher, named "Mr. Future Business Executive," was the individual winner on the Vocabulary Relay team. Miss McTavish won the typewriting contest by successfully typing 96 words per minute with one error.

BSC also won the best activities report for the college level.

Approximately 150 students from high schools and colleges attended the full day of activities which were culminated in an awards banquet in the evening.

Other 1969 state officers include Wayne Brown, NNC, vice-president; Pat Combs, Vallivue, secretary; Doreen Boyd, Borah, treasurer. District representatives are Carol Kennedy, Nampa; Mary Brownlee, Jerome; and Bev Mortimer, Boise High.

Which came first, the chicken or the egg?

Robert Snavely, while making a few introductory statements on the Victorian Era to his British literature class, dropped a slight pun when he touched on Charles Darwin and his theory of evolution.

Snavely pointed out that Darwin compiled his observations into his book, but left the consequences up to his contemporaries. One critic, according to Snavely, turned to emotion in an attempt to discredit Darwin by asking, "From which side of your family do you claim descentance from the apes, your mother's or your father's?"

Robert continued with an illustration all his own. Imagine chemicals lying on the sea. The temperature is just so that "poof!" protoplasm is formed. Through evolution, this glob is jelly comes from the sea to sit in British Literature classes.

Snavely feels that this thought alone may be disheartening. It is disheartening to think that, somewhere along the line, men were nothing more than a glob of jelly.

Where in the theory of evolution did God direct that man formed of earth would be conceived with "soul"? First there is the matter of faith. Man became MAN and was endowed with a divine spirit in a garden of Eden. Secondly, there is the matter of theory. All species of animal, plant, and animal-plant life evolved from the same point in creation.

Where does God fit in with the power to decide the course of all things? He exists from the beginning; He exists in all things.

Who can decide that God's days during the week of Genesis were 24 hours or 24 million years long? Time is relative and of little concern to an eternal being. How long it took to create the world is of little significance, too.

The main point in question should not be in question for it is a matter of faith. God created the world, period.

But how long it took may never be resolved until God wills it. For if he willed that we were to transplant hearts, travel at supersonic speeds, and destroy ourselves through negligence and homicide, then he will, at some future time, allow us the knowledge of the course of that which we call time.

Followers in the Darwin philosophy would argue, therefore, that the egg came before the chicken. Two animals, both resembling but not quite chickens, conceived an embryo within a shell, and that animal clucked, laid eggs, had a body temperature of 104 degrees fahrenheit, and was a chicken.

However, believers of Genesis maintain that the chicken came before its egg, and no more.

I, being a holder of liberal concepts, will be judged in time by my children as being moderate if not conservative. And I will think of them as being only radical, leftwing oriented children. I hope I spare my children of having a father who does not listen to their concepts or who labels their ideas as being nonsensical stupid. I hope that my contemporaries will do the same.

If I cannot instruct my sons and daughters in the saneness of change, in the beauty of human love, in the uselessness of quarreling, in the distaste of one's foot in one's mouth, I hope that the schools, institutions, and government will see fit to educate them accordingly.

The need of America lies in me and mine, yet without the proper inspiration, direction, and self pride and pride in others which is so much a part of America's past, this great nation may soon come upon the beginning of the end.

LIBRARY HOURS CHANGED

Effective Saturday, April 5, the library will open from 1 to 5 p.m. only on Saturdays.

Curtailment of Saturday hours, according to a library spokesman, was caused by lack of attendance on Saturday mornings since the beginning of the school year. Saturday morning hours may be resumed later if there is sufficient demand.

Steve Tyson

College is a multi-leveled structure where the tools to reduce ignorance are offered to, not forced upon, those who would develop intelligence.

Ignorance is thinking via biases and pre-judice; intelligence is thinking via logic and fact (a stripped quote from John Seward, who teaches history in a manner with some life in it, both of which he will probably deny).

If you are a mercenary the B.A. is a ticket into the money club, not a guarantee of $XX,XXX per year, just the ticket to let you play. If you haven't set any goals in vocation yet, then get your ticket and go tour the world a while, find a need and fill it with yourself.

If you're here because Mom and Pop think a smart young person like you should have an EDUCATION before taking over Pop's business -- Buds, join up. If you're sweating Nam, think of this: odds 1 in 6 on the highway and about 1 in 28 of getting it over there. You're safer there.

The way the government is set up today, you owe 6 years of your life for the rights the demonstrators are now abusing. If abolishment of war, prejudice, and the like are your bag, get some experience in the Wide World to know your foe, then get the tools to cut it down intelligently.

Advent of BSC Sororities Raises Questions of Purpose

Since the advent of sororities on the BSC campus, many questions have been asked about the sorority system.

When a sorority is being formed, it is customary for a National Collegiate Counselor to live on campus for a few weeks while training a pledge colony and preparing it for initiation. Carol Brown, National Fraternity Counselor for Alpha Xi Delta, is currently living in Morrison Hall while preparing the local group for initiation the weekend of May 3. Dean of Women Flora Wallace asked Carol, "What does sorority mean?"

According to Carol, sororities began as an outgrowth of man's desire to work together. Common interests, intellectual companionship, social tastes, and personal standards have all played a part in the formation of the Greek letter groups which compose the American college fraternity system. It is interesting to note that "sororities" is a colloquial term used to distinguish groups of women. Today, however, "fraternities" is generally used to refer to both men's and women's groups.

Greek letter societies began with the founding of Phi Beta Kappa at William and Mary in 1776, which makes fraternities older than our Supreme Court. At the time of its founding, Phi Beta Kappa was not the scholastic honor society of today, but a secret society whose members lived together.

A national fraternity brings enrichment to college life. Fraternities encourage high scholarship, foster high ideals and standards, broaden interests and afford opportunities for leadership. Fraternities stand for loyalty and service to the college and the community, for the development of character, for wholesome social life and for the opportunity to form lasting friendships.

National sororities are supervised by National Panhellenic Conference. Each of the twenty-seven NPC sororities is represented by delegates who not only supervise individual member groups, but work to foster sound programs within the Panhellenic system. Through Panhellenic, all national sororities work to achieve common goals.

Two procedures are followed in establishing chapters of a National Panhellenic Sorority on a college campus. An NPC sorority may either colonize or may accept a petition from a local on the campus. In either case, an invitation to come on campus must be issued to the national sorority by the administration, usually extended by the Dean of Women, and the college panhellenic.

Two national sororities have been established on the Boise State College campus this spring: Alpha Omicron Pi and Alpha Xi Delta. Two local organizations, the Tridents and Alphas, have petitioned the Delta Delta Delta and Alpha Chi Omega, respectively. These sororities and the Gamma Phi Beta will hold a formal rush on BSC campus during fall orientation.

For further information, please contact the Dean of Women.

Teachers Attend SNEA Banquet

The Boise State College chapter of Student National Educational Association (SNEA) held its annual banquet for elementary student teachers and their supervising instructors in the SUB Ballroom the evening of March 20.

Carol Hunt, SNEA president and Mistress of Ceremonies, introduced Dr. Gerald Wallace, dean of the School of Education, and Keith Keenor, principal of Campus Grade School, spoke for a few brief moments prior to the invocation—provided by Louis Phelps.

The banquet, a pot-luck affair provided by the student teachers, hosted approximately 200 guests and culminated the year of student teaching.

Highlights of the evening were speeches given by teachers who have only recently begun teaching on a full time basis.

Jeanine Tally, second grade teacher at Hillcrest of Boise, gave a highly amusing account of her first year of teaching. Jean Hogue, fourth grade teacher at Cole of Boise, told the student teachers to "expect the unexpected" and described the pitfalls of teaching.

Cecil Greathouse, instructor at Nampa High School, kept the audience in stitches as he discussed the experiences he had witnessed while teaching. Greathouse, who had been a lawyer for twenty years prior to teaching, said that he and his wife decided that after working for 20 years, he could afford to teach.

The program concluded with a parade of "Easter Bonnets" (Pie pans decorated with crepe paper and handed out to the ladies in the crowd) and a rousing rendition of "Peter Cott ontail" and "She'll be coming 'round the Mountain."

Jeanine Calahan, Willean Boston, and Joanne Stickle headed the food committee, and Gretchen Gordon, with help from Susan Sackman, Willean Boston, Caroline Smith, Mary Underkoffler, Janice Wahn, Joanne Miranda, headed the decorations committee.

Jim Hicks, SNEA vice president, headed the clean-up committee.

Song Requests on KETR

Circle K Club Plans Busy April

The BSC Circle K Club is planning a busy month of April according to Don Woods, publicity chairman. Included in the month's activities are two worthy service projects, hosting the Utah-Idaho Circle K Convention, and a car wash to raise funds for the club's Korean Orphan.

On April 5, the club will travel to the Treasure Valley Manor Nursing Home to entertain the elderly residents. An Easter program and Bingo is planned for entertainment. The following weekend, on April 12, the club will spend the afternoon "spring cleaning" at the Easter Seal Center.

On Sunday, April 13, the club will have a car wash at four Boise service stations to raise money for the club's sponsorship of their Korean Orphan.

New officers will be installed at a club meeting April 15 and the BSC club will host the Utah-Idaho District Circle K Convention April 25-27.

Debaters Win In Panhandle

BSC debaters won 8 of their 14 debates at the Idaho Panhandle Forensics Tournament last weekend in Coeur d'Alene. Ten colleges from the states of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho participated.

The national topic used for the debates was: That the executive control of foreign policy should be significantly curtailed.

Harvey Pitman, director of forensics, reported that Patrick McDermott, junior speech major, was awarded a second place trophy in the even for his original oratory. Other members of the debate squad attending were Lois Joslyn, Janet Beautrow, Charles Mark, Gary Bermeosolo, and Gary Johnson.

Ski Club Slates Carnival

Boise State College's annual Ski Club Carnival will be held Saturday from 1 to 11 p.m. at Bogus Basin with a torchlight parade and announcement of the ski queen to end the day of event.

The Gallende jumping contest will be held from 5 to 6:30 p.m. with ski jumping by expert skiers. Prizes will be awarded for style and distance.

The dinner, scheduled from 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the lodge, is by reservation only and is following by a dance from 9 to 11:30 p.m. with music by "Officer Bright". Tickets for dinner and dance, $2.50 per person and dance only $1 per person. Campus Seminar To Select New Cheerleaders

Seminar members decided last Saturday to select next year's cheerleaders April 12 from 12 finalists chosen by the ASB Senate.

Senate members decided to screen applicants down to 12 persons. The seminar would then select the six yell leaders for next year.

Jack Arbaugh, presiding ASB President, stated he felt the seminar represented a wider cross-section of students on campus and the students would be more likely to support cheerleaders chosen by a larger group than the student senate.

Arbaugh also said a campus wide election would be too costly and time is limited to choose the new yell leaders.

Friday, April 4 is the deadline for applications to be submitted to the ASB before the Senate and the seminar group.

The seminar will select next year's cheerleaders at the April 12 meeting at 9:30 a.m. in the

TEKES Slate Raft Race, Barbecue for April 20

Boise State College's annual raft race down the Boise River, sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity, will be held Sunday, April 20 beginning at noon at Barber Bridge.

Ron Gabriel, TKE publicity chairman, announced this week that there will be four divisions: men's large, men's small, women's large and women's small. The large divisions include rafts holding five or more students and the small divisions of rafts hold four or less students.

Gabriel said there will be a $5 entry fee per raft and clubs and/or groups may enter as many rafts as they want in as many categories they want. "If the sponsor of the raft is not a club or organization then it must be someone who can hold liability," Gabriel said.

The entry blank, printed in this week's Arbiter, must be turned into the Student Union Director's Office by April 16 with the $5 fee. All entries received after that date will be placed at the end of the line-up. All rafts must be equipped with life jackets.

The race will end at Ann Morrison Park with an all-school Bar-B-Q catered by Saga Foods. Tickets are $1.00 per person and Saga will begin serving at 1:30 p.m. Meal tickets will be honored, with fried chicken on the menu.

Winners in each division will be presented trophies and will participate in the Northwest Intercollegiate raft race on Sunday, April 27. The BSC TKE's also will host this race, which will be entered by clubs from colleges, junior colleges and universities in the Northwest.

President Barnes Outlines Cuts In '69-70 Budget

At a special meeting of the faculty and staff on March 27, President John Barnes presented the plan for reducing expenses to meet the recently approved budget for the 1969-70 biennium. We are forced to save $258,000 from the requested budget amount. To do this the following points will be implemented:

1. There will be no general relief for reducing faculty teaching loads.
2. An increase in the number of large lecture classes will be necessary in order to improve the utilization of our available facilities. Wherever possible general lecture sections will be merged.
3. The number of small classes will be reduced by changes in the sequence of offerings. Wherever possible classes will be given during alternate semesters.
4. Sabbatical leaves will be cancelled for at least one year and possibly for both years of the biennium. (subject to an extra appropriation in March 1970.)
5. A reduction in the capital

6. outlay expenditure will be necessary for library and film library books and material by $50,000.00. An amount of about $224,000 will remain in the budget for such items. (This is an increase of about 22% over the previous amount budgeted.)
7. Travel funds will be reduced by $25,000.
8. Equipment expenditures will be reduced by $20,000.
9. Printing and Graphic Services will be restricted to on-campus groups only. No additional staff will be added.
10. The projected ROTC Program approved for activation September 1970

- will be cancelled.
10. Certain curricula with light student enrollments will be curtailed wherever possible
11. Eight new positions were deleted.

Vocational-Technical Education financing is in better shape than ever before with $180,000 for the biennium as compared to $681,000 for the current biennium.

The $2 million appropriation for the library addition and the $1/2 million for the Vocational building from the Permanent Building Fund will help us greatly in meeting the needs of the faculty and student body in the next two years.

Dr. Barnes also expressed his feeling that the staff and faculty as well as students must continue to objectively portray the needs of Boise State College in contacts with acquaintances and the public at large.

Broncos Name Rival Stars To All-Opponent Squad

Big Willie Sojourner, who led his Big Sky Weber Wildcats to the semi-finals of the regional N C A A basketball championships, was named on every ballot as the Boise State Broncos selected their all-opponent team for the 1968-69 season.

The big sophomore at 6-8 and 225 lbs. scored 27 points and picked off 21 rebounds in the Broncos' 90-63 loss to the Weber School.

NAIA All-American Ken Hall of Westminster headed the list for backcourt men. Hall averaged some 35 points a game throughout the season and although the 6'2" guard was held well below his season average against the Broncos his talents and ability was obvious. Teaming up with Hall at the other guard slot is Jim Van Schepan, a 6'2" senior sharpshooter and team captain from Hiram Scott College. Van Schepan canned 57 points in the two game series here with Boise and ended his career by averaging over 20 points per contest.

One forward slot was picked off by former JC All-American Leon Edmonds of Portland State. Edmonds scored 49 points in the two meetings with the Broncos as well as picking off seven rebounds in each contest. Edmonds is a 6-7 Junior from Washington D.C. Rounding out the first five at the other forward slot was Weber State's 6-7 Larry Bergh. Bergh, a senior, according to the Broncos did everything on the court and could do not wrong against BSC in their contest.

Gaining honorable mention on the BSC all-opponent team were Dave Lofton of Eastern Washington, O'Neal Simmons of Idaho State, Sessions Harlan of Weber State and Gary Donnell of Linfield.

Otey Receives Mention As NAIA All-American

Bill Otey, 6-5 junior forward for the Boise State Broncos, earned an honorable mention sport on the NAIA All-American team announced recently in Kansas City.

Otey, led the Boise Staters to their 20-8 season record with 436 points. He narrowly missed national ranking in the rebounding department as he picked off 467 for a 17.3 per game clip. Otey also hit on 47 per cent of his shots from the field and 62 per cent from the charity stripe.

"We are extremely proud of Bill," said BSC Coach Murray Satterfield. "During this season, he combined his remarkable leaping ability with an excellent sense of timing. This added maturity enabled Bill to become a vastly improved ballplayer, and NAIA All-American Honorable Mention is an honor he richly deserves.

Coach Satterfield concluded by saying, "With one year remaining Bill has all the equipment to develop into a true All-American, if he progresses as he did this year.

Whites Wallop Blues In Spring Grid Practice

Soaring temperatures and a spirited workout highlighted the final intrasquad football game in which the Whites walloped the Blues 45-15 Saturday afternoon at Bronco Stadium.

An enthusiastic crowd watched the preview of Coach Tony Knaps footballers who will represent the Broncos on the gridiron this fall.

The White team, coached by Tony Polychronis and Junior Lopez, took the lead on the second play of the game when Tom Kelly picked off an Eric Guthrie pass en route 20 yards into the end zone for a score and the "Blue Blasters" were off and running.

Batmen Bests NNC 3-2

The Boise State College baseballers had to go 10 innings before scoring an unearned but winning run on a pair of errors by Northwest Nazarene for a 3-2 decision. The game, played on the Broncos' diamond, was Boise's second win against a single loss while the Crusaders are still looking for their first win after three unsuccessful starts.

Mush Stevens beat out a bunt in the bottom of the 10th and Sabin Landulace followed with a long drive to right which was caught for the out but the throw into first was high and enabled Stevens to advance around to third. The NNC shortstop then bobbled a hard drive off the bat of Phil Choules and Stevens crossed the plate with the winning tally.

The Broncos had to battle from a 2-0 deficit as Bob VanderSluis and Eldon Book stroked a single and a double respectively to drive in single runs in the fourth and fifth innings.

Boise's rally came in the sixth inning as Ken Kushlan, Dave Henderson and Dan Smith singled and Stevens delivered a double producing the two tying tallies.

VanderSluis was the losing hurler while the Broncos' Charlie Hathaway picked up the win after coming on in relief of Kent Scrifres in the seventh inning.

NETTERS WIN

Boise State College netters raised their season mark to 3-1 Saturday with successive wins over Portland State and Clark College.

Netters Blank C of I Coyotes

The Boise State College tennis squad, under the direction of Coach Bus Conner, kicked off the season on a high note recently by shutting out College of Idaho 7-0. The Broncos swept five singles matches and a pair of doubles.

The match was the first of the young season for both teams.

Gary Giffin and Butch Henderson in singles competition and the combination of Bob Davis and John Leonard in the doubles shut out their opponents without a score.

BOISE STATE 7, C OF I 0
Singles—Smyth (B) def. McDonald, 6-3, 6-4; Bunker (B) def. Kuonenen 6-3, 6-7; Giffin (B) def. Eisenbarth 6-4, 6-2; Hanson (B) def. Rankin 6-4, 6-0; Neumann (B) def. Cox 6-4, 6-1.
Doubles—Smyth-Bunker (B) def. McDonald-Kuonenen 7-6, 6-3, 6-3; Davis-Leonard (B) def. Eisenbarth-Rankin 6-0, 6-0.

Gary Stivers then put the Blue team on the scoreboard with a 43 yard field goal to make it 7-3. A short time later Dennis Baird hauled in a Hal Zimmerman pass that resulted in a 75 yard TD.

The White's only second period touchdown came on a two yard plunge by Larry Smith and Stivers again added the point. Before the period ended the Blues struck again as Guthrie matched Smiths TD with a two yard run, to make the score 21-9 at halftime. Pat Ebright and Steve Svitak carried the scoring load for the Whites in the third period. Ebright scored on a two yard run while Svitak picked up a mishandled lateral and rambled 37 yards for the TD. Ross Wright gave the onlookers perhaps the most spectacular running display of the day as he gathered in a kickoff and sped 100 yards to paydirt for the Blues final touchdown.

The final score of the day came on a 20 yard run by big Mike Haley.

THE VICTORIOUS WHITE squad after the final contest of spring practice.

Coach Knap had high praise to dish out after the game and was quite pleased with the overall spring drills.

There were five interceptions during the contest with Jim Gilley standing out for the White's with three of the steals. Smith led the White runners with 61 yards while Abe Brown was called on for most of the Blue carries. Puddin Grayson backed up Brown and had an exceptionally fine day.

Stivers was perhaps the most called on man of the day as he did all the kicking for both squads. He ended up the afternoon by scoring 11 points on five extra points and a pair of field goals.

Knap commented that he had an outstanding bunch of men and that his squad promised to give their opponents plenty of trouble this next fall. In singling out players for outstanding performances Knap said, "Val Garrison, Alan Ellert and Steve Svitak all did commendable jobs. Gordon Olsen, Jim Murgoitio and Jim Gilley had outstanding performances. Abe Brown also had a fine afternoon after having a problem in the opening period with hanging on to the ball." Knap concluded by saying that he was quite satisfied with the general performance of the two squads and that he is anxiously awaiting to turn the squads loose this fall.
