fulfillment. The editor hopes that a new staff can be appointed and publication of the ARBITER resumed in the near future.

Since the fall semester began, a number of experienced staff members have found it necessary to withdraw from their commitments to the newspaper in order to save failing grade points. Wright asked Tuesday that a publication board meeting be held as soon as possible and new appointments made to the staff. He emphasized his conclusion by quoting saying that, had circumstances been different, no doubt the incoming freshmen and sophomore journalists would have been able to take over in January.

But since experience is a commodity that the ARBITER staff now lacks, it seems pointless for a few people to attempt to do the job of many.
Top club to win first trophy

Giff Vaughn, new president of the BSC Alumni Association, announced that for the first time an Alumni President's Trophy will be awarded during the Homecoming activities at the Homecoming Games.

This is a large, traveling trophy reserved each year with the name of the club which has contributed most to Homecoming.

Vaughn also wishes it known that any student who has ever attended Boise Junior College, B.C. or BSC is considered an alum if he left in good standing.

All who have paid their alumni association dues ($2 for first class and $3 for third class) may attend the free Alumni Association Banquet at the Elks Club, with a social hour preceding.

Reservations may be made with Vivian Klein, secretary of the Alumni Association, in the ASB office in the SUB.

The Alumni Association was reorganized in 1934, when there were only 76 members and had a club under Pres. Chaffee. He left school and went to work, but he did govern the club for six years. In 1944 he re-entered college as a night student. He is now office manager for Kanlap's Distributing, a wholesale sporting goods firm.

FCC license exams slated

Applications for FCC first, second and third class commercial radio-telephone license exams to be given at BSC, are now available. Broadcasting Club Secretary Pat Lawrence announced recently.

Exams for licenses not available through the club which must be registered by 3:30 p.m. in the SUB Gamar Room Fees for the applications are $5 for first class and $2 for third class, Lawrence said.

Persons interested in the licenses are urged to contact Lawrence at the campus radio station or by calling him at 343-7185.

Fourth year plane flights laid by club

The BSC Flying Broncos, Inc. is starting its fourth year as a campus organization, advised Wayne White, announced recently.

According to White, the objectives of the club is to enable students and faculty of BSC to learn to fly and continue flying up to date modern equipment for the lowest possible cost.

Ground school and flight training in the 1969 Cessna 150 aircraft is handled by Boise Aviation, and a private pilot rating can be obtained with a minimum of 40 flight hours. While added A-172 four-place aircraft is also available to the member who is qualified and desires more advanced equipment to fly.

Full details on the program offered by the club can be obtained from either of the club advisors, interested persons urged to contact either White in A-301 phone 385-3191 or Carl Thompson in A-299 at 385-1236.

Club pics due

Due to the scheduling of deadline dates, your club, fraternity and sorority pictures will be scheduled as to time and place by the Leboy staff. A club is useless if your club doesn’t make this appointed time, your picture will not appear at this 1970 yearbook. The Leboy staff would appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Special events being held by your club, fraternity or sorority, if you wish them covered, contact the Leboy staff in 117, next to the L.A. building along College Blvd.
A Derisive Case of Backhandedness

What type of logic is in effect when the best is considered the worst, when the first is the last, when those "in" are "out"? What style of diplomacy is at large if the hand that is taken in friendship plunges a knife to the quick?

Who knows if any logic or diplomacy exists in politics but fairness should at least be recognizable or those concerned are rats. All Idaho week was chaired by Governor Don Samuelson in an honorary position and was advertised as an enterprise of Idaho's institutions of higher education. Although the list of members in Samuelson's committee were representative of most of Idaho, it was readily apparent that ISU had failed to take interest in the program.

That point is extremely false because ISU was not approached to participate until the day prior to activities on the Moscow campus last week. If anyone claims that our representatives are unwilling to join in the fellowship (should any exist) of Idaho universities, then we must make it obvious that this case is certainly not true.

What is true is the fact that neither ISU of UI wish to fraternize with little BSC now that we have the largest enrollment. The little schools are playing adolescent games in order to degrade and belittle this same matter.

Idaho State University's athletic department (which is directed by the administration of that school) repeatedly referred to Boise State as Boise College in its current football schedule. This practice of refusing to recognize the growth and development of Boise State was also followed by the ISU Bengal's editors and letters between the ARBITER and the Bengal editors arbitrated the dispute.

However, the athletic department shows that the high-ups at ISU still are playing kid's games. The University of Idaho advertised the All-Idaho Week as a Vandal-Bengal enterprise, and nothing but ISU officers from Boise State were able to attend, the University of Idaho Argonaut published a picture last week that alleged Jack Arbaugh, Boise State student body president, to be chatting with Gov. Samuelson, Jim Watts, ASUI President and Scott McClure ISU ASB President.

The only thing wrong with the picture was that Jack Arbaugh did not attend the meeting where the conversation allegedly took place, and the person who was supposedly Jack Arbaugh was a bearded person unrecognizable to anyone at this end of the state.

Such backhandedness is even more severe when the ASB publishes a administration as though ISU wrote Jack a letter expressing the appreciation of the University ASB officers for Jack's appearance during All-Idaho Week.

Now seriously, is this any way for the two oldest institutions under state control in Idaho to act? Perhaps the Boise State College ASB officers should turn the table on the kids to make it look the one to the southeast, but as it is now, BSC is taking it in the throat and getting mighty sick about it as more and more insults drift in.

Watch for the new concept in college newspapers—Watch for the ARBITER in two weeks.

The Idaho State University administration may have grabbed a Bengal sight by the tail when it conned ISU students into selling out for the massive domed football field now under construction at Pocatello. The hand that forks over the cash runs the mini-dome ISU students have begun to assert their authority in deciding what goes on under their expensive new roof.

There has been a serious outbreak of democracy at ISU in recent years, and some member of the ISU administration carried the concept to the point of suggestion that the student body pay for the mini-dome, so they have the must have list running it.

As a result, the ISU student council board directing use of the mini-dome will have six student members. Since the administration failed to consult the students in sending out a prearranged letter to faculty members this year telling them what sections of the new stadium they could occupy during football games—half price. Several students, including the editor of the student newspaper, cried foul, and members of the administration have been apologizing ever since the State Board of Education.

But the state board merely represents the taxpayers. The taxpayers didn't produce the money for the new facility, the students did. So it is the representatives of the fee-paying students, not the representatives of the light-fingered taxpayers, who should run the U of I facility, as they are apparently already doing at ISU.

And the students at both universities should bring to a screeching halt the policy of occasionally giving state legislators free tickets to football and basketball games. It was the legislators who forced the burden on the students. The students owe them no favors.

SCHOOL LEADERS pose with Idaho's leader Don Samuelson. The college presidents are Jim Watts, ASUI; Jack Arbaugh, Boise State College; and Scott McClure, Idaho State University.

Several students, including the editor of the student newspaper, cried foul, and members of the administration have been apologizing ever since.

The students bought the building, and they are going to run it as simple as that. So the administration may be in for some headaches on its new publications try.

This could have been avoided if the new mini-dome had been built by the taxpayers as all portions of the educational plant at a public university should be. The legislature, representing the people and the old grass, refused to appropriate the money so Idaho State and the University of Idaho both pledged to shake down the student body for athletic plants by making major increases in student fees. At the U of I where student democracy has yet to break out, the decision was forced on the students. They were told, not asked. At ISU the administration did pay the students the courtesy of asking them. It was put to a vote, and the students with visions of mini-domes dancing in their green little heads. agreed to cough up the cash.

If the students at the University of Idaho don't have the authority to decide how their new athletic plant is going to be built and how it will operate after it is built, they should follow the ISU example. go to court and win that right. The party may have been lost on the mini-dome, but the State Board of Education.

Homecoming! One thing to say about the event: Participate in the activities as they are a lot of fun. Hopefully, from now on this will be a column about various clubs and organizations. If I miss anything let me know and I'll see what can be done to remedy the "failure to communicate."

I was informed by the Alumni Association that they are presenting a trophy for best float and group participation in Homecoming activities. They are also sponsoring a victory celebration and dance at the Elks Lodge at 5:30 and 8:30 p.m. respectively.

With events open to BSC students and you are curiously invited to Alumni Homecoming activities that evening I hope to attend!

So, a moratorium in the Vietnam war is planned. Why? Nobody! Everybody else is doing it. Only one thing to say about the moratorium howsoever those who advocate peace are always the first to use force and individuals or groups initiating a revolutionary idea are seldom the ones to finish it.

As one United States Senator from one of the plains states so aptly stated "What we should do about Vietnam is simply announce that we have WON" in big bold headlines and then pull out. Thus freeing the enemy to work in the nice fields. The only other alternative is to employ Monsie Dynan for six days, well-maybe eight at the most, and have him and the boys straighten the mess out.

As the crested twenty "Is that all there is...?" Yes, Aunt Agatha that all there is. Enough is Enough and don't forget to see the game, enjoy the fun, don't take any Buckley Jr. for President hocus and until then time—see you on campus.

Suba'i players to present Shakespeare's "Tempest"

by Del Corbett

A classic play of fantasies and illusions, Shakespeare's "The Tempest" will be presented Oct. 10 by the Boise State College players in the Suba'i theater.

The power of truth in the human spirit warring with powers of hypercync, masks of evil and sens of illusion, the production is designed to appeal to the physical, emotional and intellectual sensitivities of the audience, says John Warwick, director.

Magic and strange occurrences will be employed with almost total abandon by the actors to emphasize that "things are not always what they appear to be," the underlying theme of the fantasy.

Directors Warwick, Ron Krempel, and Del Corbett have exercised a certain freedom in their interpretation of the work. Ceremonies, rituals and original scenes will be added while the ancient order and language of the play's scenes will be altered, and intensified to suit.

The underlying theme of the "Tempest" is to render Shakespeare more interesting and monumental and to lift his plays to the level of the modern audience.

Each director is concentrating on a particular specialty. Corbett is directing lighting and making it a part of the play; Krempel is heading the technical aspect with set and costume designs; Warwick is play director.

APPLE LEADER RESIGNS; CLUB SEeks NEW DESTINY

by Jim Graham

Apple, Boise State College club that had its birth in the radical campus upheaval of the sixties, starting the school year with a toned-down policy, and a pledge to help the campus grow instead of divide.

"Apple won't live," said Mike Phillips, club chairman at a Wednesday meeting in the SUB gold room, "unless we make a radical change. We have to have a concrete base if this organization is to survive. I don't want a split in the organization like we had last year."

Instead he urged members to initiate college social programs including teas and films and to continue last years tutoring program in which volunteer students aided elementary and high school students in evening study programs.

He said there would not be any rational (SIC) steps taken on campus this year, and discouraged a planned demonstration of a forthcoming nation-wide college Vietnam war protest. There will not be an underground publication this year.

However, he suggested that the club might set up a "bail fund" to aid club members who might be arrested saying, "sometimes police go beyond their boundaries."

Phillips will step down as chairman because of the club's internal problems. At next Wednesday's meeting a five-member committee board will be chosen to include a chairman, secretary and treasurer. There will also be a financial report next week.

TONY KNAP, HEAD COACH

Tony Knapp, in his second year as the Bronco's Head coach, had a truly outstanding first season in 1968, as the BSC Squad racked up an 8-2 mark, including a seven-game win streak to end the year. Knapp's record as a head coach in four year competition now stands 34-14-2, a remarkable 70.8% winning figure.

Knapp's coaching career covers many years, as he spent seven years coaching football in North Idaho High Schools, followed by ten years as football and basketball coach and athletic director at Pittsburgh Cal High School.

Tony was assistant football coach at Utah State University for four years, and when John Hatton went to Stanford, Knapp spent the next four years as head coach of USC.

In 1967, Knapp was Dave Skriner's Assistant with the Canadian Pro Football Vancouver, B.C. Lions, where he handled the defense. During his stint at Utah State, Knapp's Aggie team compiled a 26-12-1 record. As a player, Knapp attended the University of Idaho, winning 11 letters in football, 2 in baseball, and 1 in basketball. In 1937, he was named All-Coast First Team and Honorable Mention All-American in his Senior year.

Coach Tony Knapp is only the sixth man to coach a state football team since "Dusty" Kline took the job in 1923. The sequence has been Kline, 1923-31; Mac Eiden, 1934-37; Harry Jacoby, 1938-48; and 1948 BSC March 1, taking over the job from Carl Winter. Coach Polychronis joined the BSC staff this year with Boise State, having served as offensive line coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah. Before that, Nickel was a graduate assistant, under then Head Coach Tony Knapp, at Utah State University, for one year.

Tony Polychronis, ASSISTANT

Coach Polychronis joined the BSC March 1, taking over the defensive line duties. His previous coaching experience: one season at South Fremont in St. Anthony, and 3 years at Football, Wrestling, and Track at Pocatello. Krystle Wagar played Pro Football with the Detroit Lions and Chicago Cardinals of the NFL in 1958-59, and with the AFL Buffalo Bills in 1960-61. He was named all AFL in 1960.

Jim Wagstaff, ASSISTANT

Coach Wagstaff, is in his first year with Boise State, having joined the Bronco staff in time for 1969 spring practice and will be in charge of the defensive backs and line backers.

Jim attended the University of Idaho and participated in football and track, earning eight varsity letters.

DAVE NICKEL, ASSISTANT

Coach Nickel begins his second season with the Broncos, having served as offensive line coach in 1968. The success of the job done by Nickel can be seen in the 3.6 yard-per-rush average—including the yards lost by quarterback. The opposition had only 1.9 per carry.

Nickel, prior to 1968, had two seasons as head football coach at Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah. Before that, Nickel was a graduate assistant, under then Head Coach Tony Knapp, at Utah State University, for one year.

Dave attended the University of California, then received the B.S. degree form USU in 1965. He lettered in football at Utah State.

TONY POLYCHRONIS, ASSISTANT

Coach Polychronis joined the BSC March 1, taking over the defensive line duties. His previous coaching experience: two seasons as assistant football coach at Lompoc, California. One year assistant at Westminster, Utah. Two seasons as fresh man line coach, U of Utah. And 3 seasons as graduate assistant, U of Utah.

Polychronis received his Bachelor and Master's Degrees at the U of Utah, where he played 3 years under Jack Curtice and Ray Nagel. He was All-Conference Offensive Guard-Defensive Tackle in 1960, and played in Post-1960 East-West Shrine and Hula Bowl Games. In 1961, Tony played for the CFL Toronto Argonauts.

GAME ROOM TO SPONSOR BIG BUCK

The BSC game room is now sponsoring a "Big Buck" contest, according to Kent Kehler, director. Any deer hunter may enter.

The animal's antlers will be measured at the desk in the game room.

Prides will be awarded to the top three winners. Prizes are now on display in the game room.

For those who are not big game hunters, there will be a contest for the longest pheasant tail-feather when that season opens.

Bronco Babes gain first season win

by Neil Gallant
Boise State's freshmen footballers held off a last second try by Eastern Oregon College at La Grande, Monday to take a 21-19 victory over the Mountaineers.

The win was the first game of the year for the fresh. EOG took the lead early in the second half after a scoreless effort by both squads in the first stanza. The Mountaineers scored their first touchdown when Ted Thoren went in from one yard out and Jack Hancock converted to make it 7-0, Eastern Oregon.

The Broncos came right back with Henry Jenkins taking a 37 yard pass from quarterback Ron Austen onto the end zone. Kicker Jim Fickhahn then added the extra point, the first of three successful PAT tries.

Both went on top with just thirty seconds left showing in the first half when Austen hit flanker Al Marshell for an 8 yard aerial and a 14-7 lead. In the first few seconds of the second half, backs Gary Hoshaw and Jerry Herring took things over from Jenkins and Martrid. Herring took the ball over from the 8 yard line with 11:00 left in the third period.

The Mountaineers then staged their move effectively as quarterback Rick Bonnie hit Ed Reinersdor for two touchdowns, one on a 22 yarder in the third quarter and a one yarder in the fourth quarter. The two extra point attempts failed and proved to be the margin the Boise squad needed.

The win was the first game of the first season for the Boise State's freshmen footballers.

A STANDOUT DURING LAST Saturday's home opener with Whitworth was Henry Jenkins who returned a punt during the first half of play in a 58 yard scamper. Jenkins (28) heads for pay dirt with a Whitworth punt tucked safely away while Woody Olsen (42) offers interference.

Broncos romp Pirates for lopsided victory

by Neil Gallant
There was no stopping the Bronco eleven Saturday night as they romped to a lopsided 66-7 victory over the Whitworth Pirates of Spokane. Washington.

Everything seemed to click for the Boise squad, as they scored by running, passing and defense.

Things started when Boise's Henry Jenkins took a punt on the BSU 49-yard line, and scrambled 31 yards through five tacklers for the opening score.

Kicking specialist Gary Stivers came on the field and added the extra point.

The Pirates came right back and Tom Ingall's pass to Tom Hufall covered 37 yards for the Whitworth score.

That Whitworth score seemed to do nothing to the entire Bronco squad. Pete Skor, defensive end, picked up a Pirate fumble and rambled 21 yards to score. After Mike Paudlin's Grayson put on a running exhibition as he rounded right end and headed for the end zone. Quarterback Harold Gummere then hit Dennis Baird for 21 yards and a 28-7 half-time lead.

On the third play from center in the second half, another quarterback, Pat Ebright, found Hufall again, this time for 48 yards and BSU's fifth score.

Defensive back Ken Johnson picked off an Ingall pass and raced it to the 10, where three plays later Ebright hit Kenzie Davis for his first of two TD's. Davis scored on a 67 yard toss from Zimmerman for number two.

Jenkins came up with one of two Boise scores in the fourth period. Jenkins earned the ball to the end zone from 25 yards out. Fullback Henry Rausch ended the Bronco's attack as he picked up 1 yard for the final TD.

Boise's Gary Stivers had things going for him, kicking nine straight P.A.T.'s and a 47 yard field goal to put him in the scoring contest.

ISC's defensive unit held Whitworth to a total ground gain of two yards and picked off three Pirate periods.

The victory was Boise's second as in many games this season and the ninth in a row dating back to last year's play.
