Arbiter, November 7

Students of Boise State College
Glen Yarbrough, a nationally-known entertainer, will appear in concert in the BSC gym. Appearing with Yarbrough is comedian George McKelvy. The concert is set for tonight at 8 p.m.

McKelvy, who has appeared on the Mike Douglas and the Tonight Shows, will feature Boise State senior Glenn Yarbrough in his latest record, "A Crowd of Lovers." McKelvy describes Yarbrough's vocals as "sometimes singing with a folk flavor, but I sing any song as long as it means something to me."

Yarbrough, who co-founded the folk group "The Limelighters" in the early 1960's, is a noted Canadian artist. He became popular as a member of the following group "The Limelighters" in the early 1960's. In 1963, the group separated and Yarbrough set out on his own. At first he planned to tour and offer R.C.A. Victor Records a chance to hear him record a single album. Today he has many shows to come.

Many persons consider Yarbrough a "folk singer," but he says, "I am very grateful to folk music in many ways. It has made people more musically aware and has made people realize folk music is more than just the lyrics of songs. But I don't want to be categorized as a 'folksinger' because I simply am an artist with a good voice. People are singing with a folk flavor, but I sing any song as long as it means something to me."

Yarbrough has a background in the classics, having attended St. John's College in Annapolis, Md. He later studied classical Greek and Pre-Socratic philosophy at Mexico City College. According to Yarbrough, he has always wanted to be a teacher.

Following this dream, he hopes to open a school for orphans in the near future. "Most airlines charge five dollars for the weight of a passenger," he said, "but I don't want to leave no stone unturned for people with an additional grade being added each grade until highschool status is reached."

Appearing with Yarbrough will be Mike Douglas and George McKelvy. Besides his various television appearances, he has played at a number of major colleges and universities. His latest record, "A Crowd of Lovers," features a number of satirical songs written and performed by Yarbrough himself. McKelvy describes his record in advance as such: "It wasn't very funny because it was on the Oral Round. If the audience and people couldn't laugh, 'cause the hole kept being hit.

Admission to the concert will be $2 general admission and $3 reserved for BSC students, and $5 general admission and $10 reserved for the general public. Tickets can be obtained at the SUB Information booth, or at the door.

STATE FUNDING, NCA A acceptance, publications, highlight October

A number of events is underway. The college tightened its muscle, and the faculty is writing an article which attempts to respond. The decision will be made this fall or next spring.

Acceptance will mean improvement in scheduling to include mostly NCAA affiliated schools plus some NAIA teams.

BSC ENROLLMENT

State college enrollment figures and appropriation formulas were released October 23 by the Idaho State Office of Higher Education. Officially Boise State's enrollment is up 13.0% as compared to ISU's 10.6% increase and Idaho's 1.7%.

Numerically the University of Idaho has 7,315 full-time students, Idaho State 6,013 and BSC 5,409. However, by actual head count Boise State has 7,094 students attending classes, ISU boasts 7,004, and the U of I trials with 6,343.

The statewide average rose 13.5% nearly equal to the 12% figure used by the state board of education in asking for appropriations during the spring of this year.

The most dramatic growth occurred in BSC's junior and senior classes which were up 54.6% over last fall. Commenting on Boise State, Dr. D. F. Kline, executive director of higher education, said, "Growth of this magnitude presents a significant problem for the college."

The state board concurred with BSC President Dr. J. B. Barnes' $958,550 supplementary budget recommendation and will in turn recommend this figure to the legislature. The board also gave the Boise the go-ahead to offer two graduate programs by 1971 in elementary education and business education. In the interim, classes for master's degrees in the two fields will be available in Boise through a cooperative graduate center operated by the two universities.

"BRIAS" IS OUT

A sixth edition of a Spanish-English magazine titled "Brias," has been published by the Department of Languages at BSC. The magazine is distributed to the Boise Public Library, campus library and the college bookstore. It includes poems and writings of students and members of the college as well as selections from Spanish and Spanish-American writers.

IMPULSE READIES

Mark Hansen, faculty advisor for Impulse Magazine has invited all persons affiliated with the college in any way to submit material, i.e. poems, short stories, essays, plays, etc., for possible publication in the literary annual. Work should be submitted to Hansen in LA 233.

FOOTBALL FILMS

Every Tuesday noon, the Student Union Board is sponsoring football films of the previous weekend in the West Ball Room. Come and enjoy a football game and answers questions. Admission is free to BSC students.
Why the suspension?

Dedication is an odd characteristic in anyone young enough to be attending an institution of higher learning. From the commencement of this fall semester till the printing of the Homecoming Arbiter, the constancy of publication bore upon the foregone of all studies, social activities, sleep, home life, good meat and numerous other 'necessities' of life by the editor, Howard E. Wright and the associate editor, Steve Tyson. Other than the work of these two and an occasional drop-in there would have been and could be no Arbiter.

Tyson resigned when he realized that he was being put in an extremely long 24 days of work each week and that in all the previous weeks only a total of 15 minutes in the library, other than to or from class. The overload convinced Howard that the only possible manner in which the paper could 'stay alive' would be to suspend it at least in deference to the students and the collective efforts of its staff. However, it is not a new finding that what is not written in the current newspaper staff will concur with me that they too, were not adequately prepared to begin the fall semester.

The failure to organize was ours, but the failure to obtain staff was both ours and the Arbiter. The Arbiter had a list of people who last year said they would 'play newspaper.' But when it became difficult to find these volunteers, the effort was abandoned. Although we may have gotten up a little too easily, our plea for help to the student body this fall have virtually a minimum of help. The only conclusion I can draw is that we all feel a few, and a few Steve Tyson left and none are called on account of poor numbers for announcer Art Gardner. Homecoming dance— a teeny-bopper affair?

Editor New Revitalized ARBITER,

"Three Dollars A Ticket? Who can afford that? You have guaranteed that 'Homecoming (semi-)Formal' will be the high light of the 1969 Homecoming period. With the bubblinggummers/ teenyboppers/shinypants O F N T NO.

By count 18 highschoolers, 2 grads, and the cowbow hawks, 4 complete Levi outfits in green, blue and white, and 1 rotgut.

I would have made a habit by setting up my own desk and checking tickets and simply ignored the bash. The only policing of any kind was the Krakken (a dog), and telling females to put their shoes on.

I recommend the next Homecoming be either RiverStreet of 80 North, it control and all continues at the present level.

Radio advertising stated the fact that this is for BSC students and alumni only, great theory, Dr. Geyser, the death of animal. Thanks for printing this.

ASB Senate criticized

The scene was student government at work; the time, Oct. 20th; the place, the Senate, college, senate meeting, and singular lack of organization.

Dr. Barsness was born April 12, 1925, at Lewistown, Montana and received his bachelors from William Jewell College, his masters at Montana State and his doctorate from the University of Minnesota.

He held the departmental chairmanship from Sept. 1968, when he came to BSC, on. Dr. Barsness married Wylla Decker on June 9, 1949. Old age should burn and a'ye at close of day; Though wise men at their end know dark is right, Curse, bless, me now with your fierce tears, I pray. Their words and forked no lightning they Do not go gentle into that good night. Rage, rage against the dying of the light. Wild men who caught and sang the sun in flight, Grave men, neu death, who see with blinding sight

Is it a disease among BSC students that keeps them thinking they are still in high school? When are they going to stand up and be counted instead of going home? The world isn't a high school, you can't graduate, and 7000 stairs have lots.

Homecoming committee praised

Open letter to Boise State College:

The 1969 Homecoming will be long remembered as having been a complete success. Ten percent success was due to the outstanding cooperation from all who participated.

I would especially like to thank the following individuals, without whose dedication and support Homecoming might not have achieved such "Moments of Magnificence," to use Mr. Shmald, director of student activities, for his efforts in this regard, to the Homecoming Committee, to the chairman for his understanding, to Kay Hesth, Jim Woznitz, Doug Smith, David Helser, who were outstanding leaders; to Susan Bush, secretary for the homecoming committee; to the other members of the Homecoming committee, Kathy Wilkin, Ben Heldmann, ASB social chairman, Walter Allington, ASB publicity director, Julie Knecht, ASB publicity chairman, and James Morrison, who compiled the Registry. The Registry was then called to order next year's homecoming chairman. Also thanks to ASB officers for their fine assistance.

To organizations, clubs, fraternities and sororities who participated and gave us such a warm welcome, thanks especially to you. To the Student Union Board for all their help during the weeks activities—I hope you will continue your great efforts.

Finally, but by all means not the last, Alpha Kappa Psi, who were in numerous untold activities that contributed greatly to Homecoming '69's success.

The ASB feels it say it's been a great honor and a pleasure to work with you all in this year's Homecoming.

Sincerely,
Wayne Misteider
1969 Homecoming Chairman

Dave Bradstreet performs at SUB; Found "groovy"

From Oct. 27 through the 11, English born and Toronto raised Dave Bradstreet, SUB's latest musical attraction, charmed and sang to a progressive audience at SUB.

In 1966, he moved to Canada including several gigs on the Canadian Broadcasting Company.

Dave's first single is to be released by RCA Victor in early fall.

While at BSC, Dave projected to the audiences real people despite the occasional lack of response to his work. To a cocoon at night? The world isn't a high school, you can't graduate, and 7000 stairs have lots.

Dave Bradstreet performed so well at SUB, it is safe to say he's a "home run."
Owner of Boise theatre discusses 'Candy,' other 'obscene' films

By Robert L. Featherstone
Arbiter Staff Writer

Approximately one year ago, Virgil Odell opened the Plaza Twin Theater. His plans to show the film "Candy" for the grand opening were dismissed by Odell's actions of Ada County Sheriff Paul Bright, Mayor Jay Amyx, and some city council members who reviewed the film and took upon themselves to preserve the moral fiber of our community.

Odell was informed by Sheriff Bright that he would be arrested if he showed the films. In light of the court ruling on "Inga," another picture which aroused the concern of Bright, Odell arranged for the showing of "Candy." The opening of "Candy" was uneventful, partially because of the ruling on "Inga" and partially because of a suit filed by Odell to establish (or re-establish) a court opinion on the obscenity of the film.

Odell was interviewed in his office in Caldwell from which he operates three theaters, the Plaza Twin, Nampa Drive-In and the Terrace Drive-In. He was very cordial and answered all general questions in a like manner. He would answer "I have no idea," in the suit which he has filed to enter the legality of the picture.

Arbiter: "Why didn't you contest the action of Sheriff Bright in this case?" Odell: "Why show the film "Candy" anyway as you originally intended?"

Odell: "I didn't want the confusion and uproar at the grand opening. Also, the problem is one to be settled by the courts not by personalities on people.

Arbiter: "On the subject of motion picture entertainment in general, to what do you account the trend towards raw realism in motion pictures today, for example "Midnight Cowboy"?

Arbiter: "What do you feel is the trend of movie entertainment in general?"

Odell: "The public is too fickle to predict with great accuracy. Realistic films will continue, but not in as great a proportion. The general public will demand more good general entertainment such as "True Grit." "Love Bug. Television is also a strong influence. We have become a people who demand to be entertained."

Question: "What about Bond?"

Odell: "I intend to show what the people want to see."

Question: "Do you intend to show 7 AM Curious/ "Yellow"? Odell: "I have no idea."

Question: "How is "Candy" doing at the Plaza?"

Odell: "Fantastic."

Since the above interview, Odell has been arrested repeatedly for showing the film which Police Chief Church feels is violation of city law.

The case will come to court Wed., Nov. 5, to determine the actions to play to packed houses and is apparently not suffering from the "unavory" publicity or the arrests which are having negligible effect on Odell's desire to show the film.

Editor's Note: We plan to publish a feature on "Candy" Monday, Nov. 3. Virgil Odell, owner of the theater, said Art Anderson, the manager, has been arrested once and issued summonses six times since last Friday.

The film was first shown Oct. 19. Anderson was charged with violating a city ordinance against showing obscene films. Odell was arrested with Anderson Oct. 31 and both men were to appear in Municipal Court Nov. 3 to answer charges.

Ogell said the decision to revive the movie will not be made until the arrest cases are decided in the proper courts and until a determination of an appeal pending in the U.S. district court is made.

No replacement movie for "Candy," was shown Monday, but another film is scheduled to cover from Tuesday on.

In attendance at all state press meeting in Rexburg, Idaho, were two representatives of the Boise State College Arbiter (photo by John Streff) Editor Howard Wright and staff member D. D. Walker attended the November 1st meeting at the Ricks College campus in Rexburg, hosted by Idaho State University in conjunction with the Idaho Student Government Association (ISGA).

Other schools of higher education represented were North Idaho Junior College, the University of Idaho College of Southern Idaho and Northwest Nazarene College.

The meeting was called to order in the morning and a general discussion of the day's agenda was made by Larry Andersen, student editor of the Rocks Viking, and head of the Rocky Mountain College Press Association.

The first order of business was the adoption of by-laws for and by the Idaho College Press Association (ICPA) formed by the preceding group. After month recess, election of organizational officers took place.

Faculty adviser to the ICPA is George Lise of NHC. In order, elected officers are Chairman Robert P. Peterson, of SJI, Vice-Chairman Larry Anderson of Rocks College, and Secretary-Treasurer Linda Nichols of NHC.

Committees formed to report at the next meeting are advertising, newsletter, news association and exchange paper committee BSC editor Wright will head the advertising committee.

In concluding the meeting, the press group asked for a common advertising rate card to be made so that regional and national advertising in Idaho College publications will be unified. Also passed was resolution Number One stating that the ICPA is an independent organization subordinate to the ISGA.

Resolution Number Two was passed unanimously calling for a filing of articles of corporate status by the ICPA. The meeting adjourned in the late afternoon, and is is chaired by the BSC Arbiter representatives that this organization will provide for better communication and news exchange between BSC and other Idaho institutes of higher learning.

AWS shows new purpose, new look on BSC campus

by Sharon Ilmire

A REVOLUTION is taking place at the American Women's Student Organization (AWS); it has taken on a "new look" acceptable to President Clinton.

The AWS, with 1,800 members, will be presenting two new events, "Awards to women with $1000 scholarships. These women will be chosen by the scholarship committee of AWS members. The winners will be awarded for the spring semester.

The Sweethearts ball, formal format, will be held Feb. 14, according to Mini Brown. AWS-sponsored dance is one more activity to add to the list of those initiated under the leadership of AWS. The executive board is composed of Lynette Brown, president; Amy Young, vice president; Nancy Knight, secretary; Cheryl Durham, treasurer, and Amy Young, representative; Barbara Seibel, alumni rep.; Bonnie Pfeiffer, freshman rep.

Other members of the board are Amba Campbell, publicity chairman; Joan Richardson, assistant publicity chairman; Donna Stephens, Big Sister chairman; and Connie Cooper, historian.

The theme of the AWS celebration is "A New Look on Campus." Among other events are equality, abortion, law, and peace in the Middle East. Other events include participation and communication among students.

Details of new business building told by BSC department head

by Sister Mary Ida Wassmuth

BSC students have been witnessing progress on the new School of Business building, near the Library on Campus Drive since this summer. At present, T-shaped girders and poured-cement columns are being covered with red brick face and cast stone beams and columns.

According to Dr. R.E. Rose, dean of school of business and public administration, this three-story, air conditioned building, financed by student fees, will be completed during the summer of 1970. The building will provide 67,000 square feet of classroom space. The building will provide 67,000 square feet of classroom space. Dr. Rose estimated there will be 1900 business and administration majors by the 1970-71 term. Facilities are planned for 70 faculty members.

The plans for the building include main entrances on the west side of the building, which overlooks Julia Davis Park and Boise River. The library, with a raised porch, will overlook a plaza with trees and benches. The plaza will be 1900 business and administration majors. By the 1970-71 term, facilities are planned for 70 faculty members.

The plans for the building include main entrances on the west side of the building, which overlooks Julia Davis Park and Boise River. The library, with a raised porch, will overlook a plaza with trees and benches. The plaza, raised porch and ground floor lobby will all have floors of brick.

Each floor will have a large lobby, three wide stairways, and two elevators. Restroom facilities will be provided on each floor.

The right wing of the ground floor will house the data processing center. Classrooms, workrooms, computer equipment facilities and faculty offices are contained in this area. To the left of the ground floor lobby will be entrances to two lecture halls. Seats and tables will be arranged in tiers. One hall will seat 90 students, the other 110 students.

An auditorium (with a seating capacity of 200, and the Dean's office completed the ground floor plan. The second floor features a complex of carpeted rooms in the right wing housing the department of business education and secretarial science. Three office practice and typing rooms will each accommodate 36 students. There will be a fully equipped business machine classroom. A business education practice room is planned for the use of business students throughout the hours of the day.

The left wing will have four accounting lecture rooms, each with a capacity of 40 students. Individual tables for students are planned.

Each department will have a suite of faculty offices, consisting of an office for the department chairman and nine faculty offices with a central secretarial section. There will also be a faculty lounge on the second floor.

The seminar rooms are a special feature, according to Dr. Rose. These will be carpeted, executive conference rooms. Instead of tables there will be 12-15 single-pedestal, swivel chairs with fold-out arms arranged in a circle. In addition this floor has a fully equipped criminology laboratory.

A center for business and economics research will be located on the third floor along with offices and workrooms. A video-tape studio is planned for in animation courses and for seminar presentations.

In addition to these specialized classrooms there are the general classrooms four of which will be the classroom type, making a total of 25 classrooms in the building.

Executive offices for the BSC president, executive vice-president, vice president of financial affairs and their personal staffs will be on the third floor, overlooking the Boise River and Julia Davis Park.

BSC to conduct health session for poor people

BSC Director of Special Projects Dr. Gerald R. Reed announced the Public Health Service division of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare has awarded a grant to Boise State for a special project in comprehensive health planning.

The $34,600 grant will be used to conduct training sessions for disadvantaged people to participate in area comprehensive health planning. Dr. Reed said sessions will be conducted in six areas of the state. These include Corcor D'Alene, Lewiston, Boise, Twin Falls, Pocatello, and Idaho Falls.

This is a cooperative venture between Boise State and the State Comprehensive Health Office," he said. "There are two purposes of the grant. One is to train disadvantaged people to understand concepts of health planning so they may more effectively represent those people who do not now have effective representation. The second purpose will be to place these people on health boards, councils, and other health agencies."

The grant is effective immediately Dr. Reed indicated, and will go into operation no later than January 1, 1970. Dr. John Cambaider, director, Idaho Comprehensive Health Planning, has been named as project coordinator.

Boise Chess Club invites students

All BSC students interested in playing chess are invited to attend the weekly meetings of the Boise Chess Club, club president Dick Vandenberg said today.

According to Vandenberg, the club meets each Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the YMCA. The first Wednesday of each month is instructional night, and every third Wednesday is special events night and regular meetings and practice meets every night.

Parents draw large crowd, called success

Boise State College was the host to nearly a thousand parents of BSC students for the 1969 Parents Day program that was: BSC·20, Weber-47, and C.

Senate approves KETR FM funds; discusses mascots, ISU game plans

The BSC Broadcasting received an additional appropriation of $3,500 to install a FM transmitter Monday night in the weekly Senate meeting. The roll call the 11-6 vote finalized the appropriation which had been pending for several weeks.

The Senate business included the presentation of a request for additional funds for the Arbiter by Howard E. Wright, editor. Action on the $3,500 request was delayed for consideration next week. The funds, according to Wright, will be used for staff salaries and much-needed equipment. Also discussed was a survey on the Vietnam War designed to sample the feeling of the BSC student body following the moratorium action. Committee

John Labette was unable to attend the meeting, but Senior class president's speech to the Student Senate on his behalf. According to Dance, the poll is under the direction of Dr. De Haeckel of the psychology department and the poll will be mailed to a random sample of approximately 400 students. The students are then requested to return the completed questionnaire.

ASB Publicity Director Wally Allington briefly spoke on the Parents Day activities Allington, Parent's Day chairman was then honored with a presentation of a silver plaque by the Students Activities Harry Shimada was then praised by the SUB for his cooperation concerning the event.

The Student Senate considers "new business" was the big football game with ISU Nov. 15. Boise State now has two mascots, a horse ridden by Sue Ellen Smir, representing the Rodeo Club, and a horse costume to be worn by several Alpha Kappa Psi pledges. According to ASB President Tim Reagen, both mascots will be available at the remaining home football games. Also discussed were the displaying of slogans expressing "Beat ISU" on change boards by a great number of Boise area businesses supporting BSC. Gary Cederwall said that he had a number of suggestions.

Kris Williams, representing the cheerleaders said of the plan of painting slogans by the clubs and organizations in Bronco Stadium, since the structure is to be demolished following the last football game to make way for the new stadium.

Miss Williams said that the cheerleaders plan to sell the stadium area to be painted for $1 a square foot to the clubs as a fund-raising project for the cheerleaders. The money will be used to defray expenses they can travel to the out-of-town basketball games, especially a game being played in Abilene, Texas with Hardin-Simmons.

Kappa Sigs get new frat house

Kappa Sigs will hold a Nov. 15 open house in their new home, an historic white-pillared house at 1101 Main, according to Stan Oliver of the fraternity's executive committee. The house was built by pioneer financier Tim Reagen, then sold by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Galey to Frank E. Brown who has leased it for five years to the campus organization.

The BSC Broncos captured their sixth win in seven outings last Saturday, beating Hiram Scott of Scottsbluff, Neb., 51-7. Scott's quarterback, Tom Scott, was rushed enough by Bronco defense to complete only 10 of 34 pass attempts, also dropping 7 passes for 16 yards in the 62-0 romp. The defense men were responsible for 29 of BSC's 51 points.

Johnson turned two interceptions into 16 and 32 yard TDs while Bell scammed 18 yards with his interception. The defense were responsible for 29 of BSC's 51 points.

Larry Smith, who has come out of his slump, tailed Boise's first quarter scores on aerials, 11 and 16 yards from Eric Gustafson. Stivers put 3 more points on the board with a 28 yard field goal before Val Garrison tackled Hiram Scott scored their lone interception for a score.

The BSC Coach Knap used the entire bench during the week. Knap rotated his signal calling between Gustafson, Hal Zimmerman, and Pat Eubright.

Hiram Scott scored their lone touchdown on a 18 yard pass from Rommy to Bob DeFries.

BSC is away for the last time this season when they travel to Gunnison, Colo.

The Boise State Broncos have peeled a 5-1" season so far this year. BSC garnered wins over Washington State, Whittier College, Cal Poly, Eastern Washington and Southern Oregon. A narrow 16 to 10 Homecoming loss to the Colorado State Bears marks BSC's lone defeat.

World Campus Afloat is a college that does more than broaden horizons. It sails to them and beyond.

Again in 1970, the World Campus Afloat program of Chapman College and Associated Colleges and Universities will take qualified students, faculty and staff into the world laboratory.

Chapman College now is accepting final applications for the next three consecutive semesters: Spring 1970, Fall 1970 and Spring 1971. Preliminary applications also may be made for all future semesters.

Fall semesters depart New York for ports in Western Europe and the Mediterranean, Africa and South America, ending in Los Angeles. Spring semesters circle the world from Los Angeles through the Orient, India and South Africa to New York.
