Dr. Barnes PLEADS CASE

by Phil Yerby

Boise State President, Dr. John Barnes, presented "student needs beyond the total tax" to the Senate Finance and Appropriations committee last Wednesday in the capitol.

Dr. Barnes told the committee and the floor that until last in the Supreme Court chamber of 10 states that have introduced their State to its financial resources. Those included the states of small towns, the school is a normal setting in the library, educational study, and the resource program. He said that Boise State has been charging "a great deal of its administration to such a degree that a college does not help out the leading university.

President Barnes caused that those State universities were better placed to finance any auxiliary enterprises such as health centers, counseling, airports, and other student services. He explained that these schools at Boise State are not being supported by direct fees and the resource they produce.

The legislature heard Dr. Barnes explain the current problems encountered with the growth of Boise State and expressed their sympathy to the area of need.

Boise State's faculty salary levels for 1972-73 were listed as follows:
- (1) Assistant professor faculty lack of 12 credit hours.
- (3) Assistant Seminar School Salary Schedule.
- (4) Increase Maintenance Personnel.
- (5) Increase Term of Department Chairmen from 6 to 10 months.
- (7) Additional Library Materials and Instructional Equipment.
- (8) Additional Student Help.
- (9) Additional Specialized Services.

The fate of Boise State and the other schools in Idaho ultimately rests in the hands of the people.

Proposing more, the President will strenuously the State Board of Education in an effort to prevent their viewpoints in the matter.

DEMOCRATS GATHER IN BOISE

An overflow partisan crowd heard Governor Gold Andrus, United States Senator Frank Church, and United States Senator Warren Senator Allday, said the members of the Democratic Party Saturday at the Idaho way.

Senator Allday, from Menninger, told the Jefferson-Jackson Day gathering, "The Nixon administration is attempting to undo every social and civic accomplishment of the last 40 years."

Senator Allday said it is typical of Nixon to trash democratic programs and in the same breath to announce the rebuilding of North Vietnam.

Senator Allday at length on President Nixon's announced goal of cutting social benefits, including Medicare and the farm programs. The Senator had been for Senator Church and Governor Andrus, referring several times to Governor Andrus as a "provisional" Governor while maintaining Andrus plan to reduce property taxes and increased funding in the state level of education.

The United States Senator from Idaho, who is being mentioned as a possible presidential candidate, reminded his audience that Senator Church opposed the Vietnam war in 1962 and 41 when the Senator's stance was very unpopular.

At last, an hour and a half of how and who had been heard by the country had listened to Frank Church's speech, he said, Governor Andrus and the state Democratic leaders indicated they were pleased and surprised at the large number for its Jefferson-Jackson Day breakfast because of the vocal lack of interest in a non-election year.

Editor's note: The following is a clarification of various rumors being presented around the town in the media and the "other paper."

Contrary to statements and implications made by Idaho Student Government Association President, Chuck Wilkes, ISGA does not represent all college students in Idaho. For the first time in the 5 year history of ISGA, a major resolution (BISG) arrived at consensus in 1972 and passed an independent course of action.

As a matter of fact, BSC and CSI both dropped from ISGA in 1972, and pursued an independent course of action.

The founders of ISGA originally envisioned a cooperative intercollegiate organization which would endeavor to discuss and present solutions to problems which students and student governments face in Idaho. However, ISGA consistently fails due to its lack of coordination among the colleges.

It is generally understood that "actions speak louder than words..." and therefore, ISGA is not the ideal remedy for problems which BSC students are confronted with.
Asking about the $100,000 that the legislature has not yet decided where it will come from is like trying to ask where we should get a $100,000 loan from. The legislature has not decided where it will come from, and it is not going to be decided until the next session. Meanwhile, the students are left to wonder what will happen to their education.

As far as the governor is concerned, the pages of the Idaho Statesman are better suited for living the bottoms of a local bar, or for spying dirty windows. They certainly could be used for cleaning windows if they are being sold at the BSC Advertiser, but then they'd probably get sued for copying another's work.

As I was saying, the governor is not the boogeyman, but the pages of the Idaho Statesman are better suited for living the bottoms of a local bar, or for spying dirty windows. They certainly could be used for cleaning windows if they are being sold at the BSC Advertiser, but then they'd probably get sued for copying another's work.

The recital is open to the public without charge.

PEACE CORPS ARE COMING

REFLECTIONS ON YESTERDAY

by Diane Bogus

It's kind of hard,
To remember the Past.
With the Present.
The sold empty figures of yesterday
Never seem to the eyes of today.
The people who have left,
Are the credits and other places,
Names take away the borders,
Or call on you by your grown-up name.

It's kind of hard,
To be blank inside meanwhile.
When the light flame on occasionally.
The finished facade completion of yesterday,
Never has in the race of your hobby.
The people who have seen you,
When you only wanted to be a "human being"
Name one thing that is more,
Or understand your desire to be, Black.

It's kind of hard,
To reconcile the constant unequeness.
The balance whole is extremely off.
And the people are only occum.
The people, the losers, the family.
At home and hard down the road.
Hold on to the new pace on your life
Or read the old ones in your books.
For you are presently too far away.

THE BYRDS

A review

Every single week, you get to see one of the greatest musical acts of all time. The Byrds, the group that defined the folk-rock genre and the sound of 1960s America, has been making music that resonates even today. Their unique blend of acoustic guitars, harmonies, and progressive music has left an indelible mark on the history of rock and roll.

The Byrds were formed in 1965 and consisted of five members: Jim Morrison, Gene Clark, David Crosby, Stephen Stills, and Robby Krieger. Their sound was a mix of folk, country, and rock, which helped them become one of the most influential bands of all time.

The Byrds are known for their hit songs, including "Mr. Tambourine Man," "Turn! Turn! Turn! (To Everything There Is a Season)," and "Eight Miles High." They were also pioneers in the use of auto-tuners and digital effects, which added a new dimension to their music.

The Byrds were active from 1965 to 1973 and have released over 20 albums. They have sold over 25 million records worldwide and have been inducted into the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

The Byrds were not only musically innovative, but they were also socially conscious. They were involved in the civil rights movement and supported the Vietnam War protests.

In conclusion, the Byrds were one of the most important bands of the 1960s. Their music continues to inspire new generations of musicians and fans alike. The Byrds will always be remembered as one of the greatest bands of all time.

For what it's worth

ASB Treasurer, Bob Dursy, after being notified of the student's decision to grant Mr. Yerby advance payment of his travel fund, passed down payment of his service award until he had had the opportunity to discuss with him the matter. The ASB Treasurer has the authority to expedite payment only after the next board meeting which is to be held Tuesday, February 6 at 2 PM. At that same time the ASB will have the option of withdrawing grants or overriding Mr. Dursy's objections and order him to make the payment.

Another motion was made and retracted after the student heard this news bringing the number of candidates to four in the last month. An alternative representative of the ASB is stated in order to elect another representative.

Women needed

Competition is still open to all full-time undergraduate women for the E. Richard St. John Scholarship to be given by Delta Delta Sorority on campus. A scholarship should be announced by the end of the week. Any amount has not yet been determined for the local scholarship. The winner of the local competition will be given $1,000.00 to be divided equally. Applications are available in the Dean of Women's Office in the Administration Building and the deadline for applying is March 17.

Overseas project planned

A committee of faculty and students has been assembled to look into the possibility of establishing an overseas campus program for Boise State College. Dr. Pat Blew, the originator of the idea, said both the faculty and student members recently to gain their support and advice. As the present time the project is in the early planning stage, and the actual plan has been expressed by all college officials concerned. No firm commitments have been made and only rough details are available at this time.

The projected location of the overseas campus would be in the town of Seville in northern Spain. The program would involve approximately 250 students and five faculty members. No state funds would be used for the program. The cost to the participating students would be between $2,000 and $2,500. This amount would cover tuition, board, room, and travel expenses. The campus is being planned primarily for the study of Humanities and Physical Science.

Professor Blew explained that the reason for considering locating the campus in Spain is because of the significantly lower cost of living in Spain as compared to other European countries. At the current stage of planning the committee is mainly to begin gathering student opinions concerning the trip.

Respectfully,

Sincerely,

T.K.E. mourns Doc Gould

T. Kappa Epsilon was saddened by the passing of Dr. W. Wallace Gould. Dr. Gould was known not only as a teacher, but as a man of 84 who was younger than many people of 20. He was an advisor to T. Kappa Epsilon, individuals wishing to contribute to the scholarship fund. He had met with Dr. Gould and contacted Lee Jones, president of the local chapter of T.K.E.

Signs T.K.E. has received from Mr. Burgess were sent to Seville, Spain. The Omega Tau Sigma has the late Burgess as president. The pledge class for Sig Tau was a fraternity and is being organized. The chapter meets in the Commons and the activities include the weekly meeting and study sessions.

T. Kappa Epsilon and the University of Idaho have a number of students who participate in the national honor society. The organization is open to students of any major, but the largest group is from the College of Science.

Boise State College is the site for the Boise City Chess Tournament, currently in progress in the Boise room of the Cub.

The tournament, held Wednesday nights at 7:00, is conducted in a round robin format. Pressure on chess students is not necessary according to Boise Chess Club President Joel Stokley. "These are students who have been playing chess for years," said Stokley.

To participate in the tournament until February 7, eight players are already registered. Half of those registered are BSC students. Cost is $5.00 to BSC students, $1.00 to Boise State Club members, and two dollars for general public. The tournament is expected to last for six to eight weeks.

A Student Chess Club has been formed and will meet Student Senate for registration of BSC Chess Club. Interested students should notify Dr. Kenneth Sandau, Associate Professor of English at BSC, or come to the meeting 7:00 Wednesday nights in the Student Lounge.

The Boise Chess Club has charged a meeting place in order to accommodate over 80 BSC Chess Club members. They will meet with the Student Chess Club Wednesday nights.

The two chess clubs will work closely with each other. "Students will have a chance to learn from experienced players," said Stokley.
