Board of Education praise and caution

The State Board of Education recommended on October 11 that Boise State College receive university status. This decision passed by the Board in a poll conducted in a place where there is sufficient population to benefit from the development, always with the proviso that the university be a part of the greater Boise community. The Board of Education is praising this venture was a complete failure! No one

Subcommittee to discuss geothermal energy

WASHINGTON – Senator Frank Church announced today that Subcommittee on Water and Power Resources, pursuant to resolutions of the Senate, will hold a hearing for the purpose of discussing the development of geothermal energy resources.

Church, a sponsor of the legislation, said that Federal officials will be invited to testify on the legislation.

The purpose of the bill is two-fold:

1. To authorize the Secretary of the Interior to guarantee loans for the financing of private ownership of commercial operations in the development of geothermal energy resources.

2. To provide grants and loans for the promotion of research and development of geothermal energy resources.

Ike's one of the prime locates for geothermal energy, and Church has been a leading proponent of promoting geothermal energy as an alternative energy source. This bill will provide by large-scale research and development efforts by the federal and state military, with the Atomic Energy Commission and the Department of Energy, to advance geothermal energy.

Editor's note: The Subcommittee on Water and Power Resources, pursuant to the resolutions of the Senate, will hold a hearing for the purpose of discussing the development of geothermal energy resources.

Yoga and meditation lecture scheduled October 19

"Yoga and Meditation, an Amazing Science," will be the topic at a free public lecture on Yoga and Meditation which will be presented by Ananda Marga. The lecture will take place on October 19 in the Student Union Building.

The lecture will be presented by Ananda Marga, a philosophy of the worldwide spiritual and social movement founded in 1936 by Sree Shrii Anandamurti. Ananda Marga is a philosophy of life utilizing a variety of methods, including a full modernized education system, which were ancient in origin. Its aim is the full realization of the human potential. Ananda Marga's various activities include bringing about positive changes in the social, artistic, and spiritual spheres of human culture.

Beginning with the physical body, Ananda Marga has a yoga system (physical posture) which is utilized for various physical and mental exercises which relax the body, strengthen and balance the body's systems and improve mental flow, thus enabling people to achieve new levels of ability and self-control.

American Civil Liberties Union lends legal advice to the accused

This is the third and last in a series of articles dealing with the arrest procedure and your rights in court. Thanks to the American Civil Liberties Union for allowing me to use material from their material.

YOUR RIGHTS IN COURT

4. What do you go before a judge? After you are charged, you must go before a judge for a hearing without delay. If you go before the judge within twenty days of your arrest, you may not be held in jail.

5. What is your first appearance before a judge? Your judge will tell you to plead guilty or not guilty. If you plead guilty, you will be found guilty and the court will order you to be turned over to jail.

6. If you plead not guilty, what will happen? If you plead not guilty, the court will tell you to come back for a trial. The case will be tried before a judge or jury.

7. How long will the trial last? The trial will last at least a week. The judge will listen to both sides of the case and then decide whether or not you are guilty.

Maria Green, BSC art instructor, displays traveling exhibition by John Elliot

Maria Green is the only female member of the BSC theatre department's second major. She has a double bachelor's degree, a Bachelor of Science and a Bachelor of Arts, from Pennsylvania State University. She was a philosophy major, but she also loves art, being an artist was a natural choice for her. She is an artist and an educator, and both roles are essential to her success.

She has a passion for the arts, and she believes that the arts are important in society. She believes that art can be used to convey messages, and she enjoys using it to create awareness of important issues.

Her first exhibition was of her work at the Boise Gallery of Art in the spring of 1972. Since then, she has exhibited at Dr. Lyle Stanford, professor of biology, in the exhibit hall from October 16 through November 1.
