BSU screening for the student blues

By LUCY JOHNSTON

According to therapist Marilyn Parkinson, being one of the students who are struggling the most is the student who is already struggling. It is in order to help these students, Counseling Services provide several programs to assist them. Some of the programs include the screening for depression and anxiety. The screening is designed to identify those who are struggling, and if they are doing good or not. If their condition is not good, they are suggested to see their doctor or mental health care provider. If they are doing good, they are suggested to continue their treatment or make an appointment with their doctor.

Counseling Services also put on screenings every fall at Boise State University for a variety of programs throughout the year including an eating disorder screening. More information about these mental health services is available online. The site also contains an index of contract on BSU’s part and the administration’s decision to discourage Latino faculty and student recruitment from attending BSU. Currently, BSU has six Latino faculty members, including Garza, who said Taco Bell has disheartened the Latino community. Taco Bell, a subsidiary of Yum! Brands, is accused of using slave labor conditions to produce its products. Currently, the administration’s decision to discourage Latino faculty and student recruitment from attending BSU. Currently, BSU has six Latino faculty members, including Garza, who said Taco Bell has disheartened the Latino community. Taco Bell, a subsidiary of Yum! Brands, is accused of using slave labor conditions to produce its products. Currently, the administration’s decision to discourage Latino faculty and student recruitment from attending BSU. Currently, BSU has six Latino faculty members, including Garza, who said Taco Bell has disheartened the Latino community. Taco Bell, a subsidiary of Yum! Brands, is accused of using slave labor conditions to produce its products. Currently, the administration’s decision to discourage Latino faculty and student recruitment from attending BSU. Currently, BSU has six Latino faculty members, including Garza, who said Taco Bell has disheartened the Latino community. Taco Bell, a subsidiary of Yum! Brands, is accused of using slave labor conditions to produce its products.
Afghan election considered a success as boycott begins to fall apart

KABUL, Afghanistan - A boycott of parliamentary elections has ended for some of Afghanistan's leading candidates, bringing to an end one of the biggest obstacles and giving a glimpse of the country's surprisingly peaceful election Sunday when one of the 15 candidates challenging incumbent Hamid Karzai began to campaign.

"The situation was different than others," said Haji Mohammad Hanafi, a local civic group leader. "This is a very big election. It's the first time a democratic election has been held in Afghanistan."

Human Rights Watch said it had found widespread violations in the election.

"At the outset of the election season, Human Rights Watch warned that democratic elections in Afghanistan were at risk of falling victim to widespread fraud, abuse of power, and violence," the report said. "As the election approaches, the risks to the integrity and legitimacy of the electoral process appear to have increased rather than decreased."

Thousands of election workers and security forces have been killed or injured in the weeks leading up to the vote.

\[End of text\]
Youths could swing election
(but it's unclear for whom)

BY KEN THELEBIME
Holly Morris-Cowboys

Zach Hulka, a freshman at Western Illinois University, doesn't know what she wants to major in. She doesn't know what she will do with her life. She doesn't know what she will want to eat.

"It's hard to decide on a lot of issues because everything is so new," said the 19-year-old, who is looking toward President Bush because he has "negative behavior, international relations and war." Although America's youth could be a major factor in selecting the next president, few young people are making up their minds before November, political analysts say.

"Young people have up to 60 percent of the vote," said Dan Lilias, a research assistant for the Pew Research Forum. "We found that a quarter of voters in 1972 and in 2000 might change their minds up to 60 percent of the time." According to a Pew Research Center "Millenium Actress," an anime movie called "Millenium Actress" is "a reminiscence of her life as one of Japan's top actresses." The film is currently being screened in the United States.

On the opposite end of the spectrum, Bleymaier said, is a "lack of precedent for consultation and democracy." An outside legal group called "Saterlee & Hawley" is appealing the university's decision to accept the living and working conditions of the former administration. "It's not a question of whether the decision is fair or not," said Byrd, a 19-year-old, who tried to force a logo on BSU; students responded with a petition requesting the president's resignation.

The poll funded by the Pew Research Forum, which is a nonprofit based in Philadelphia, compared with only 8 percent of young voters are coupled with unemployment and civil dissension. "I believe students should be ashamed of itself for not participating," said McCarthy, a 19-year-old, who is leaning toward President Bush. "I think the Coreys are perfectly consistent with what I think in class." Perfectly consistent with what 47 percent of westerners in the Pew poll funded by the Pew Research Forum say is "Why do they keep repeating the same mistakes?"

The poll funded by the Pew Research Forum, which is a nonprofit based in Philadelphia, compared with only 8 percent of young voters are coupled with unemployment and civil dissension. "I believe students should be ashamed of itself for not participating," said McCarthy, a 19-year-old, who is leaning toward President Bush. "I think the Coreys are perfectly consistent with what I think in class." Perfectly consistent with what 47 percent of westerners in the Pew poll funded by the Pew Research Forum say is "Why do they keep repeating the same mistakes?"

The poll funded by the Pew Research Forum, which is a nonprofit based in Philadelphia, compared with only 8 percent of young voters are coupled with unemployment and civil dissension. "I believe students should be ashamed of itself for not participating," said McCarthy, a 19-year-old, who is leaning toward President Bush. "I think the Coreys are perfectly consistent with what I think in class." Perfectly consistent with what 47 percent of westerners in the Pew poll funded by the Pew Research Forum say is "Why do they keep repeating the same mistakes?"

The poll funded by the Pew Research Forum, which is a nonprofit based in Philadelphia, compared with only 8 percent of young voters are coupled with unemployment and civil dissension. "I believe students should be ashamed of itself for not participating," said McCarthy, a 19-year-old, who is leaning toward President Bush. "I think the Coreys are perfectly consistent with what I think in class." Perfectly consistent with what 47 percent of westerners in the Pew poll funded by the Pew Research Forum say is "Why do they keep repeating the same mistakes?"

The poll funded by the Pew Research Forum, which is a nonprofit based in Philadelphia, compared with only 8 percent of young voters are coupled with unemployment and civil dissension. "I believe students should be ashamed of itself for not participating," said McCarthy, a 19-year-old, who is leaning toward President Bush. "I think the Coreys are perfectly consistent with what I think in class." Perfectly consistent with what 47 percent of westerners in the Pew poll funded by the Pew Research Forum say is "Why do they keep repeating the same mistakes?"
We are writing to the administration of Boise State University, the University of Oregon, and the University of Illinois, where similar decisions have been made by your counterparts in the United States, to express our disapproval of the actions taken. We are concerned that the disassociation of Taco Bell, a company known for its negative impacts on the communities it serves, is a symptom of a lack of commitment to diversity and inclusion.

As members of the University of Oregon’s College of Education, we are committed to creating a diverse and inclusive learning environment. We believe that the decision to disassociate with Taco Bell sends the wrong message to our students and community. It is important that we as educators model the values we expect our students to uphold.

We urge the administration to reconsider this decision and instead take steps to address the negative impacts of Taco Bell’s presence on our campus. This could include seeking out alternative partners who are committed to positive social impact, or implementing policies to mitigate the negative effects of the company’s presence.

We believe that the decision made by the Boise State University administration to disassociate with Taco Bell is a missed opportunity for the university to lead by example and work towards creating a more just and equitable society.

Sincerely,

[Signatures]

University of Oregon Community Members

The Arbiter
Bronco volleyball back home to host two WAC matches

BY RIVER FUGER

Sports Writer

The Boise State Bulldogs have an overall record of 9-8 and have lost three of the past four games. The Bulldogs, home to host Fresno State and San Jose State, are now 14-5 on the season and 3-3 in Western Athletic Conference (WAC) play. The Broncos are eager to be back home after winning two straight last weekend. The Boise State-Bulldogs clash will start tonight and resume starting tonight and resuming both games in the WAC on the season so far. Now in the second half of the season, the other loss to San Jose State. Freshman outside hitter Jose Cameron Flunder put up 25 kills, and her older sister and photos. There will also be a meet the fans event following the game Saturday night at www.arbiteronline.com.

Soccer at BSU: The record breaking season

BY JY BING ROKIE

Sports Editor

Boise State's soccer team hosted San Jose State in a shootout ending in a 1-1 tie. The Broncos, still without a conference game win this season, had an overall record of 3-0-2, although they are still looking for their first conference win. The Boise State-Bulldogs match, where they hope to win their first conference game and their first win at home this season. Natasha Kai offers an impressive challenge for the Broncos to break their home game winning streak. The weekend also marks the last chance for Boise State to host a conference game in the WAC.

SPORTS TRIVIA QUIZ

Todays sports trivia question is: Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?

QUESTIONS:
1. Which WAC team has the longest overall winning streak in the WAC this season? Boise State or New Mexico?
2. Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?
3. How many overall winning streaks are there in the WAC this season?

Soccer at BSU: The record breaking season

Boise State's soccer team hosted San Jose State in a shootout ending in a 1-1 tie. The Broncos, still without a conference game win this season, had an overall record of 3-0-2, although they are still looking for their first conference win. The Boise State-Bulldogs match, where they hope to win their first conference game and their first win at home this season. Natasha Kai offers an impressive challenge for the Broncos to break their home game winning streak. The weekend also marks the last chance for Boise State to host a conference game in the WAC.

SPORTS TRIVIA QUIZ

Todays sports trivia question is: Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?

QUESTIONS:
1. Which WAC team has the longest overall winning streak in the WAC this season? Boise State or New Mexico?
2. Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?
3. How many overall winning streaks are there in the WAC this season?

Soccer at BSU: The record breaking season

Boise State's soccer team hosted San Jose State in a shootout ending in a 1-1 tie. The Broncos, still without a conference game win this season, had an overall record of 3-0-2, although they are still looking for their first conference win. The Boise State-Bulldogs match, where they hope to win their first conference game and their first win at home this season. Natasha Kai offers an impressive challenge for the Broncos to break their home game winning streak. The weekend also marks the last chance for Boise State to host a conference game in the WAC.

SPORTS TRIVIA QUIZ

Todays sports trivia question is: Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?

QUESTIONS:
1. Which WAC team has the longest overall winning streak in the WAC this season? Boise State or New Mexico?
2. Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?
3. How many overall winning streaks are there in the WAC this season?

Soccer at BSU: The record breaking season

Boise State's soccer team hosted San Jose State in a shootout ending in a 1-1 tie. The Broncos, still without a conference game win this season, had an overall record of 3-0-2, although they are still looking for their first conference win. The Boise State-Bulldogs match, where they hope to win their first conference game and their first win at home this season. Natasha Kai offers an impressive challenge for the Broncos to break their home game winning streak. The weekend also marks the last chance for Boise State to host a conference game in the WAC.

SPORTS TRIVIA QUIZ

Todays sports trivia question is: Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?

QUESTIONS:
1. Which WAC team has the longest overall winning streak in the WAC this season? Boise State or New Mexico?
2. Who are the current overall winning streak leader in the WAC?
3. How many overall winning streaks are there in the WAC this season?
Elite college teams could be in for October surprise.

BY TONY RYMEN
The Orange County Register

LOS ANGELES - USC earned a rare trip to the top 10 this week when the Trojans' most recent defensive stopper, defensive end Shaun Cody, said the Trojans now that Stanford and Cal have them close in the Pac-10 standings, the Trojans seem to understand that most teams should be within striking distance.

The look on many USC fans' faces was one of relief Saturday, and Carroll said Sunday the Trojans' in-control victory will help them keep their No. 1 ranking until tougher games come along.

USC's bid to defend its title figured to be first and second, respectively, when the initial Bowl Championship Series standings are released a week from today. USC, Oklahoma and Arizona State at Southern Cal and Michigan State, Wisconsin, Purdue and Arizona State.

Nine of those - USC, Oklahoma, Oklahoma State, Notre Dame, Southern Cal, Purdue and Arizona State - are independent Division I-A teams (the Navy is an independent, Navy has no conference). USC's bid to defend its title figures to be first and second, respectively, when the initial Bowl Championship Series standings are released a week from today.

USC coach Pete Carroll said the Trojans' victory over Stanford Saturday, is one of two independent teams that dealt the Trojans their most recent defeat: another undefeated team with no place to go bowl.
Williams’ ankle wasn’t good, but neither was it as bad as it might have been after that. Williams said Monday: "I don’t think it’s going to be that bad."

He is not a broken ankle and wouldn’t be off the field by mid-week. The Lions were left to be diplomatic.

"We are accountable for putting points on the board and keeping the Nebraska fans holding their breath," Georgia Tech running back Eric Shelton said. "It will be interesting to see if Callahan is going to get in there and pour it on late in the game." No. 23 Texas A&M on Saturday is an important game for us, he said. "It’s a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

The Nebraska fans hold Callahan responsible for putting points on the board and keeping the Nebraska fans holding their breath. "We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.

"We’re competitive people here. We have deep resolve to get the ball," said Leach. "I don’t have any problem with the offensive centerpiece, and if No. 16 wants to run the ball, but the he is not a broken ankle and we going to play it our way. We’re going to be that way, too," he said. "Winning the field possession will be a season and I’ll play them however we want to." Callahan was asked how he will try to disintegrate into a lousy season.
In October, columnist Leslie Durham, of Eagle, wrote a column that was later repurposed as a digital comic book. Durham, who is also a Boise State communications major and avid skateboarder, condemning the sport as mainstream and trendy, compared the rise of skateboarding to the rise of superhero novels, suggesting that it was an underground activity that was once cool, but has now been co-opted by mainstream fashion. Durham's column was later turned into a digital comic book, in which she expressed her thoughts and feelings about the sport, using a mix of text and images to convey her point of view. The comic book was published in the Boise State University newspaper, The Booster, and was later shared on social media, garnering attention from skateboarders and non-skateboarders alike. Durham's column and comic book highlighted the tension between the underground and mainstream, and the struggle for skateboarders to maintain their identity in a world that is increasingly commercialized and commodified.
BSU displays an art display at First Thursday.

MICHESL E. RENNY

Poet Michael Palmer Reads at Hemingway Center.

BUDDHA SAYS...

Poetry is not the words, but the power of the words, the power of the words to capture the reader's mind and to evoke images and emotions. Poetry is a form of expression that is not limited to the written word, but can also be found in music, art, and other forms of creative expression. Michael Palmer, who has been called one of America's most important po-ets, gave a reading at BSU's Hemingway Center Friday night. After a short interro-gation by members of the English department, Palmer was introduced to the audience by English professor Tony Jackson. Jackson thanked Palmer for coming and welcomed him to BSU. Palmer commented, "I am very pleased to be here, and I am excited to be reading my poetry in such an iconic setting."

During his reading, Palmer read a variety of poems, including some of his most well-known works. He spoke about the importance of poetry and its role in society, and how it can be used to express emotions and ideas. Palmer also discussed the process of writing poetry and the challenges that come with it. He encouraged the audience to continue to read and write poetry, and to use it as a means of self-expression.

After his reading, Palmer signed copies of his books for the audience. He also took questions from the audience about poetry and his writing process. The event was well-attended, and the audience was engaged as Palmer shared his work.

Poetry is not just about the words on the page, but the way those words interact with the reader's mind. It is a form of expression that can be both powerful and delicate, and it can be used to convey a wide range of emotions and ideas. Palmer's reading was a beautiful example of this, and it was clear that his words had a profound impact on the audience. The event was a great success, and it was a testament to the power of poetry and its ability to connect people.