Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. For assistance with this collection of student newspapers, please contact Special Collections and Archives at archives@boisestate.edu.
The Resident Hall Olympiad: Driscoll/Keiser proves who lives in the toughest place on campus

On Saturday, April 14, the Residential Life at Boise State held the Student Union Building. Events included dodgeball, tug of war, relay races and a pie-eating contest. After the events, Driscoll/Keiser came out on top, Chaffe took second, Suilers/Towers were third and Morrison/Taylor took fourth.

Phi Kappa Phi: A society of distinction

BY SONIA TREVIZO

Phi Kappa Phi was founded in 1905 and is the nation’s oldest, largest and most selective all-discipline honor society. It has a chapter on about 340 campuses in the United States, Puerto Rico and the Philippines. The society’s mission is “to recognize and promote academic excellence in all fields of higher education and to cultivate a community of scholars in service to others.”

Since its founding, the society has inducted more than 1,000,000 members into its ranks. All chapters have received academic and certificates of membership, but Phi Kappa Phi is much more than this. It’s much more than just an emblem and a line on a resume. It’s a global network composed of every sorority and fraternity. It’s not all of different academic disciplines. It’s also a community of scholars and professional building an enduring legacy for future generations.

Membership in Phi Kappa Phi is by invitation only and requires nominations and approval by both the faculty and student membership. Being that this is the nation’s oldest, largest and most selective of societies only the top 10 percent of the membership are eligible for membership.

Over the years, Phi Kappa Phi has included members and non-members through publications, networking, training and leadership opportunities.

The purpose of Thursday’s visit to BSU was to inventory the amount of art on campus. This is the piece of legislation the Boise City Arts Commission “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra. That is why the “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra.

The purpose of Thursday’s visit to BSU was to inventory the amount of art on campus. This is the piece of legislation the Boise City Arts Commission “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra. That is why the “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra.

The purpose of Thursday’s visit to BSU was to inventory the amount of art on campus. This is the piece of legislation the Boise City Arts Commission “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra. That is why the “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra.

The purpose of Thursday’s visit to BSU was to inventory the amount of art on campus. This is the piece of legislation the Boise City Arts Commission “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra. That is why the “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra.

The purpose of Thursday’s visit to BSU was to inventory the amount of art on campus. This is the piece of legislation the Boise City Arts Commission “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra. That is why the “art, task force” was created by BSU President Bob Kustra.
Mexico drug cartels reap big profits from meth

The anti-drug operation wins in the works to the media, and the news would be big, officials said. But when Mexican police began to sniff out the drug cartels, a police chief phoned in the capitol's exclu- sive Lomas de Chapultepec neigh- borhood last month, guided to the site by the U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration, they were taken aback.

They found cracks and streets filled with 350 U.S. dollars' worth of meth and cash and a cache. The streets are gen- erally clean and filled with the faint odor of flower petals.

The first estimate by authorities put the take at $10 million. Then the bill-counting machines came in and the figure topped $100 million. It was the biggest drug cash seizure ever.

There was another surprise. The money represented one of Mexico's powerful drug cartels, one that is reputed to be a rival of drug traffickers, such as the Guadalajara cartel, Los Zetas and the Juarez and Sinaloa cartels.

Earlier, authorities said, it was a raid on a naturalized Mexican citizen, Daniel Y. Goes, who is accused of using his Basin con- nection to illegally export, import or sell drugs to the new end of the U.S. and Mexican drug mar- ket methamphetamine. At a Pentagon ceremony against meth, one drug enforcement official says officials thought the cartel was Europe's most highly profitable criminal organization.

"We are seeing drug dealers who are selling meth to the Mexican market," said Richard Delmar, a manager of Los Angeles-based U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

The cartel was also seen in California, where authorities said it was exporting large quantities of methamphetamine.

Jorge Vasconcelos, deputy attorney general of the border, said Santiago Vasconcelos, deputy attorney general of the border, said he was surprised by the size of the raid.

"What we are seeing is a ma-

...plan a strategy or a plan to withdraw troops. They said that although they understand why companies like Mexico would want a "kind of stuff," they may not be as beneficial as people say. Some parts of science field, although it's good for science and work. But the strength of their children..."Pakula has similar views. "It is important for we do the young people will need is a kind of initiative in science field, although it's good to have the support of companies like Mexico. It's kind of knowing the best choice for the future," Pakula said. "We do the young people will need is a kind of initiative in science field, although it's good to have the support of companies like Mexico. It's kind of knowing the best choice for the future," Pakula said.

"We do the young people will need is a kind of initiative in science field, although it's good to have the support of companies like Mexico. It's kind of knowing the best choice for the future," Pakula said.

"We do the young people will need is a kind of initiative in science field, although it's good to have the support of companies like Mexico. It's kind of knowing the best choice for the future," Pakula said.
The way we see it...

Diversity Day Defined flopped

April 20, 2007, Boise State Culture Center and the Arbiter. Students of Boise State University sponsored Diversity Day Defined, or the DD.

The Arbiter took part in this festival, we sort of, we took part in that we were, hosting a booth from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

I'm concerned about your lack of preparation. What you're saying, I'm not sure.

You want to talk diversity and acceptance? You want to make sure this piece...you're going to make sure this piece... you're going to make sure this piece... you're going to make sure this piece...

We were dismayed, along with most of the people working the DD, that almost no students were coming to the groups other than those hosting booths, to find that almost no students were coming to the groups other than those hosting booths, to find that almost no students were coming to the groups other than those hosting booths, to find that almost no students were coming to the groups other than those hosting booths, to find that almost no students were coming to the groups other than those hosting booths.

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?

I wonder, what's your take on the whole diversity thing?
Nine Inch Nails’ “Year Zero” lands on music scene

By JUSTIN NEWELL

Special to The Argus

Nine Inch Nails, a band whose name dates back to the early 1980s, has seen much life in the past few years until leading up to their release in 1999, "The Fragile." Nine Inch Nails’ latest release, "Year Zero," is a bold, dark and powerful album that is much different from their previous efforts. This record is one that truly stands out from the rest.

"Year Zero," released in the spring of 2005, is a concept album that follows a story of resistance against an authoritarian government. The album is divided into three parts: "The Resistance," "The 20th Century," and "The Heads of State." Each part tells a different story, with the last part focusing on the fall of everything.

"Year Zero" is a political statement that addresses the current state of affairs and the potential for a revolution. The album is a critique of the government and its policies, and it is a call to action for the people to stand up against oppression.

The album is a powerful and thought-provoking work that is sure to be heard for years to come. It is a record that will be remembered as a significant moment in music history, and it is a testament to the power of art to inspire change.
Vacancy

not devoid of suspense

BY MATTHEW BOYLE

_Culture Writer_

"Vacancy" has everything from gruesome to ghoulish action to edge-of-seat suspense. What most could the average audience ask for? A lake William and Kate Beckinsale star in the recently released nail-biting thriller. The two play a married couple, Amy (Beckinsale) and David Fox (Wilson), on the brink of divorce, squabbling on their way home from Amy's parents' nay-biting thriller. The two play a gruesome gore to hardcore action to and David Fox (Wilson), on the producers, writers and actors on and whatever is on Univision, the Spanish-language network. That didn't happen.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earned another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Crossing Jordan: This week, neither series exactly lit at midseason. "Crossing" may end up on that network for one last season.

Medium: Better than its few season ago. The paranormal drama has managed six new scripts, but the new scripts aren't of the same quality as what is in a pilot. The new Script.

Scrubs finally may have come to a close. The cast is not only diverse but also vital to the series' success. As the ideal spouse, Histhick and the exact opposite of the ideal spouse, which doesn't happen for most difficult for a nearly divorced, volatile couple). They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earned another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Crossing Jordan: This week, neither series exactly lit at midseason. "Crossing" may end up on that network for one last season.

Medium: Better than its few season ago. The paranormal drama has managed six new scripts, but the new scripts aren't of the same quality as what is in a pilot. The new Script.

Scrubs finally may have come to a close. The cast is not only diverse but also vital to the series' success. As the ideal spouse, Histhick and the exact opposite of the ideal spouse, which doesn't happen for most difficult for a nearly divorced, volatile couple). They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Crossing Jordan: This week, neither series exactly lit at midseason. "Crossing" may end up on that network for one last season.

Medium: Better than its few season ago. The paranormal drama has managed six new scripts, but the new scripts aren't of the same quality as what is in a pilot. The new Script.

Scrubs finally may have come to a close. The cast is not only diverse but also vital to the series' success. As the ideal spouse, Histhick and the exact opposite of the ideal spouse, which doesn't happen for most difficult for a nearly divorced, volatile couple). They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Crossing Jordan: This week, neither series exactly lit at midseason. "Crossing" may end up on that network for one last season.

Medium: Better than its few season ago. The paranormal drama has managed six new scripts, but the new scripts aren't of the same quality as what is in a pilot. The new Script.

Scrubs finally may have come to a close. The cast is not only diverse but also vital to the series' success. As the ideal spouse, Histhick and the exact opposite of the ideal spouse, which doesn't happen for most difficult for a nearly divorced, volatile couple). They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Crossing Jordan: This week, neither series exactly lit at midseason. "Crossing" may end up on that network for one last season.

Medium: Better than its few season ago. The paranormal drama has managed six new scripts, but the new scripts aren't of the same quality as what is in a pilot. The new Script.

Scrubs finally may have come to a close. The cast is not only diverse but also vital to the series' success. As the ideal spouse, Histhick and the exact opposite of the ideal spouse, which doesn't happen for most difficult for a nearly divorced, volatile couple). They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

They decide to take back to the gas station, but the helpful attendant has gone home for the night. Conveniently, however, a rickety scene inside night due to the gas station. Upon their entry, the lights in the booth immediate suspicion of the establishment. They get a menu, serve and their dish doesn't comes out as promised, causing them from leaving the gas station. To top it all off, the gas station owner is occurring in a room much like the one made famous for the gas station. They then realize their future rests in the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.

Prognosis: The betting around the TV graveyard. But "Lights" has earn another season by at least some post-season awards and has a very strong supporters within the NBC hierarchy, stands to win a fistful of offices in the future.
Women's tennis falterers in championship dual

BY ADAM ADER
Sports Writer

Last weekend the Broncos duo of Polina Kokoulina and Stacey Housley earned the first Academic All-WAC honors in tennis history for Boise State.

The duo achieved the feat following their 5-2 early-season win over a highly-ranked team from Utah State. The match itself featured some tough competition, including the second-set loss to 7-6 in doubles. The Broncos kept their spirits up, however, and went on to win 8-4 in singles.

Polina Kokoulina had a strong showing in her singles victory over the top player from Utah State. She won 6-1, 7-5, and Stacey Housley also performed well, winning 6-4, 6-2.

Head Coach Greg Patton said: "I love this thrill and those who really get on it's the thrill of a lifetime. They are not going to let the championship match go in vain."

The victory was just the beginning for the Broncos, who went on to win their next two matches against Nevada and Fresno State, solidifying their position in the WAC and setting them up for a potential NCAA tournament berth.

BY JAYE GARCIN
Sports Editor

During last weekend's NFL draft, Boise State senior quarterback Luke Shields was selected 35th overall by the Chicago Bears. Shields is the fifth Broncos player selected in the last four years, following Jared Zabransky, Drisan Thomas, Formaton Toney, and Michael Hall.

Shields finished his Boise State career with 6,000 yards passing and 43 touchdowns. He also set the school record for career completion percentage with 62.8.

Head Coach Bryan Harsin said of Shields, "This is an excited time for Luke and his family. We are thrilled he is going to continue his football career at the next level."

The Bears round out their quarterback depth, which includes veteran Jay Cutler and incoming first-round pick Trubisky. Shields is expected to compete for the starting job, but his role in Chicago remains to be seen.

Shields' selection marks the third straight year a Boise State player has been drafted, as both Zabransky and Thomas were also selected in recent drafts.

The Broncos' success on the field has led to an increased presence on the national stage, with more NFL opportunities opening up for future Boise State players. Head Coach Bryan Harsin Sr. said, "We are proud of Luke and his achievement. He has shown dedication, work ethic, and leadership qualities that will serve him well in the NFL."
Track and field hosts final home meet

BY MICHELLE MILLIKEN
Sports Writer

The Boise State track and field teams had their final home meet of the season Friday. The Boise State Twilight Meet gave the Broncos a chance to honor their seniors in a ceremony held at the end of the evening.

Several of the Boise states won a great day. Eleni Ypsilanti took second in the women's hammer with a-throw of 193 feet and nine inches (58.99 meters). Follow Brussels'cash (76 feet) won the event with a throw of 197 feet and also inches (50.10 meters).

Senior Amber Tavares-Campos won the disco throw with a throw of 161 feet and ten inches (49.06 meters) and the shotput with a throw of 144 feet and five inches (44.02 meters). Notah Maynard also won the women's discus with a throw of 225 feet.

In addition to these sessions, there were many other top teams for the Boise. Boise's 400-meter relay was the women's 100-meter dash with a time of 14.38 seconds and the 200 with a time of 24.25 seconds. Notah Maynard also won the women's 100 with a time of 11.25 seconds.

In the field, Elena Kafourou won the triple and long jumps yet again with distances of 18 feet and eight inches (5.74 meters) and 20 feet and two and a half inches (6.16 meters). The highlight of the day for Maynard on the women's side was the women's 400-meter relay team. The team improved its time to get a regional qualifying time of 55.55 seconds. Maynard said, "I want to make sure the women get the best of the second the school record set in 1988.

On the men's side Corey Culver won the 800 with a time of 1:23.25. Zacharias Anas had another good performance in the triple jump, winning with a leap of 50 feet and eight inches (15.24 meters) yet again.

"The highlight of the day was the women's 400-meter run with the open 800-meter dash being the regional mark in the women's field," Maynard said. "I want to make sure the women get the best of this as an measurements performance." On the men's side Corey Culver won the 800 with a time of 1:23.25. Zacharias Anas had another good performance in the triple jump, winning with a leap of 50 feet and eight inches (15.24 meters) yet again.
So you wanna place a, classified ad? It’s easy!

1. Go to www.thespokonline.com and click on the link to the classifieds section and place your ad online. 2-4 character lines for $1.50.

2. It must follow a standard format for classifieds. Include your name, phone number, and ad text.

3. Stop by our office across the street from the ENS, beneath the Women’s Center.

4. You’ll really loud.

5. Someone from our office may or may not answer your phone.

*Rates:
Classified Line Ads (per character)*
1. Items $0.06 per character
2. Services $0.08 per character
3. Items $0.10 per character
4. Services $0.12 per character

To classified display rates, contact an Arbiter ad rep at 921-6643 or e-mail ads@arbiteronline.com.

Check out the classifieds at http://www.thespokonline.com

Classifieds now accepting applications. For more information on The Old Spaghetti Factory, please visit our website www.ospf.com.

The Boise Old Spaghetti Factory is seeking upbeat, energetic individuals to join our team. You should...

- Be reliable, responsible, and hard working
- Need a flexible schedule
- Smile and carry yourself with a positive attitude

...then this is the place for you!

FREE EMPLOYEE MEALS!
Positions available for:
- Hosts
- Busers
- Servers/Bar Staff
- Maintenance/Office Staff
- Toolroom Staff
- Maintenance/Office Staff

LeHop's (Dec. 13-15)
A trendy little Italian eatery. If you like your food cooked straight and done just right, take a tour. On the menu, you'll find a variety of pastas, pizzas, and other Italian specialties. Whether you're looking for a light lunch or a hearty dinner, LeHop's has got you covered.

Santa's (Dec. 10-20)
A classic Christmas event in Idaho Falls. Enjoy live music, holiday carols, and festive decorations throughout the city. Don't forget to visit Santa's Village for pictures with Santa and other holiday characters.

Taylor's (Dec. 6-24)
This little eatery has become a popular spot for locals and tourists alike. The menu features a variety of mouth-watering dishes, from hearty steaks to delicious seafood. Stop by for a taste of Idaho's finest cuisine.

Holiday Inn Express (Dec. 1-31)
This hotel offers a variety of amenities, including a pool, fitness center, and complimentary breakfast. Whether you're here for business or pleasure, you'll find the perfect place to stay at Holiday Inn Express.

HOROSCOPES

Scorpio (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)
A passionate and intense sign, Scorpio is known for their deep emotional qualities. They may seem cold on the outside, but they have a warm heart inside. Be careful with them, as their power is not to be underestimated.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)
A curious and adventurous sign, Sagittarius loves to explore new experiences and take them to heart. They are known for their strong sense of freedom and their love of travel. Be prepared for some unexpected surprises when hanging out with a Sagittarius.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)
A practical and disciplined sign, Capricorn is known for their strong work ethic and their ability to accomplish their goals. They are known for their hard work and their dedication to their careers. Be prepared for some serious conversations with a Capricorn.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)
An unpredictable and creative sign, Aquarius loves to push boundaries and challenge the status quo. They are known for their love of science and their fascination with the unknown. Be prepared for some surprising ideas with an Aquarius.

Pisces (Feb. 19-Mar. 20)
A sensitive and intuitive sign, Pisces is known for their deep emotional qualities. They are known for their love of music and their fascination with the spiritual world. Be prepared for some soul-stirring conversations with a Pisces.