The massive "Teach-In on the Environment" scheduled to take place on more than a thousand college campuses April 22 offers dramatic hope that further destruction of our planet may be stopped, according to Senator Gaylord Nelson (D., Wis.), the man who started the project rolling.

Sen. Nelson recalls that he first proposed the national environmental teach-ins in a speech at Seattle last fall.

"We expected the response to be good," he writes. "It has been tremendous. A thousand colleges and universities are expected to participate, along with hundreds of high schools; civic groups, garden clubs, the League of Women Voters and conservation organizations have also offered a helping hand to make the day a success." Already, the Senator says, the movement to protest further damage to the environment "has produced a series of small miracles in college communities across the nation." University of Illinois students pulled tons of refuse from a creek near the Champaign campus. Washington, D.C., law students brought legal action recently to force the transit authority to reduce pollution in its L. green buses. University students managed to save some trees that the university had planned to cut down. Students at the State University of New York prevented the bulldooring of a 50-acre marsh on the edge of the campus. All of these "miracles" are due to the student alienation from society, yet his dependence on it.

Education is now geared to government and industry, yet the bureaucracy pays more attention to its own goals, not those of the student, said Corbin. For instance, the student funds much of his education, but has little control over the use of these funds. Corbin stated that the goal of education should be the pursuit of truth and individuality.

Tuition should be lowered or abolished, entrance requirements slackened and independent student organizations permitted on campus to achieve this goal. "Freedom is whatever it is believed to be in a society," said Corbin. Because freedom is supposed as a college grows, the Boise State College should remain at its present size. This will prevent the formation of an overgrown bureaucracy, which results in radical campus groups.

Wayne Mittleider, Leland Mercy, Jr.

The primary concern of the students at BSC is the quality of education they receive in this institution. Gary Felt candidate for ASI President, stated his platform as one of improving the whole educational system through student government.

Wayne Mittleider, candidate for ASB president and Leland Mercy, candidate for ASB vice-president, stated their objectives as those of "more effective student management, establishment of communication and feedback systems, improved student activities program, student voice in planning and BSC image are included in the plans of the 2 M.

IN A MOVE UNPRECEDENTED IN THE HISTORY OF MAN, four members of an Idaho college newspaper staff and four members of the student community have united in the "holy" bonds of incorporation. The group, which is borrowing the name, Arbiter Staff, Inc., has adopted a policy of involvement to foster involvement on this campus.

Pictured in the midst of battle are, from left, Ken Williams, Art Galus, Bill Sommera, co-president Steve Tyson and campaign director Terry Ertter. Not pictured are vice-president Steve Reed, publicity director Bill Gertle, Bob Radloff, co-candidate Bill Jones and Miss Patricia Roberts, recording secretary and faculty advisor.

The group is accepting memberships from both interested students and faculty. The Arbiter Staff, Inc. has an accumulative gpa of 2.05 and has acquired 48 credits thereby meeting the requirements set by the ASB constitution.

On March 27, five Boise State students and one BSC faculty member filed corporate papers with Pete Cenarruzas, Idaho's secretary of state in an attempt to stir up student involvement during campus elections this week.

The lecture highlighted the causes and solutions of campus riots.

Corbin feels that much of today's college disorders are due to the student alienation from society, yet his dependence on it.

The Arbiter Staff, Inc. (AST) has heard many complaints concerning campus representation. Therefore, they are in favor of creating forums which meet whatever needed. Each forum will be designed to sample the ideas and problems of the students in Von-Tech, the dorms, physical education, smaller campus organizations, larger organizations and ethnic groups and later take this information back to the student senate.

The group began primarily in hopes of exciting the campus into spontaneus rapid-fire election action with students asking and candidates answering. But, when it became apparent that perhaps the campaign might fall their way, the group drew up a list of platform plans.

Boise State
MEMORANDUM

Inasmuch as the student organization incorporated as "Arbiter Staff, Inc." has met all the requirements of the community of Boise. "I am a member of Alpha Kappa Psi and a concerned student. I feel it is my place to insert a few comments in the margins of these few pages. What makes it few pages. What makes it chairman. Weber feels it is important to upgrade the culture both on and off campus."

Kappa Psi is one of the most active fraternities on campus and boasts a membership of about 60 members. Our fraternity tries to instill activity in its members and encourage them to become leaders. Our fraternity is not urging a takeover by the fraternity. Since they ran as individuals, because they ran as individuals. They are doing so because Alpha Kappa Psi told them to. They are attracted to Leo, Gemini, Sagittarius and Aries. They are stubborn and forceful, true to their symbol, Aries is symbolized by the Ram, and true to their symbol, they are restless and temperamental.

A motion was made to form a committee to make recommendations to the qualifications of the recipients of the award. The motion was passed and the committee will consist of the President of the aforementioned, and these Senate members: Jim Kines, Cecil McBride, and Howard Wright.

Loren Wheeler, President of the Broadcasting Club, and representatives of the school's activities, structure, staff, and its current financial report. The Senate accepted the report, and recommended the Broadcasting Club for formal presentation.

A motion was made by Becky Ackley, and seconded by Gary Dance, to change "Judicial Court" to "Judicial Council" in the BSC constitution. It was passed unanimously.

Dr. Hendry, Dean of Student Personnel, introduced to the Senate an account of a proposal to give letter awards to outstanding athletes other than basketball, wrestling, tennis, golf, etc. This would include Rodeo Club, Judo Club and sky-flying. The biggest controversy was that of who would provide effective leadership for the students of Boise State. The fraternity is not urging a takeover of the campus. The fraternity will not dictate to these men if they are elected. They are running as individuals, naturally with fraternity support: our fraternity tries to instill brotherhood in its members. If they are elected they will serve as individuals because they ran as individuals.

Jack Rencher

Ed Weber

Michael Requist

Getting more for the student's money is the goal of Ed Weber, candidate for ASB Social Chairman. Weber feels it is important to upgrade the culture of not only BSC but of the community of Boise. "I am going to do my best to make social life better for students both on and off campus."

Michael Requist, candidate for ASB social chairman, plans to start an open-door policy asking individual students to submit ideas for entertainment to him. Requist hopes to bring big name groups including Peter, Paul and Mary; Simon and Garfunkle; and Bill Cosby to the BSC campus.

"We need to set guidelines as to who and who is not a funded organization." Patrick Lee, candidate for ASB treasurer plans to establish a Financial Board to evaluate requests for funds by organizations on campus.

Stars are there in your affairs

by Chris King

Impressive and fundamental. That's Aries, born between March 21 and April 20. They are great leaders, with a strong desire to be first in everything.

Aries is symbolized by the Ram, and true to their symbol, they are restless and temperamental, with a domineering spirit.

Courageous and optimistic, Aries are adventure. No task is too challenging for them. Like their ruling planet, Mars, Arians are ready for battle to fight for their favorite cause.

However, the fire in Aries tends to burn out quickly. This sign is a great starter, but poor finisher—though they don't stay at it for any length of time. When stymied or bored, Aries become restless and tempestuous.

Love, to an Aries, is the force that calms and stabilizes. They are constantly searching for the perfect partner. They are passionate lovers, with a tendency to dominate the one they love. Often, Aries become bored with their partners and tend to criticize.

Any shade of red is the best color for Aries and their lucky charm is a ruby. They are attracted to Leo, Gemini, Sagittarius and Aquarius.

There is a need for "reasonable appropriations of fees." Dee Carver, candidate for ASB Treasurer hopes to establish a uniform funding formula. His plans also include the establishment of a Financial Board to find out where the students money is spent. Public relations is an important job of the ASB officers.

Hartford in Nampa soon

There is something special about hearing a great song done by the man who wrote it. It's that feeling that no other artist can have for the song because he can't know where the writer's head was when he wrote it. It is the BSC at the Asheville River Stampede in Nampa.

Hartford will appear on Saturday, April 10 from 7:00 to midnight during the NRA Rodeo. That's five hours and you may have to wait till next semester to see a big name go for hours in one show. The price, $2.50/general and $1.50/students is reasonable if you want to compare it to other concerts we've had this year in the Old BUSINESS.

If the name John Hartford still doesn't ring a bell with you maybe "Garfield" on my mind sounds familiar.

Campaigning scored

by Terry Erter

The ASB candidates are upon us once again and the traditional discourses of the college campaigns have arrived on the scene as BSC.

I may be the only one who wonders if it is really necessary to have fifty signatures on a petition to run for student body candidate. This is because I am not a student body candidate.

What do fifty signatures prove? The candidate in question has fifty friends? If you have ever been drinking coffee when the hopeful candidate was writing recruitment signees you may doubt that they are all his friends.

Perhaps someone hopes that if the candidate bar to go out among the peasants, they will ask pertinent questions concerning his stand on important issues. If this is the case, could fifty persons, chosen at random in the SUB coffee shop, be considered a representation of the fifty members of school.

Petitions are not my major complaint however. What kills me in the barricade of senseless posters that appear regularly, advertising candidates with slogans which are irrelevant, and bombards the campus, is the eyes with candidates' names.

Vote ABC - He's experienced,
DEF for Pres. - he's got my eyes,
SNP looks like CB, Charley Brown digs XYZ, vote XYZ and watch him do his thing. And onward to infinity and nausea March the flyers, posters and cardboard boxes.

The candidate, with the artist who can draw the most clever picture of Snoopy is the winner and everything is good because the new president has access to a such a good artist.

Meanwhile, back on the Campus, all the posters and flyers have blown away and can generally be found anywhere as come to good old USA litter along the way or stuck in bushes and fences for miles around.

In a time when pollution is threatening to surround us before the Communists get around to it, I believe that all outdoor campaigning should be banned and I believe that no candidate

slogans which are irrelevant, and one candidate offers anything which appeals to you for God's sake don't start shouting your

Idaho ETV supported by six area governors

by Sister Mary Ida Wassmuth

This is the last of a three part series dealing with Educational TV in the state and at Boise State College in particular.

A look into the interest of the 1970 Idaho legislature in ETV, the possibilities of a TV transmitter (microwave) on Deer Point, the submission of an application by the Boise Telephone. We have understood that BSC will have its own ETV facility located in the library.

An ETV facility can be compared to an IMC center and therefore is compatible with a library as a part of the learning resource center.

We have considered the question, "Do we avail ourselves of the opportunity to have ETV on our BSC campus or do we we pass by the chance for this modem adaptation because of angles of the situation are not ideal?"

This week article will give us some final up-to-the-minute details of ETV in Idaho.

On June 16 and 17 the governors of six Western States (Federation of Rocky Mountain States) will meet in Washington D.C. to to support Idaho's application for $334,000 of federal funds to purchase equipment for the new ETV station to be located at Boise State College in the new library addition.

Referring to the Editor's
Note in No. 1 of this series, D.F.
Engeling, superintendent of Public Instruction, stated in an interview that the state Board of Education has not signed a contract with NBC.

David Sarnoff, vice-president of NBC, mused SATURDAY

a 'letter of intent' filed by Idaho as a contract.

legislature to take up either

"In addition," stated Engeling. "Time limitations have run out on the NBC offer, hence our agreement is closed with them at this point. Anything in the future will be

ASI speaks out

4. Establish a specific manner for introducing material into the student senate either by contacting the director of student activities in a way by a member of ASI or any senate member (more emphasis on the latter than there has been in the past).

5. Establishing the senate agenda the Friday prior to the Monday meeting, thereby reducing "emergency" legislation.

6. And regular ASB office hours (setup/posted/published) and someone always available when you need them.

Student Handbook

The students need an immediate source of all information pertaining to academic and campus life. The book should be a source of material on social events through the year, on health information and facilities, on administrative procedures, etc. This handbook should be written and published by students (not faculty) in conjunction with faculty.

Quality-not quantity entertainment

The Student Union Board was an ingenious creation. Through the work of these people, BSC students have been afforded some most fine entertainment. If you missed these shows, sorry.

The Board should be given an increased budget to supply students with a larger number of Student Union events and to draw more of us into campus life after hours.

Student Union hours should be extended on weekends, during and following campus evening events. Many times after a game or Sodalis performance, students find it too late to stop at any place catering to their liking. It would be nice to come to the SUI in the evenings instead of fighting crowds downtown at a teeny-bopper dance.

The social calendar is the biggest expenditure made by the student body. However, because of our relatively small size and the high cost of big name groups (Simon and Garfunkle are now demanding $100,000 a concert), 2500 student tickets at $4 apiece, BSC students seldom get to see the big names until they are no longer big.

In the past many candidates have promised to work out some kind of agreement with other campuses in our area in order to get big names in the area. But we have seen neither nothing or BSC students getting the small end of the deal.

All any candidate can promise is to try to buy the best, but at least we hope that we can maintain quality when we cannot afford quantity.

To help in this end a committee of students at large will be set up to guarantee establishment of a social calendar which will have something of interest for all. Although our ASB has had a social committee, the ASI's plan is to primarily enlarge the size of this task force committee.

Coordinated communications

Establish a student-owned public address system in the SUI which will be made available to all persons wishing to speak or make announcements to students in the snackbar.

ASI plans to make available to the student senate a number of anonymous bitch boards on which students can make their complaints and protests known to ASI and the student senate.

Weekly featurettes are planned in the snackbar to entertain as well as inform the students as to recent decisions of the student senate.

A regular faculty-student "rap" session will be instigated in order that students and faculty may step out of their roles and communicate more effectively.

Senate minutes will be posted in all club room buildings as soon as possible.

Establishment of an area in the Student Union where students and their peers in government can get together daily and discuss problems and plans will be authorized.

A system of "campus crier" sound systems will be planned in a continued effort to get messages of importance immediately to the students.

The ASI publicity director will handle all publicity for both the ASI and the campus organizations. Since the Arbiter Staff, Inc. is primarily trained in news writing, it can promise to get the news to both the Arbiter and to local dailies immediately.

Student Aid Societies

The AMI will work for the formation of a centralized system of rapid aid for students in trouble. Under one phone number you will be able to reach the placement services office, the center for counseling and guidance and other campus services (such as health center, deans of men and women).

Student referendum

Controversial issues concerning student matters will be sent to the students for their decision in a referendum vote.

Matters such as parking violations and faculty evaluation should have been handled in this way.

Bigger, better Arbiter

The Arbiter Staff, Inc. knows just how much planning and appropriations will have to be made to increase the size and improve the appearance of the Arbiter. We need a college newspaper and not a underdeveloped junior college ASB bulletin.

A new leaf in ASB government.

The incorporated members of the Arbiter staff are fully qualified to run. Their collective average gpa is 2.05 and their collective average of credits is 48. They have a wealth of knowledge which they have garnered from working for you during the past three years. They can offer you true freedom and enjoyment while in college.

Write in the Arbiter Staff, Inc. You will be glad you did.

Candide will return

A special performance of the Suba's Theatre's production of Voltaire's "Candide" will be presented Sat., April 11, in the Liberal Arts Auditorium.

Admission is $1.50 will be charged to go toward expenses to take the cast to Utah for an Intercollegiate Theatre Convention.

The show, which ran from March 10 to 15, played to capacity houses every evening. John Smead directed, translated and adapted the classic play for BSC, and felt it has a contemporary spirit, or even commentary on current events. The story has not been modernized, but the emphasis on human beings hasn't changed. Candide learns, he experiences life-and, as in real life, his experiences are at the same time horrifyingly unhappy and hilariously funny—and deeply relevant.

I shall be glad when the last king is hanged with the entrails of the last priest Voltaire Tenure, tenure, who needs it?

by Terry Eterter

Tenure, tenure, tenure. Mumble it to yourself a few times. Its got a good ring to it. If you've got it, your boss can't fire you without an act of God. If you haven't got it, any old act is sufficient to get a teacher removed.

Tenure is actually just another name for security and there is just as much resistance to lose tenure. Many have noted that in congress a ninety year old man can run half the congress a ninety year old man.

In California, once upon a time, it was discovered that if his boss ever got upset with him they could make things ugly enough that no teacher would care to stick around, tenure or not.

The reason for TOOTY FROOTY FROSTBITE BAND's group popularity is the group's leader, Mr. Funky Feature himself! Eric Study. The clacks (call him Bill) is lead singer, lead dancer, lead guitar-player and lead hat. He also writes the songs that the band plays and produces their record.

Our litchee reporter talked with Eric's shiny, fire-engine red Caddie until he stopped at a local bank and asked him the inevitable question: What do you dig the most...man? (Eric) "Wow! Well, I'll tell ya man, I'm just doing my thing if you can dig that. The thing that bumps me out is a commercial cop-out. Peace. Love...ya know what I mean?"

The other cats in the band are every bit as groovy as Study (not quite so rich—but groovy): Lawrence L. Loopo plays the B-Sharp Basso-Bello-Leketerlo-Phonium-Horn. (Right?) Big Kahuna (not so rich) gets it on the Polish Pentangle, while his faithful colleague, Harvey Nickelson does a winning job on the Electric Jew's Harp. How's that? Harvey, in the group is Calvin Gertin, who solos on the Bass Aardvark and plays rhythm parts on the special electronic instrument, the Synthetick Silicone-Synthezier Whizbashas Gizer!!

THE TOOTY FROOTY FROSTBITE BAND is moving up the charts all over the scene and they've just got to be the top-pop kings of the whole groovy P&P world. So come on all your far-out hipsters! Hop in your wheels and whiz right down to the nearest place that sells heavy sounds and score a c o p y o f "G R O O V Y VIBRATIONS" for yourself! If you can dig it!

Dr. William Shankweiler, chairman of the division of Arts and Letters at Boise State College, announced the designation of need-based scholarships for students working in the publications field at BSC.

The scholarships will be awarded for fall semester, he said, and are renewable for the following spring.

Six full tuition scholarships will be open to students who are willing to work on the Arbiter, school newspaper, and three full tuition scholarships will be given to students who work on the Los Bosque yearbook.

Scholarship applications may be made at the Office of Financial Aids, F. Richard Reed, Director.

Dr. Shankweiler indicated these scholarships are to encourage greater student participation in the activities of student publications.

Further information can be obtained from Reed's office or from the journalism instructor, Patricia Roberts.

Support asked for clean-up

by Kevin Thienes

In this column, I have been trying to get people involved in activities at BSC. My feeble attempts to motivate the students have not met with much success, to say the least. Perhaps the negative approach I have taken is as much to blame for this lack of success as anything else. Therefore, folks, I am taking a new approach, in the hope that it will be more effective.

There is no question that the preservation of our environment is one of the most important crises facing us today. There is no reason for us to reiterate what has been said concerning what is wrong. We know what is wrong and what must be done. It is now time to physically do something.

How about a demonstration? Not a the picket-line type, but a constructive demonstration. On April 9 all students are urged to participate in a campus clean-up. This sort of a demonstration would benefit everyone if you are willing to give more than vocal support. Every organization on campus will be involved in a city-wide clean-up, we will foster better relations between the college and the community, which is of utmost importance if we are to improve our image.

No student senate meeting last Monday evening. Rumor has it that all the student senators had exams last Tuesday morning. No war yesterday. Seems the VC were cramming for their urine tests.

'Anne' film termed regal

By D. Charles McDonald

History, Universal Pictures and Richard Burton have collaborated in a remarkable film to give an intimate closeup of the tempestuous affair of England's King Henry VIII and Anne Boleyn, ANNE OF THE THOUSAND DAYS. Genevieve Bujold as Anne Boleyn is a dynamic young woman, who as courtier to the Queen and potential brood mare to the Tudor stable, becomes the catalyst of a political revolt in which Cannon Law is forced to bow to English Law.

With Richard Burton as Henry VIII, the viewer is treated once again to a fast moving, bold, and richly authentic dialogue of a 16th century monarch's lust for a mistress he hopes can provide him with a male heir to his throne. However, while historically accurate enough, continuity of plot comes second to the overall theme of the mating game and the exasperating consequences of pursuing a woman who will be loved, wed and bedded only at her own price.

The questionable legitimacy of an heir from a mistress forces Henry to make Anne his Queen. For Henry, this means divorce from Catherine, his Spanish Queen, which incurs his excommunication from the Latin Church by Pope Clemente VII who is literally under siege from Charles V, Monarch of Spain and nephew of Catherine.

For this series of events, Henry blames his chief advisor Cardinal Wolsey and later causes the execution of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Sir Thomas Moore, as he, Henry, takes over as supreme head of the Church of England. Here, the viewer feels that the

has been contacted and so everyone should know what's happening. What are you going to do?

On April 19, a similar demonstration is planned only on a slightly different scale. The city of Boise is going to be taken to the cleaners! Campus, civic and community organizations will be involved in a city-wide clean-up.

Why this is important to you as a Boise State College student is a matter of image. Most people downtown think of this school as BJc or a glorified Borah or Boise High School. If we contribute a large part to the city-wide clean-up, we can show that we are interested and involved, and thus improve our image.

You may register tomorrow or Thursday at the Campus Center. There will be signs from our organization on campus.

Dorms to meet housing needs

The new dorms will be for women, but they are designed so that by skipping elevator stops, each floor can be isolated and the dorms can later become co-ed.

Financing of these dorms will be by a loan with an interest subsidy by the federal government. That is, the government will pay all interest above 3% on a loan to the school.

The new dorms will be located in the Northwest corner of the campus near the intersection of Campus Drive and Capitol Boulevard. Unlike the present dorms, the new dorms will have a cylindrical shape.

One Pocatello legislator to another after BSC-ISU game at BSC "Those Republicans sure can shoot."

It has always seemed strange to me that during that time in man's history when the populace substituted cologne for baths, that the people were called Romans and cologne got a bad name.

Call our B. S. C. Rep Larry Knapp, (888-2054) and he'll tell you what you need for a party, picnic, or boondocker. He'll supply you with light Olympia draft in kegs—with the new, easy-to-use Olympia Picnic Tap.
Second, activate transmitter for BSC (Deer Point) by late fall. Third, the interconnection of the three Idaho stations.

"The interconnections will be a live pickup," stated Colwell.

"That is a program presented by one of the stations it can be picked up by the other two."

"Also when the connection is made with Utah, we will be able to receive live programming through the time delay center in Denver, Colorado (NET).

"The time delay center is being installed at the present time so that programs originating on the east coast may be held and retransmitted at a more convenient hour for the mountain time zone."

"This national (NET) hookup should be completed sometime in 1971."

Summarizing ETV for the Boise area, Colwell said, "By fall, there, we should have live pickup from Pocatello both for programs from the ISU studios and federal ETV (NET).

"This will be the nature of ETV in the interconnection because we can establish live connections with the University of Idaho and before BSC's proposed facility is ready.

"The progress of the BSC facility will depend on the federal grant for which application has been made with its $11,000 appropriation from the 1969 legislature. If received this $33,000 will provide the ETV equipment for BSC.

"On June 16 and 17," Colwell declared, "the governors of the Federation of Rocky Mountain States will meet in Washington, D.C. to further the application for the Boise ETV station to be located on the BSC campus."

Colwell added "That our request should have top priority position in that we now have no ETV in the Boise area.

"This same committee of governors met before to obtain the present facilities at ISU," commented Colwell, "and we hope they do as well this year for BSC.

In relation to the NRC release, Colwell said, "Before we can really utilize the NRC (or KTVB) proposal we have much to accomplish. NRC (or KTVB) would give Idaho complete production facilities which would employ and upgrade personnel and operating experience with BSC, ISU, U of I and the State Board of Education for educational television."

"This connection is to be accomplished through a microwave link to Utah."

"The intent now," commented Colwell, "is to accomplish this order. First, activate the transmitter at Pocatello by September, 1970.

Lyceum committee moves to ASB

by Larry Overholser

The Student Senate of Boise State College voted to take full control of the Lyceum Committee.

The Administration did not fulfill its financial obligation to the Committee, said Jack Arbaugh, ASB president.

Arbaugh said the philosophy of the Lyceum Committee is "to bring in (to BSC) cultural and educational programs to further education."

This present policy calls for the Administration to pay half of the Committee funds and the students pay half, with the Administration supplying a committee from the Faculty Senate.

This school year the administration gave the Lyceum Committee $2,500 compared to the students' $5,600. And the Administration still wants to dictate the Committee.

Effective next September, the Student Senate will pick a Committee of eight, three from the Administration and five from the student body. The Committee will be given a $1,000 raise in funds in September. Also, the Committee can bring in films, speakers or anything educational.

The Senate has indicated it hopes to bring in more "controversial" speakers.

Psst .... Wanna 1971 Les Bois ?

The Boise State College yearbook may not be produced next year, for there is no staff assembled as of yet, and no applications have been submitted.

So far, only two applications have been received for positions on the BSC Arbeiter Staff. Scholarships will also be supplied for positions held plus a monthly salary.

Applications can be picked up at the Arbeiter office for each of these publication positions. Apply now if you are interested. BSC without a yearbook is . . . well you just might see for yourself.

Meet the gourmetteur. Study him well, for he may turn out to be you. The gourmetteur is well on his way to being a bona fide gourmet. For instance, this fastidious dîner won't give a common hamburger mouthful. No. He insists on The World's Best from KING'S. Clever fellow! HE knows that what we leave OUT of a hamburger is all important. Choice cornfed beef we put IN! To him, even an onion makes a difference. Things like that are the special KING'S onion ring that runs circles around the rest. Sometimes we call him a gourmetteur. And sometimes we call him "wonderful" because he really appreciates good food.

"Gourmetteur" is a word that describes a person who loves his food. It can be translated from French as "a gourmet who loves his food." It is often used to refer to someone who is very particular about the quality and presentation of their food. In this case, the word is used to describe a person who is very particular about the quality and presentation of their hamburger. They only eat hamburgers that are made with the best ingredients and are prepared with the utmost care. The gourmetteur is someone who takes their food very seriously and is always looking for the best possible meal. They are often known for their refined taste and their ability to appreciate the finer things in life. They may be willing to spend a lot of money on a single meal, but they are also willing to spend the time and effort necessary to prepare a meal that is truly exceptional. The gourmetteur is someone who is comfortable in the kitchen and who takes pride in their ability to cook and serve delicious food. They may be someone who enjoys experimenting with new recipes and trying out different cuisines, or they may be someone who prefers to stick with tried and true favorites. Regardless of their approach, the gourmetteur is always someone who is passionate about food and who takes it very seriously.

Tony Knap and his BSC Bronco gridders are preparing for an even greater season than in 1969 when they compiled an impressive 9-1 record. Knap has expressed delight in the way his players arc "putting out" 100% in every practice, as the enthusiasm has brought about some pleasant surprises.

A number of the players from the past season will be back on the offensive attack, including quarterbacks Eric Guthrie, Pat Elbright, Bill Ackert, all of whom arc fine passers.

Several running backs have been hard hitting, thus far. They are Mike Haley, Dave Ray, Dan Bell and Jerry Herring. Ray should be a spectacularly effective back as he has proved to be a very exciting runner, and Dan Bell has also displayed great ability as a running back. Only a week ago Bell was a defensive back before being transferred to offense.

Al Marshall, a split-end, has proven to be very potent because of his speed and quickness. Dennis Rau, Dave Toney and Dave Russev are turning in commendable performances at the tight end position.

Interior linemen have been exceptional. They have displayed quickness. Dennis Bair, Dave Ober and Abe Koval have displayed quickness and strength. Three other linemen who have had less playing experience will be fighting hard to win starting positions, and they include Lin Wait, Ryan Sopatyk and Doug Borah.

Steve Forrey and Ken Johnson are the front runners thus far in a battle for starting berths in the defensive secondary, however, they arc being pressured by Kent Merrill, Tim Collins, Dave Ober and Abe Koval.

Two players have been working up to their full potential during the last week. Cornerbacks Beet Staples and Scottie Bowles. The pair saw only limited action last year, but appear to be the most likely to nab starting positions.

Kicker signs with Packers

Boise State's Gary Sivers became the second Bronco from the 1969 gridiron team to go pro. Sivers signs with the Green Bay Packers. Always a packer fan, Sivers says that he has all the more reason to be jubilant.

Boise State track coach Ray Lewis, figures to be a stronger squad overall than in 1969.

Batmen drop fifth to NNC

Bob Peterson's grand slam homer in the third inning failed to ignite the Broncos as they slipped to their fifth loss against a single victory.

Boise State's leading run slayer returned to a starting position, and they include Lin Wait, Ryan Sopatyk and Doug Borah.
