Quin-tes-sence (noun): The perfect embodiment; the essence of a thing in its purest and most concentrated form.
contributors

Todd Shallat
editor

Adele Thomsen
graphic designer

Otto Kitsinger
photographer

Karen Woods
Bob Neal
featured artists

Melissa Lavitt
metro series editor

Terri Schorzman
Boise City Arts and History

Idaho Metropolitan Research Series

Suspended between the promise and peril of booming urbanization, between farming and industry, between nostalgia and modern convenience, Idahoans pine for the open spaces in a state more urban than rural since 1974. This series explores urban-rural concerns that complicate regional planning. Topics include housing, transportation, crime, social welfare, conservation, energy, municipal politics and the need for new ideas that foster sustainable growth. Visit our catalog at booksboisestate.com