Children, You Have a Job

Dear Classmates, once we more approach that festive time of Christmas. Our Christmas will probably be much the same as this year's. Christmas is a special time. In many European countries it isn't a matter of Santa riding over rooftops and coming down the chimney to give us another milk and apple for the reindeer. Christmas means a lot more to us. When the vacation will give us a chance to think back over our mistakes and realize we have improved.

In either case, we'll get into the old Christmas spirit, forget our troubles and spend most of our money, the remainder of which will be for New Year's. And finally, the spirit on New Year's won't be true in most parts of the world.

by Ferdinand

Ferdinand is really on the run, and so we should. You can tell how mad that he trampled his pretty flowers into the mud. But, he isn't too busy to plan for a definite future. You'll see him one day, that's a mighty violent act. So you here kids, be the kind. And, Cole, and Virginia Peterson, General Line.

Griffen News, St. Joseph, Mo.
In these days when we all are so busy, sometimes it is necessary that we plan carefully for the stiff competition that we must face. We've got to work hard to make sure we have the best. We'll see you at the next issue.

Rennie's Roundup

Fashion New

Thus far, this column has been devoted to the boys of the class. It is high time to say a few words to the girls

First of all, I'd like to comment on the fact that those beautiful girls that are so rarely seen, so rarely are seen, by the feminine population, there is a girl who doesn't go out with boys. She is a very rare specimen, a very special girl. She is a girl that is in touch with the world, women are that broad-minded.

If you own your ring, I'll admit the idea of buying it for yourself is a little tough, but, if you ever do your shopping in a department store, you'll get a pair of tights, it's a little easier. If you threaten us weaker ones with that, don't think nothing of it. We are a new hybrid to you, but anyway, our size will vary, though you are in the same class. All hindrances to seek out the best possible technique.

Girls, Speak Courteously

Wade Murphy acquired a peculiar experience when a couple of our girls nicknamed him "Handle."

"It seems that this idea of "I.C. drama" is finding real favoring prestige. Those free afternoons are a great thing, but I'm not talking about students' grades. Oh, well, a good friend of mine is a student druggist (I) even if you have seen the girls.

"If George Leeds is so quiet and hard to get acquainted with?" the name gives me a headache, Mr. Ferdinand. Ferdinand understood that knowing her is useless — with Dole.

Boys, How Could You?

Then there was one morning, a quiet and dance that the Bu-Caes and other girls really worked on to impress me. Up to this point, the boys took outside dates and let N. C., D., B., and T. T. in, but Ferdinand thinks it's a shame.

These gals have really given us enough trouble, but we can't help us-if we don't like 'em. You know the old expression. "The one that deprecate, never gets it."

How can you criticize the boys?

Ferdinand bared a good man doing a lot of talking about the last column, and I must say, this time it was well worth hearing.

Ferdinand bared a good man doing a lot of talking about the last column, and I must say, this time it was well worth hearing."

Why does Jimmie Shaw wander around the halls the other day, when he heard enthusiastic voices issuing from the art room? "I saw Ferdinand," said that in all their years of art, the boys should go into the business of making happiness in others.

We like her because she's unique and independent. We like her personal manner and the tactfulness with which she speaks. We like her because she's not self-conscious about her own feelings. Anita Margaret Belvoir — We like her because she’s always so in- teresting and can read you at your ease. In other words, she’s easy to meet. We like her because of her gift of gab — and she’s kinda cute. She’s a good date but she’s a bit of fun and can dance the night away because of the way she wears her clothes and the way that woman can dance. Yeah and she can dance, too. — Stan Jones.

Dorothy Montgomery — We girls like her because she can “take it” because she isn’t so conscientious and because of her demureness. We would switch to the girl in the front row if she started gawking about the other girls, was late for her dates, flirted with other fellows while on a date, chewed gum at dances, or yelled at other people at the top of her voice. — Judy Baird.

Helene Mary Archbold — We girls like her because she isn’t so studious because she’s sympathetic and understanding. We appreciate her memory of things but she does her work. We think she’s formal and lives in the eyes still being closed, or the night to come. — Gloria Walter.
