FEE WAIVER DEADLINE
INTERSESSION & SPRING 2012 SEMESTERS
DECEMBER 16, 2011
Human Resource Services / Benefits Administration

REMINDER:

- A new tuition fee waiver form for employees, spouses, and dependent children MUST be turned in for each semester requested.
- The tuition fee waiver can be used for Intersession, but the credits for Intersession and Spring 2012 semesters are combined towards the maximum allowable credit limit.
- Any tuition fee waiver forms received after the fee waiver deadline of December 16, 2011 will be assessed a $50 late fee.
- Remember that in order to use the dependent child fee waiver benefit, a dependent child must meet ALL THREE eligibility requirements which are: (1) is under age 26 as of the first day of the semester, (2) is unmarried, and (3) has lived with and been supported by the employee for at least half the year. The employee must also meet the following TWO eligibility requirements: (1) be a permanent Boise State employee who has completed at least five consecutive months of benefits-eligible service with the University and (2) is scheduled to work at least 20 hours per week.
- To avoid the late fee, you can submit a fee waiver form even if you are not enrolled in classes yet or if you are waitlisted, by filling out the form with your intended class schedule. Then, once your class schedule is finalized, all you will need to do is submit a revised fee waiver form.

Treat Yourself To A Massage

There is no better complement to a workout regiment than massage. Many people believe massage is simply for relaxation and stress reduction. While it is a great way to decompress, it is also beneficial in treating a wide range of conditions including muscle spasms, pain and soreness from injury and headaches. Don’t forget, they also make great gifts!
