Green Room Gossip

A hearty public "thank you" to the Boise Little Theatre which has established a Scholarship Fund for theatre arts students. BLT has opened its Tuesday night performances to students for only a dollar. This money is kept in a fund which will eventually result in a scholarship for a promising theatre student. Scholarship money is very limited in the performing arts areas which makes the Boise Little Theatre fund even more welcome.

Plans are already being made for the seventh annual Idaho Invitational Theatre Arts Festival. On January 22 the theatre arts department will host over 500 secondary school theatre students. This is the only event of its kind in Idaho. Proceeds from this festival are used to fund scholarships for freshman students.

The department is always eager to attract new patrons. If you have a friend or know of a newcomer to our area who would like to know more about our program, please drop us a line or call. If you belong to a social or civic group, the department would be glad to speak to them and show slides of our past productions. We are here to serve you and you can help us by letting others know about our shows.
