

Summary: Wolves in Idaho

Q. Idaho should restore wolves to the wilderness and roadless areas of Idaho.
Statewide Responses: 72% favor, 22% oppose, 6% no opinion. (1991)

Q. Should Idaho have wolves in the wilderness and central roadless areas of the State?
Statewide Responses: 46.7% favor (16.2% strong support; 30.5% somewhat support), 14.9% unsure, and 38.4% oppose (21.4% somewhat oppose; 17.0% strongly oppose). (1994)

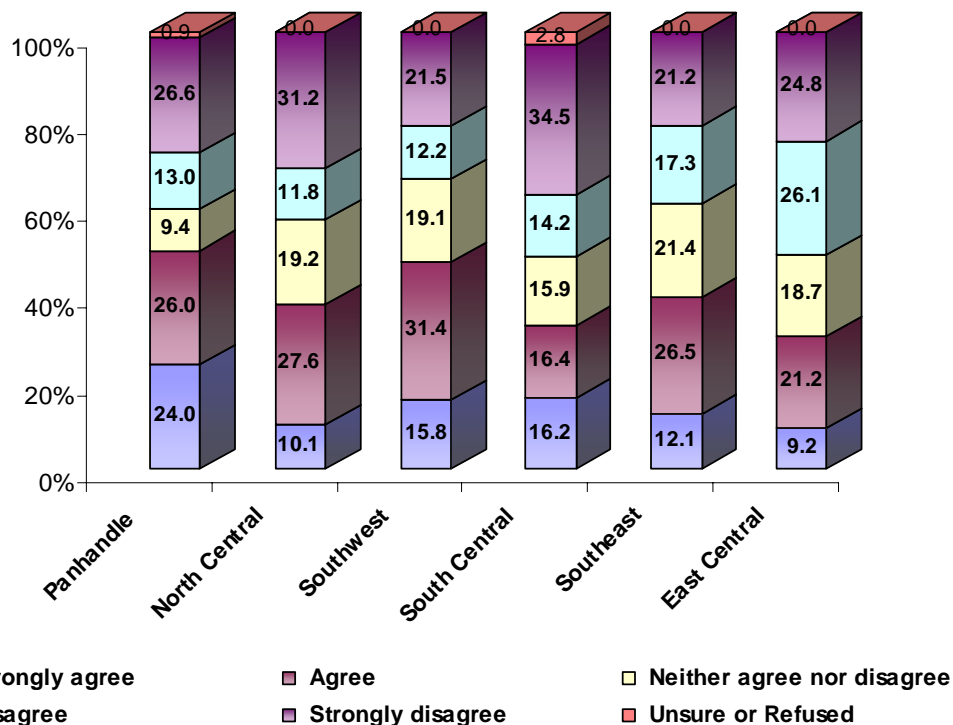

Q. Should Idaho have wolves in the wilderness and central roadless areas of the State?
 Statewide Responses: 42% favor; 18% unsure; 39% oppose.
 Regionally: Strongest opposition in the South Central and East Central areas of the state. (2002)

Q230 Wolves in ID
 Statewide Responses - 14th Annual - 2002

Q230 Wolves in ID Regional Responses - 14th Annual - 2002

Sources: 3rd, 6th, and 14th Annual Idaho Public Policy Surveys (Year of data collection/final report respectively: 1991-1992, 1994-1995, 2002-2003).