Roundup, December 5

Associated Students of Boise Junior College
Elective Officers Will Be Held Tuesday

Oyster Feed Held Tonight

An oyster feed will be the prime attraction of the N. Y. A. part of the home economics room of the Junior College tonight. The party will start at 7 p.m. and will probably break up about 10 o'clock.

This will be a really talkable talk by Dr. Haines, motion pictures, and dancing will make up the entertainment of the evening.

Max Hochtransier is in charge of arrangements, Jimmy Beal and France, foods; Betty Wallace and Herbert Higgins, confectionaries; and Harry Borup, cleaning and decorations.

Winter Term Offers Various New Courses

The winter term will bring a number of new courses and other subjects for students desiring a "new trend" in studies. Those who are considering the fundamental drawing and painting have for the winter term a standard foundation course and interior decoration for selection. Others on the list of new courses offered are: Systematic Botany, open to anyone having had one term of general botany; personal and business writing, office technique and management; Engineer's Drafting and Mechanics. These will be a beginning course in English composition, and a written test in English will be survey of American literature. Other new courses include: A History of Geography, History of Idaho and Pacific Northwest (open to those having one year of history of modern Europe and America), beginning botany, special preparatory anatomy and fish and games, forestry, silviculture, and soils.

All terms will be open to students even though this will be given December 10 to 12 inclusive. To make it clearly understood, voluntary examinations will be given in botany, geography, forestry, and soils.

F.T.A. Plans Celebration

The Future Teachers of America and the members of B. J. C.'s Forever's Club will meet tonight for their regular meeting at 8:30 p. m. in the Student Union Room. Jimmy Arrick and Harry Doherty are chairman of the affair, which is planned and supervised by the F. T. A., and will be the completion of the final term exams.

Ruby Turner, chairman of the entertainment committee, has plans for dancing, games and more than 3,000 children were sent to summer health camps.

All grades of the more than 170 B. J. C. students who have successfully completed the Civilian Pilot Training course and the required examinations are to be found in the Army Air Corps, Navy Air Corps, Royal Canadian Air Force, Pan American Airways, and many more are completing advanced courses.

John Knapp is flying for the Pan American Airways. Gerred Sherrill, Lloyd Wilson and Sherrill's also are enlisted in the R. C. A. F. Doherty has gone to the Navy for the U. S. Navy. Besides this, there are two thousand flying boys from Britain for Seattle to the east coast.

Valkyrie News

After victory the Valkyries will sponsor dancing classes in the Student Union room at noon on two days a week. These classes are designed for those who do not know how to dance, and is held by the Valkyries that they may watch the bulletin board for the exact time. Jean Huff and Martha Richmond will accompany the classes, and Jean Wink will be in charge assisted by four girls each day.

Valkyries are selling defense stamps to fill the defense stamp books they used as programs at their sport dance. They will be on sale later.

The club is planning to give two tuition scholarships for the next term to two girls, either freshmen or sophomores, who will be chosen on the basis of scholarship and worthiness.

For their Christmas activities the Valkyries are planning two baskets and a Christmas party for about 20 grade school children.

The traditional Valkyrie-better-collegiate Knights sport dance will probably be held some time after Christmas, according to Maxine Craven, Valkyrie president.

EASY TO FOLLOW--boogie woogie--the figure-making dance of the black and Indian type. It is a cross between the waltz and the Charleston. It is characterized by wide-gored skirts, for action. It is a dance that may be picked up in a very short time. The steps are simple, and the music jolly. It is loved by the "coke crowd."

--and it's easy to see why!

If England is to care for those children it is obvious that she must have help. The help that Americans give is appreciated not only by those in charge of the children, but also by the children themselves.

As yet no Boise Junior College organization has volunteered to sponsor this work. Anyone willing to help can get further information from Mrs. Burke in the president's office.

Oyster Feed Held Tonight

An oyster feed will be the prime attraction at the N.Y.A. party in the home economics room of the Junior College tonight. The party was postponed from last Thursday, and will probably break up about 10 o'clock. It is a probable talk by Dr. Haigman, motion pictures, and dancing will more entertain the evening of the entertainment.

Max Hochstrasser is in charge of general arrangements; Jimmy Ewing, well and France, foods; Betty Wallace and Herbert Higgins, decoration; and Harry Borup, cleanup.

When the student teacher conference was put into effect officially last spring, students were given the opportunity to choose the instructor with whom they desired to work. A student did not make any choice and were assigned to instructors by a committee of the faculty. Students returning this fall were retained on the list made in the spring, as the committee of students, signed to instructors with the understanding that should an opening occur, he would remain later for all students to make their own choice at their convenience. All individual schedules for the next term will be planned in conference with instructors.

C.P.T. Trainees Scattered Afar

By BOB REED

Out of the more than 170 B.J.C. students who have successfully completed the Civilian Pilot Training course representatives are to be found in the Army Air Corps, Naval Air Corps, Royal Canadian Air Force, Pan American Airways, and many more are completing advanced courses.

Johnny Pease and "Turk" Hareburger are second lieutenants in the Army Air Corps. Johnny Pease is the Boise pilot who parachuted to safety over the Sierra Nevada mountains. At present he is stationed at Randolph Field, Dayton. It has been reported that the Pease family is purchasing a farm in Nebraska.

John Knepper is flying for the Pan American Airways. George Holmes and Jerry Dobbert are enlisted in the H.C.A. C.P.T., and solfage is a part of the training at the Royal Air Force.

Alvin Lindsey is in training at Corpus Christi, a part of the training at Corpus Christi.

A bulletin board is a fine thing if the posters and announcements are read; but too often at B.C. I. posters and announcements go unread.

For the benefit of those students who neglect to read the bulletin, I am writing this editorial.

The Les Bois staff would appreciate the students of Boise Junior College spending a little time to read the bulletin board.

The price is one dollar and each student may pay the money to either the college or the fundiing agent for the yearbook this year.

Basketeers Will Open Cage Season at Nampa

By Jack Radtke

Coach "Butz" Allison and his Boise basketball journey to Nampa tonight to open their cage season against the strong Nampa College five. Backed by three weeks of thorough practice, the Jaycows seek to avenge last season's three losses in their five court battles.

Five of the Broncos top-notched hoopers will not see action because of being ineligible for this term's play. Two of these boys, Bob Clegg and Art Williamson, are newcomers to the Boise squad and were formerly under Allison at Baker, Oregon, high school.

Bert Hargreaves, one of J.C.'s top scorers of last season, will not be available until next term, nor will Emmett's all-state ace of two years ago, Tom Uberuaga. Darrell Parmenter, letterman and regular for the past two years, is not expected to play this season.

The Broncos will have, however, 10 men ready to go with the starting lineup up like this: Tom Collins and Harry Kendall, forwards; Frank Sandner doing center duties, with Jack Davis and Harry O'Neill tabbing the guard positions.

Allison has slated three games before the next term which will give him an opportunity to judge the present squad's actions under court fire. After the second semester starts the former Baker high school coach will be able to alter line-ups two teams as he sees fit.

The Bronco schedule now lists 28 court tussles and is complete with the exception of one series. If secured, this will give the Boise team plenty of action before the state A.A.U. tournament is held in the spring.

Jack Radtke
Given Award

Jack Radtke, Boise Pilot's lead-off man, and sport reporter for the Roundup, was awarded the Idaho-Utah Sport Writers' award for most valuable player in the entire Pioneer League. Radtke received the award this past week after scoring out several other players in the voting. A deadly switch-hitter at the plate, Jack batted well over .300 all season. His fielding average at second base well-nigh perfect. "Congratulations, Jack, from the Roundup.
