What’s In The Roundup

“She Said, May I Have a Date?”

―and I said “Yes!” So we went to the Vallylites’ pledge Kid Party. It was a girl-ask-boy affair and you can read all about it on page one.

So the Man Was Buried Alive

―and all because of his taphophobia. You can find all about taphophobia and plenty of other phobias too. Just look for “Can We Interest You in a Phobia?” on page one.

It Was Written By a Coward who used to be a poet, and who’s got a wild lady alley cat in clothes. It also seems they--and the book you will read will be reviewed on page two.

“Special This Week on Zoot Suits!”

B.U.C. vows to flock to “Zoot Suits” because it seems that they are interested in clothes. It also seems they are interested in certain men. You can read about such stuff in Gre’s Dirt on page two.

Money is Being Given Away

in cash and Pat Scannell is out this summer. If you want to get a job so that you can get some of this money, read “Summer Job Outlook In Best in Years” on page three.

“Stub” Is Whipping His Baseball Team

―into shape for an extensive baseball season. Read about it on page four.

“Midge” Priest And Her “Jim”

seem to be getting a certain girl whose name we will give you on request (it is Betty Brush) quite excited. And did you know that Coffin and Wilson rode a turtle back from Caldwell? You can read more about this in Gym Gossip on page four.

Down With the Constitution

―they said, but they meant—put it down on paper where all the students can read it. So we did and it might do some good if you gave it a look.

Future Teachers Begin Assignments

Beginning this week and continuing until April 27, sophomore classes in the Education department are carrying out their third teaching assignments in Boise and surrounding schools.

Girls now practice teaching Jean Arndt, grades 5-8 at Pleasant View; Betty Stanton, grades 1-4 at Pleasant View; Dorothy Davis, grades 2-8 at Blue Valley; Margaret Roush, grades 5-8 at Union; Anna Gorsa, grades 1-4 at Barber; Dorothy Deary, grades 5-8 at Morse; Ruby Schofield, grades 4-8 at Morse; Mary Wood, grades 4-6 at Utica; Betty Mathies, grades 1-4 at Utica; Margaret McGrath, grades 5-8 at Roosevelt; and Fay Cherry, grades 1-4 at Joint District No. 41.

Order Your Soph Pin

Duff Rosen, sophomore class president, urges all sophomores to order their class pins as soon as possible.

The pins are rectangular in shape and with guard the gold is priced at $4.50, and the pearl and gold one is priced at $7.00.

Pin may be ordered at the Gre Club office, between Ninth and Tenth on main street, and all class members are urged to order theirs at the earliest convenience.

A.U.W. To Sponsor Tea

The American Association of University Women will sponsor a benefit bridge tea April 11 at the new Boise Junior College student union building, Mrs. Richard B. MacDonald, general chairman, announced. The proceeds are to buy more furnishings for “The Corral.”

The public and members of all Boise bridge clubs are invited to make up tables at the bridge party.

The committee women are: Reservations, Miss Betty McKey; Chairman, Dorothy Pettitt, Winnifred Martin, Myra Christensen and Miss Mary Elizabeth Schmitz; decorations, Miss Edith Smith, chairman, Miss Martha Stockton; properties, Mrs. Kenneth Thomas, chairman, Miss Margaret Leonard; publicity and prizes, Mrs. Don Copple, chairman, Miss Velma McCarroll.

Stella Margaret Gorton will play during the tea and bridge hour, and Mary Van Devanter and Marge Lewis, also competed in the semi-finals.

Don Barry, one of B.J.C.’s new students, also competed in the semi-finals. He won a first rating and two second ratings in the bridge division.

This year’s students who represented B.J.C. at the Price, Utah, speech conference were Bethine Clark, Bill Hillman, Bob Davis, Don Barry, and Fred Livesay, adviser.

Can We Interest You In a Phobia?

It used to be that when a guy wanted to leave a place in a hurry he would say, “Come on, let’s scram.” Now he can say, “Come on, let’s scram. I’ve got claustrofobia and I need to get out of this place.”

It’s come to the place where most everybody can recognize and revel in his phobia. Practically any person can say to you, “Look, do you want to see my phobia?” and then dash off a symptom or two. This ability to recognize your own phobias has other fine features. Think of the drivel collected in “The Phobophile Society.”

If a person is afraid of being buried alive he just laughs and says, “I don’t have a phobia about that. I have a taphophobia rearing its ugly head.” And goes out and buried himself and gets himself scared.

But taphophobia does not by any means complete the phobia picture.

There is, for example, (Fr. par exemple) Gleeverphobia. A Gleeverphobe’s friends have guesed, though you probably didn’t, is in fear of bad public speaking.

The exact reason for this fear is not known. It is just barely possible that his mother was a bad teacher or that his dad did not make the right kind of dough. As it that as it may, a Gleeverphobe will not eat bread pudding. Sometimes he becomes so afraid he will not eat anything. This is called lassitude, a form of self-starvation.

If a person is afraid of being buried alive he just laughs and says, “I don’t have a phobia about that. I have a taphophobia rearing its ugly head.” And goes out and buried himself and gets himself scared.

But taphophobia does not by any means complete the phobia picture.

Kids’ Celebration At Party

Amid tear-otters, tatters, merry-go-rounds and other children’s playthings, Vallylites, pledges, alums and members, and their escort frisked into the gym for the Kid-Party Friday night in the B.J.C. assembly hall from 6 to 10 p.m. The affair was girl-ask-boy and was open.

Pledges furnished interna- tional entertainment: “The Wild Daisies” were C. T. Ridsden, Mr. and Mrs. Clarck Dayton; and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Nash.

Mr. Clark Hatch, and Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Nash.

Committees working on this first pledge dance include: General chairman, Beth Faits, program, Rose Marie Baker and Claribel Perry, chairman, Pat Sovell, Marie Faught, chairmen, Hurst Porter, Norma, Pat Ellsworth, and Rusty Budler; decorations, Miss Faught, Etta Turner, Norma Gilman, Bertha Clark, Margaret Schwartz, Edythe Noblely, Martha Richardson, and Ruth Budgely; patron’s and patronesses, Helen Hensm and Annett Bliss, art, chairman, Stella Margaret Gorton, Norma Kerseg, Horsie Kroeger, Shirley Brock, Eleanor Lewis, Norma Gilman, Bertha Clark, Margaret Schwartz, Edythe Noblely, Martha Richardson, and Ruth Budgely.

The play, which is under the direction of Mrs. Camille B. Powers, is a colorful comedy all the way. The plot centers around the gorgeous Espana (Mae Beaman), who is easily influenced by sentimental music and finds it impossible to say “No” to a good “line.”

New talent has been unfolded in Jean and Margarita and Bra- ssey, Brussey donates his baritone voice, while Regina plays on her accordian.

Ruby Amilagro, who has been the announcer, will fill the role of the heckling chorus.

Eugene Perkins and Roberta Valeau become the leads in the French play “Chez qu’est Eugene Femmette” (The One Who Can’t Say No). They are supported by Paul Chen, Betty Marley, Rose Marie Baker, Dorothy Underhill, Geraldine Ochenschin and Norma Gilman. Dr. Robert de Neufville is the director.

Committee for the French Club includes: Proprietors, Adare Baker, Anna Corah, and Don Welles; publicity, Margaret Schwartz, Shirley West, Betty Kenzie, and Eileen Kroger; committe, Norma Gilman, Alvin, Rhenes, and Shirley Kroger; scenery, con- struction, Clara crochet, Paul Underhill, Betty Kenzie, Mrs. Richard Bedford, Dick Metcalfe, Tom Brooks, and Alvin Rhenes; publicity, Pat Mcgraw, Rosemary Keenan, Anna Corah, Miss Krista Link, and Paul Underhill.

Committees for the French Club are: Sceney, Margaret Potter, Ruth Marie Curtis, stage, Tom Brooks; properties, Annette Stew- art; and publicity, Frances Hopkin.

Crash Injuries

B.J.C. freshman

Jack A. Wilson, 19-year-old B.U.C. sophomore student pilot, was critically injured and William M. Skinner, Jr., 24-year-old Civilian Pilot Training instructor, was moderately injured when their plane crashed in an attempted crosswind landing at Gowen Field Monday.

Police investigators investigating the crash destined to conclude that the young pilot took a gusty wind and an unlevied flight position had contrib- uted to the crash.

The two pilots were practicing for a solo flight. Bill Skinner was a graduate of the first C.P.T. program sponsored by Boise Junior College and had been instructing flying for more than a year for more than a half.

Coming Presentation Is Tenth in Series

By FOSTER CROXIE

Boise Junior College’s new Assembly Hall will see its first presentation of plays next Saturday night, April 11, as it becomes the site of the annual program of Romantic language plays.

Romanic language night was held 10 years ago in the library of St. Margaret’s Hall, the old assembly hall, and has since become a tradition with B.J.C.

Pat Scannell is again leading the roles in the Spanish play “Rosina es Fragil” which translates to “Rosina is Fragile.” The supporting cast includes Martin Munnus, Ruby Amilagro, Bartön Brussey, and Regina Garmendia.

Power Directs

The play, which is under the direction of Mrs. Camille B. Powers, is a colorful comedy all the way. The plot centers around the gorgeous Espana (Mae Beaman), who is easily influenced by sentimental music and finds it impossible to say “No” to a good “line.”

U.S. War Effort Makes Vacancies

By Ray Wagoner

With the going of the snow and the coming of spring, there is no doubt that the weather is improving. As a result, the employment situation is also improving. The war effort is making many jobs available. For those who are looking for a three-month job, the possibilities are somewhat narrowed. The obvious choice for those who are looking for work in a vocation that is available in the summer is the forestry and construction jobs. At Anderson Dam, which is being construction by Morrison-Knudsen Company of Boise, there is always a need for boys in almost any kind of work that they can do. They have places for carpenters, carpenters’ assistants, painters, machinists; in fact, they have a place for almost every thing from skilled professions to laborers. The chief difficulty with a job on this project is in the matter of room and board. Although the company provides bunkhouses and a mess table, the prices are very high and a large portion of your check goes out for living expenses. Then, too, the entire project is in a union basis. The best place to see about jobs on this project is the company office.

Mr. Robert Latimore, instructor of forestry, reports that the vari-of the various forestry projects have lost on the average of 75 per cent of their men, so there is undoubtedly many in this vocation. According to Mr. Latimore, these jobs are available in any part of the country, and you can feed yourselves for less than someone else will. These forestry jobs include anything from brush pil ing to actual office work. Mr. Latimore will be glad to aid any-ome who comes to him seeking advice on summer jobs in the fornguard department.

Jobs in the various business vocations are rather hard to find for as limited a period. The best bet on jobs like these is to check with the various employment agencies to whom all employers seeking part-time workers generally send their requests. According to Mr. Olson or the head of the business department at BSU, the wind of summer jobs for college students.

If anyone seeking a summer job wants a job in this area, he should make ready those comfortable Spring Suits, stroll out into Spring - knowing that you have made up your mind to attend their Junior College.

Dr. James Millar addressed the entire student body at the Capitol on Wednesday.

Vocations Week Ends With Talk By Dr. James Millar

"Whatcha studying to be—or have you made up your mind?" It was for the purpose of clarifying some of the aspects of your chosen profession and presenting some of the angles of different types of work that the Vocational Guidance Week was presented to the student body of B. J. C. this past week.

On Monday morning Dr. James Hollingsworth addressed those interested in medicine and then going into the various branches of medicine. Defense work was outlined for those interested Tuesday by Verne Hudelson, and Sam Diamond discussed on the various merits of business occupations Wednesday.

Dr. James Millar addressed the entire student body at the general assembly last Friday to bring the Vocational Week to a close.

Professor Dale Arvey was in charge of arrangements, and students could attend any of the talks by applying to their advisor for a signature to be signed by his own.

Red Cross Classes Opened to Students
Red Cross classes in first aid are being held at 7:00 p.m. in room 119. Classes will be for two hours on Mondays and Wednesdays for five weeks. The course will include 20 hours' work under instruction of Brown field men.

You Can't Eat It Now—But Later!

At the beginning of the second quarter, B. C. encountered a new project, the sale of defense stamps and bonds to the students and faculty members. Since January 6, 1,227,900 in stamps and $500.25 in bonds have been sold. The sales average between $17 and $25 a week, which is not considered very good by the committee for a school of this size.

Lack of sufficient sales of stamps can't be completely blamed on the fact that the students haven't much money, because there are lots of student playing poker, and buying ready and ok consider. A common subject of some of the students is "You can't eat a defense stamp," although some of the older people who participated in the last war say that a defense bond or two may come in handy as a meat ticket when the war is over.

This substance has never been positively identified as "Rapheodix", because we read that name in a book about Alaskan huskies and only put it in because it looks technical. The interesting thing is, however, that when this substance is subjected to intense heat it goes off with a loud bout (IPOOM). Last, but not least, there is the companion disease to Shinophobia. This disease is called Dementophobia, the fear of the Madman like Bismark. Bismaphobia and Dementeophobus always go together. It seems to us that people who have Dementophobia must be crazy. Imagine thinking you look like Bismark. Imagine even—Ohgawhew! We just thought of something. Poor Phobia (OOG). But we look in the mirror. Well, we'll be a son-of-a-guns. Remember resemble, see, but we do look like Bismark. By George, we ARE Bismark. Hya Bismark? How's the wife and the little Bismadness? Ha ha, a ha ha, ahaaaaaaaAH! BOOM! (IPOOM).

Allison Whips Baseball Team

Coach Billy Allison rapidly whipped a B. J. C. baseball team into line as 20 rookies reported to the first workout last Monday afternoon and prepared to meet Boise High's nine on the diamond at the Public School Field, Thursday, April 3, at 4:30 p.m.

"The first game was a practice workout," according to Coach Allison. "We won't know what the team's material and possibilities will be until some time after this first game.

The coach expressed satisfaction over the comparatively large turnout. He said that athletic funds are limited by him an extensive schedule.

The schedule as arranged is incomplete, but at the present date these games have been scheduled:

April 3—Boise High at Boise.
April 6—Nampa High at Nampa.
April 10—C. I. at Caldwell.
April 14—Nampa High at Boise.
April 15—C. I. at Caldwell.
April 24—C. I. at Boise.
April 28—Boise High at Boise.
May 5—C. I. at Boise.
