Green Room Gossip

Facts About Theatre At BSU

Mr. Del Corbett will act as guide on the theatre department's first London Theatre Tour. He and seventeen students and townspeople will spend three weeks in the theatre capital of the world attending plays, sightseeing, and conversing with noted British theatrical personalities. The group will visit such fabled theatres as Drury Lane, Covent Garden, and Haymarket as well as the new National Theatre. Boise's theatre buffs will be London bound on December 27 and will return January 17. Although this tour is completely booked, another London theatre experience will be available this summer. It will be six weeks in length and will include two weeks in a British acting school. For details of the summer tour, contact Mr. Corbett in care of the Department of Theatre Arts.

Plans for the seventh annual Idaho Invitational Theatre Arts Festival are almost complete. Possibly the largest event of this type, the festival will attract over five hundred secondary school thespians to our campus.
