Irish Doctor
Talks to Students

"Half the world is Irish and the other half wishes they were," Dr. Millar informed B. J. C. students at a special assembly program Tuesday evening. "You know Saint Patrick's Day in Ireland is the only day in the year that the men wear aprons!"

"The Irish are the most conservative of the British. They are also the most stubborn. They don't change a thing, and that's the way they like it."

When Dr. Millar was asked how Ireland could produce an enemy of the world, he answered, "The Irish are a very proud people, and they will not tolerate anyone else'seya say in their affairs."

Dr. Millar said that the South American countries are more likely to be trouble centers in the world. "In the future, you will see more trouble centered in Latin America than in Europe," he said. "The South Americans are a very proud people, and they will not tolerate anyone else'seya say in their affairs."

However, Dr. Millar said that the United States is the most likely country to have a war with another nation. "The United States is a very proud people, and they will not tolerate anyone else'seya say in their affairs."

Merry Christmas!

The long awaited Christmas vacation is already just around the corner, and we want to be exact. Have you noticed the faces of the co-eds and other foes? It is one of those and yet glad looks. But because exams are just around the corner, and glad, because vacation is too.

YOUR BJC reporter has been keeping his ear open to the question “What are your vacation plans?” Gathering up bits of gossip from here and there it has been found that a group of the students are doubtful as to just exactly what they are going to do, but one thing seems safe, lots of relaxing is in the offering.

Tommie Lou Vaughn is just going to work. She doesn’t know where or when, but she’ll be working.

Bob Gess says that unfortunately he will probably be working too.

Phil Baily is going to sell shoes at Whittle’s, for the good of his country.

Sherron Coffin is going to work. Work! Work!

Yvonne Ganten is going to be different. She is going to slave at her job.

Gloria Bull is going to go out to a farm for a week. We don’t know whether it is to see the farm or the farmer.

Lynne G. is going to focus all attention on a certain girl. He says she is real wonderful, and we agree with him.

Niel Roberts is going to go Christmas Caroling.

Quiz Kids Heyday

LOOM DEAD AHEAD

Arriving in all innocence at B. J. C. today, I expected it to be like any other day. However, the following series of incidents proved wrong.

As I entered the door, I noticed a group of students in the hall, talking and laughing among themselves. But ten seconds later they disbanded with dejected spirits, worried faces, and nervous twitches.

The cause of this seeming lay at the feet of a long-faced character, who joined the group, uttered a few mournful words, “What a kill joy he must be.”

As I made my way to my first class, I paused a friend in the hall, but there was no response to my efforts to call “Hi.” She didn’t seem to see or hear me; I had the feeling that her mind was focused on some forbidding eventualities.

Upon entering class, I didn’t find the expected gossip center—instead every girl was in her seat upon some reading material.

After class, I started down the stairs only to be run into by Ray Koll, stumbling under a burden of books. “Very unusual, yes, very,” I thought. He was closely followed by a trio of muttering girls—each absorbed in her own thoughts and musings.

I began to wonder if B. J. C. had turned into a mumbling and stumbling collection of individuals.

This situation is one of America’s coming generation of homecomers comes FIRST... because the building of the homes they will live in. Boise Payette is vitally interested in both.

The flying bug, Shirley Purcell has been badly bitten by it. Ray Koll flies during all the spare time he has. Opal Hughes has come up only once, but she is sold on the idea. Frances Gibson is going up, for Mr. Waterston’s sake. He wants to see her reaction.

Lots of the others would like to go up, but they can’t seem to find time or the fly. They just stand at the table and wish they were up there, too. Especially us next week. Can you think of any better way to get out of the bets than by going up in the air—literally?

Here I am surrounded by people, who only yesterday seemed very normal. Surely there is a logical explanation.

I tried to stop several students, begging them to tell me the reason for this violent change. Some paused off with looks of scorn and pity while others cast me looks of pity. But, at last—so called friend—broke the news, or should I say reminder. I, too, am now a member of the “so sad, so worried” brigade. Why, you want to know—well stupid—exams are coming up, remember?

THANK YOU NOTE:

Attention Miss Gerry Hertzing:

We, the Roundup Staff wish to thank you. You are the only person who answered our plea for material that could be used in our paper. We want to thank you for the joke books and for the spirit and interest which you contributed. We sincerely wish all the students in the same situation as us the best of luck and mediums, we wish to follow you example.

The Roundup Staff
The Associated Women are hard at work with many different projects. The council met on Monday, Dec. 4, and talked over the projects confronting them. The basket that is to be given to some needy family at Christmas time here in Boise is left to the charge of Elvira Chanev, who is working with the members of the A.W. to get together a worthy basketful of good food for the fortunate family. Every girl has been asked to be thinking about what she would like to contribute to the basket. If it is not possible for a girl to bring food she should leave 25 cents in Mrs. Burke's office. A definite interest is being shown towards this worthy cause.

Tommie Lu Vaughn is working in the store's style show as an assembly to be given sometime in January. This promises to be an entertaining as well as educational showing.

The council decided on the date for the military exercise to be held at the college. Due to so much activity being put into this last month, it was decided that Jan. 19 would be the most convenient time to have the exercise. Elvira Stevens has been put in charge of the entertainment for that evening. All the girls who signed up and were not invited to the exercise will be invited to this one.

The council also has plans for the various service clubs around town. The Red Cross will have a drive to help a needy family at Christmas time, and the Red Cross is left to the charge here in Boise. Wrappers By B. J. C.

Are you in the armed services? You aren't? Sorry, then the Red Cross Wrapping Service is not for you. The girls from BJC are going out to Greenfield every Sunday and wrapping the Christmas gifts of the boys out there. The paper and ribbon is furnished by the Red Cross and merchandises Boise.

The paper is particularly attractive and the ribbon in the best money can buy this year. The girls really look professional while they are finishing. They get the paper and ribbon at any time. Because of the shortage of paper and ribbon.

The girls that have been working on this project are Betty Jo Jackson, Jesse Leggat, I. A. Bel Jones, Jane King, Eileen Brewer, Maxine Cross, Ruth Bros, Elinor Wright, and Jean Barber. These girls are instructed by Mrs. Fair Weather. They serve every Sunday from 2:30 to 9:00. They work in shifts.

THE DANCE Before Christmas

The music department has many and varied plans for the Christmas vacation. It has announced that the girl's ensemble will do some extra work during the holiday season. Their unit concert was at the three one-act plays given at St. Michael's Cathedral Sunday, Dec. 19 at 4:00. The public is invited to this affair that promises to be one of the most beautiful of the Yuletide season.

The girls have been busy with their plans, too. Annabelle Speer, Glen­ nivva Clev, and a third member are to be selected, will sign at the "Hang­ ing on the Clear" dance which is held annually at the Y.M.C.A.

The music department also has plans for the various service clubs around town. The Red Cross has been put in charge of the entertainment for that evening. All the girls who signed up and were not invited to the exercise will be invited to this one.

Members of the ensemble are Hope Holiday, Glenniva Cliff, Judy Rose, Bonnie May, Annalee Cross, Eileen Edith, and Betty Kuchenbecker.

Duchess Chosen at Golden Plume Ball

A large crowd attended the Golden Plume Ball, which was held at the college Friday night. The dance is an annual affair which is sponsored by the Irving College orchestra and the Irving Collegiate Knights.

The theme of the dance was "Alma Young" Decorations were carried out in accordance with the I. K. colors of blue and gold.

The evening was held during the intermission included a dance by Evelyn Zamzow, songs by the Trio and piano selections by Carl Hill. Highlight of the evening was the presentation of Carol Peterson as duchess. Following this ceremony refreshments were served.

This Duchess was furnished by the Roy Howell orchestra and dancing lasted until 12:30. The traditional announcement of the duchess was witnessed by a full crowd at the Golden Plume ball. Lois Pollich proudly presented Carol Peterson as the knight's choice of duchess. Amidst the applause of the crown Carol accepted a bracelet, given to her as a token of the affair by the knight. Following this presentation she expressed her appreciation of the honor in a short ac­ tive speech.

Carol was graduated from New Meadows high school in 1942, where she was a member of her class. She has been attending B. J. C. for the past two years. Miss Peterson's escort was Ralph Feissier, who is an alumnus and Suits are coming with the tradi­ tionals and tweeders among the college crowd. Yvonne Martin is wearing her one white is adorned by a pair of silver wings. Shirley Purcell plays up to the planks and reds. Speaking of colors, Eileen Morris is lovely in pink and Elizabeth Taggs is well known in brown.

Juanita Montgomery has an ex­ citing red coat with a bright blue lining. For the cutest thing in shoes, notice Betty Kuchenbecker's darkeyed black wedges by "Joyce".

At the I. K. Ball, Gloria Bull was in white, while Louise Towne and Bonnie Jean Pigg were black. Duchess Carol Peterson wore a lovely blue taffeta.

W. A. A. Notes

Stunt night, which was Friday, Nov. 24, was proclaimed a success by its sponsors, members of the Women's Athletic association, even though the college was represented by only one male. The W. A. A. takes this opportunity in expressing thanks to Bob Bush, the only boy who participated, who was this lone male. He played the games with the girls. The girls were from H. 2, C, and the C. of I.

On this night the W. A. A. from the College of Idaho were entertained by the W. A. A. of Boise Junior College. They had a chilli supper in the Student Union, after which volleyball games were played in the gym. Mrs. Pellet freed the girls such a good supper, that they could hardly play volleyball.

Yvonne Martin was general chairman of the affair and Gail Coffin was in charge of the games.

Plan are underway for the W. A. A. to raise funds to buy each of its members sweats or sweaters of the same kind and color. It has not yet been decided just how the funds will be raised, but the girls have not had much trouble for lack of ideas.
