Home Economic Dept. Hears Speaker

Vocational opportunities for Home Economic majors are being surveyed. Speakers at this meeting brought up the meeting of several area homemakers to discuss the problems with them. Loans are available to farmers for farm improvements and home improvements in order to bring up their standard of living. These workers give advice on finances, budgets, planning, and organizing.

Merry Christmas!

The long awaited Christmas vacation is already just around the corner, and many students are starting to notice the faces of the co-eds and college boys. It is one of those rare and yet glad looks. And because exams are just around the corner, and glad, and because vacation is too.

Your RJC reporter has been keeping his ear open to the questions. "What are your vacation plans?" Gathering up bits of gossip from here and there it has been found that most of the students are anxious to just exactly what they are going to do, but one fact is for sure, lots of relaxing is in the offering. "Tommie Lou Vaughn is just going to work. She doesn't know where or when, but she'll be work-

Bob G SHAYS says that unfortunately he rvill probably be working too.

Phil Bailey is going to sell shoes at Whittick's, for the good of his country.

Sherry Coffin is going to work WORK WORK WORK WORK WORK. Yvonne Ritten is going to be different. She is going to slave at her job.

Gloria Bull is going to be out to farm for a week. We don't know whether it is to see the farm or the people.

Lynn Cox is going to focus all his attention on a certain girl. He says she is real wonderful, and we agree with him.

Delores Hockst ler is going to go to Christmas Caroling.

Where is our War Loan drive? Where are all the bonds we bought? Where is our nice, big quota we met? Where is the U. S. treasury banner flying on our flag pole? And you have no answer, do you?

Do you know what we're speaking of? Yes, it is the Sixth War Loan drive that B. J. C. didn't have, Remember? You have no excuse. The Minute Maids were there. At every assembly, they stood with their stamps and bonds ready to sell. Oh! you are busy. You are over worked. You have too much to do. Isn't that too bad?

Arriving in all innocence at St. J. C. today, I expected it to be like any other day. However, the following series of incidents proved wrong.

As I entered the door, I noticed a squad of students in the hall, joking and laughing among themselves, but ten seconds later they disappeared with dejected spirits, worried faces, and nervous twitchings. The cause of this discomposure lay at the feet of a long-faced character, who joined the group, uttered a few mournful words, and then departed. I thought, "What a kill joy he must be." But, you needn't worry, because usually it is one of the instructors showing a student how to do in case of emergency and what not to do in the same case.

The music department has many and varied plans for the Christmas vacation. Miss Victor has announced that the girls' ensemble will have a very full schedule during the holiday season. Their initial unit was well received and they play on one after another.

The council decided on the date for the military firefrie to be held at the college. Due to so much activity being put into this month, it was decided that this year it would be the most convenient date. Elliot Stevens has been put in charge of the entertainment for this evening. All the girls who signed up and were not invited to the military firefrie will be invited to this one.

The theme of the dance is to be "The Night Before Christmas." All the faculty is invited and activity tickets will admit the students.

This promises to be an entertainment as well as educational showing.

Stunt night, which was Friday,

by its sponsors, members of the Women's Athletic association, even though the college was represented by only one male. The W. A. A. takes this opportunity in expressing thanks to Bob Bush, the only boy who participated, who t

was lone male. He played the games with the girls. The girls were from B. J. C. and the

On this night the W. A. A. from the College of Idaho was entertained by the W. A. A. of Boise

Junior College. They had a chilli supper in the Student Union, after which volleyball games were played in the gym. Mrs. Poteet fed the girls such a good supper, that they could hardly play volleyball.

Yvonne Martin was general

chairman of the affair and Gail

Coffin was in charge of the games.

Plans are underway for the

W. A. A. to raise funds to buy

each of its members sweet shirts

or sweaters of the same kind and cided just how the funds will be raised, but the girls have not had much trouble for lack of ideas.
