Green Room Gossip

The Department of Theatre Arts is proud of its majors who participated in various summer theatre activities. BSU graduate Victoria Holloway was responsible for directing Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet" for Doug Copsey Productions. Many other former and current BSU theatre arts students also participated in the productions at Ray's Oasis Restaurant. Among them were: Patrick Cunningham, "Spike" Ericson, Deb Groves, Joel Farmer, Tracey Hollenbeck, Rebekah Oakes, Steve Marker, Ginger Scott, Jenny Sternling and Stacy Ericson Lucas. BSU's Jim Bottoms designed the sets for BSU Music Department's production of "West Side Story." Bruce and Carol Richardson joined Eric Bischoff in founding and operating a dinner theatre at 5-Mile Hall which employed many BSU actors and technicians. Bruce also served as stage director for the Boise Little Theater's production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "H.M.S. Pinafore." Melanie Yellen acted with the Black Hills Playhouse in South Dakota. Graduate Shellie Hardwood and senior Ellen Grunerud played summer theatre in the area and appeared at ISU in "Same Time, Next Year." Graduates Trish Eldredge and Elizabeth Streiff have been accepted into graduate acting programs in California and Florida.
