Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. J. C. Student Exhibits Works At Art Gallery

Throughout the month of January, the art works of Robert Addisson, Boise Junior College student, will be on display at the Boise Art Gallery. His pictures will be shown in two wings of the gallery.

Most of Addison's pictures deal with "Americans" or with scenes of the country of which he made sketches while he was in the service. This versatile young painter employs all the mediums of art.
Our Thinking Public

Once again we seem to be gravitating to that final stage of desperation where we hear ourselves asking you for your earnest cooperation in school affairs and encouraging the students to be cautious and helpful.

The time is nigh for class and club pictures to be taken for the Annual, a process fraught with difficulties even under ideal conditions, and greatly increased under the usual conditions prevailing on the campus.

As the Annual is only a permanent record of the school year, it is desirable of those in charge that a representative section be shown up for the scheduled pictures.

Another point in question concerns the meanings of various signs posted around campus and its buildings. We are told of one occupying a prominent position in the Student union. Due to the influx of students this term, bringing as it does a shortage of eating space in the union, this sign expresses desire to have need of keys to please refrain from doing so during the rush hours.

We weren't informed how long this sign has been hanging in view, but from observation gleaned while jockeying for a place to eat, we do know it hasn't been taken any too seriously. There is no indication but that the students in assisting them in every possible way in planning both student and social activities.

Horrors of Exams Told by Survivor

By Eugene Cudd

Last week some one hundred and over three hundred other B.J.C. students, assembled in the Auditorium with sharpened pencils and revolting thoughts of a sharp-fifty apprehensive freshmen, and used wits, to take the dreaded Psychology and English tests. We were assured that these tests would not only tell us of our about us, (heaven forbid!) but that they would enable us to know our own convictions, the customary time for eating.

As for the first of these, one never realized how much there was to know about the birds and the bees; after the math exam, one poor guy groaned that he had just worked himself back to the eighth grade. Science tests next, but it was doubtful if many of us felt social science was sounding out for lunch.

It was during the lunch period that the storms blew in. In the hall, the library and the Union, all kinds of comment about the tests. The majority told of one bewildered co-educator in seeking that of the Christian Martyrs. When asked why it was needed, she answered, "I haven't been able to figure that out yet, but..."

Victory Bell Tolls for C. of I.

College of Idaho Coyotes let their victory bell ring long and loud after the game with the Boise Junior College Broncos, topping off their season with the tenth straight victory. Wednesday's game gave them the lead in the Northwest Conference, the final score the Wednesday night game was 42-38.

In the first half of the game the Broncos showed some slick ball handling. They were smooth, in fact, all during the game these boys put up an effective battle, just wasn't their day. The Broncos took first scoring honors, jumping into the lead and at intermission the score was 21-13.

The Bell Tolls for Caldwell

It was during the second half that the Coyotes began to chalk up the baskets. They staged the second half that the Coyotes began to chalk up the baskets. They staged a terrific second half to beat the B.J.C. boys 42-38. The most outstanding of this performance was Tate at Center, Hillman at Forward, and Hamilton at Guards for the second half, the Coyotes took the lead and were never headed. Before the game was half over, Coach Jacoby had thrown in every man on his roster.

With all a few minutes left of the first half, Oaks sprained his ankle leaving the game with 4 points to his credit. At halftime, the score was 26 to 9.

Taking over the floor for the second half, Jacoby's boys ran up a respectable score. The highlight of the evening came when with a few minutes of playing time left, a complete change of the lineup was made. Not without some reserves, the coach sent all his men on to the show. The fun started when Hillman picked up two fouls which added to his other fouls for the morning made five fouls which forced him to leave the game. With the Jayvee's on the spot, they played an unorthodox type of defense and held their opponents to six points while knocking up two for themselves before the half ended.

Tate and Bujarin were high with 7 points each while Hamilton had 6. Box Score-Jayvees (Friday night)

Bravens Down N.N.C.

Revenge tasted sweet to the Boise Junior College Broncos as they downed the Northwest Nazarene College at Nampa, Monday night by a score of 26-24.

Coming in late in the game as substitute for Bob Pritchett, who had been the sparkplug of the Broncos, center Perry Winter made two quick field goals to see the game up. A close game all the way, the Broncos had a 23-23 lead at the end of the half. The Crusaders came back with a bang and the score was soon tied at 30-30. From then on it was anybody's game with the lead changing hands several times. Bob Pritchett captured scoring honors with six field goals and four free throws for a total of 16 points. Close behind were Cramer and Lee of the Crusaders with 14 and 12 points respectively.

This victory set the season's record at four wins and three losses for the Broncos.

SPOTLIGHT ON SPORTS

Next Monday, January 19, Coach Lyle Smith and his Broncos will tour to American Falls and Rexburg for their first real road trip. A bit better out of the Nazarene with a slight margin last Monday, Coach Smith is in far better spirits the Broncos have played this season and this reporter will type of the Women's Athletic Program of the Women's Athletic activities offered in the winter's physical education classes. Basketball, tumbling, badminton, modern dancing, bowling and swimming have proven to be popular girls.
