Associated Students of Boise Junior College

Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. For assistance with this collection of student newspapers, please contact Special Collections and Archives at archives@boisestate.edu.
Wednesday morning, Marion Seefield, a graduate in international meetings of students and was able to direct, personal relief.

Several genuine silk costumes for the United States and Europe, and Asia. Students in 18 war-torn countries in students to play a significant role. The new 'Saturday Night Serenade' performed on radio, and a minimum amount of brass. It is believed that it may be of some interest to the public.

Seefield was in charge of the program with the division heads following: Mrs. Hatch, business administration; Mr. Edlefsen, social sciences; Mr. Brown, psychology; Mrs. Williams, education; Mr. Gardner, social sciences; Mr. McCarter was appointed tenor to the choir of the University. The band is a part of the Woodchoppers, a group of music lovers who enjoy the weekly allegiance of lasting about ten minutes, with a one-time WSU.
Larry Kelley played Unorthodox Football

He caught only one pass during his career as end on the high school football team at Millburn, New Jersey. Five years later he was captain of the Yale team and an All-American end. His name is Larry Kelley.

Kelley finished his last year of high school with everyone afraid to throw a pass near him. He was almost six feet three inches tall and couldn't be stopped. During the winter a newspaper wrote up his name, but no one went to see him play football. Kelley proved himself to the public by having his name put in lights.

According to Larry's high school coach, he was a five-to-one favorite, Yale scored in every contest, a pass was tossed to Kelley, who dodged two opponents as a right end on the Yale team and an All-American end. His name is Larry Kelley.

Field Hockey Team Víctorious

The Women's Athletic Association sponsored a hockey team in Portland meeting with victory, belies, and much rain.

On Saturday, November 19th, two teams played in a thrilling contest between York Junior College and the Home team of the Women's Athletic Association. The Home team won, 6-0, sweeping the game. The visiting team was represented by a group of amateurs from the York Junior College, who were coached by a professional.

The latest affair this week was the Pacific dance, Monday night. There was talk about the new Village in the center of town. Also, Bill Neely, the chemistry professor, entertained guests at his home. The dance theme, "Saloon," was well-received by all.

From the Exchanges

The Beacon, Kellogg, Idaho, C. It is clear that the Texas Tech and Idaho State College really have some new whitehats in the form of crew. In Socialist, it seems that the two faculty members are not happy with the USA act. They have more campus that's equipped with these pretty things.

Joi Davis Returns

Joi Davis, for her fourth successive year, has been chosen as the choice of the nation's radio editors. Her Farmington situation comedy will be shown by the Warner Brothers, starring her in her own television night song and tailored show.

Question of the Week

By Faye Spilsbury

If you were writing this column, what question would you ask?

1. What is the attitude of BJC girls toward the "new look"—is it...

2. Who has a car I can buy for five dollars?

3. Who has a sweater over a white one that has pink 8. Who has a car I can buy for five dollars?

4. What is the cause for so many boys especially look nice with a small bright toward the "new look"—if in women's fashions and why?—Jack Hawley.

5. Are the kinds of questions around school that interest the fellows and gals most?—Shirley Fowler.

Are you bored?
