It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. OPEN LETTER TO FRESHMAN GIRLS

Dear Students,

You have received several letters during the year, which it seems to be a custom of letter writers to do. I am writing to you to suggest some advice.

The Valkyries are a girls' organization of the Boise Junior College. They are rather popular, if all in the school, and taken in direction and as the committee was well on its way, encouraged by the student body, faculty, and some organization of the Boise Junior College. They have been received with the Red Cross drive and the contributions that they have had from the football games.

These are just some of the activities which the Valkyries are asked to undertake, so it is evident why there is so much participation in them. They have found in the course of their investigation that they would be able to engage in as many hours a day as they would like to.

The Valkyries are presented in the course of their investigation in the course of their investigation with the help of their advisor, Mr. Ritter and Mr. Chatburn. They are well on their way in the course of their investigation and they are one of the leading figures in the course of their investigation.

Yours truly,

B. C. Johnson

Drs. Rosen Speaks At Assembly

Dr. Rosen, who has been a regular guest at the Boise Junior College, was back on campus this week, as usual. He was invited to speak at the annual assembly of the university's students.

Dr. Rosen graduated from the University of Idaho with a degree in the music field. In 1916, he came to America where he was to become one of our greatest conductors. His student was a music major, who later went to Russia. He was the founder of the music department at the college, as Director of the Boise Civic Chorus, as Organist and Choir Director of St. Mark's Church, and he held his position at the college for many years, during which time he contributed to the success of the music program.

Dr. Rosen related that many years ago in Russia there was a great music school, which was dominated by a conductor, and the famous music school at the beginning of the twentieth century was dominated by such a conductor. In the course of his career, he made the school of music into the world-famous institution that it is today.

The differences between the two programs could not be more striking in any way that the Valkyries could influence their participation at any future recitals.

Yours truly,

A. Valkyrie

B. J. Cronin Music Honored

C. Griffiths, head of the music department, has been named as one of the officers of himself, he has been awarded the rank of Brigadier General of the music program. Mr. Britz has been honored for his work as a conductor, as well as for his efforts in the course of his career.

The Valkyries are also pleased to announce the appointment of Miss Mathews as the head of the music program. She has been a member of the Valkyries for many years, and her service to the college has been invaluable.

Yours truly,

B. J. Cronin
THERE MUST BE A REASON

by Leo Compion

Maybe its the fact that Mid-term exams are next week and me and the journalism faculty are not the people you want to see. So the students that do the school's work like mine don't feel like being present.

Trophies—but No Case

A ski trophy has been awarded to Stan Tomlinson, a student of the English Department and the Boise Junior College basketball team. The trophy was a three-pound trophy in the Student Union.

TROPHIES BUT NO CASE

B.J.C. ORCHESTRA TO GIVE CONCERT

The Boise Junior College-Community Symphony Orchestra will give a concert on February 11. The orchestra is expected to be comprised of veterans and their families.

LIFE IS A PROTRACTED DISEASE

One afternoon a big wolf in a dark forest met a little girl carrying a basket of food. "Are you carrying that basket in your grandmother's house?" asked the wolf. "No, she was so tired from the hunt that she couldn't make it to her grandmother's house," answered the little girl. "Then you and your grandmother are dead," said the wolf.

The little girl looked at the wolf and said, "No, I can't make it to my grandmother's house, but I can see her."

Gals and guys are planning a dance, but no one has decided whether to go to the dance or stay home.

Rabbi Fineberg's Address Summarized

Rabbi Howard L. Fineberg made an outstanding contribution to the Sociology and Philosophy classes this past week. Among the various subjects he discussed were "The Congregation Is a Sociological Unit" and "What Can a Morose Jew Do?". At Assembly on Tuesday morning, his subject was "Religious Foundations For a Better Society". In this talk the Rabbi emphasized the fact that the aspiration of religious principle is in the final analysis the realistic approach to all problems.

Dr Fineberg, in his address to the social studies class at 10:30 on Thursday, chose for his unique theme "The Congregation as a Sociological Unit." The basic sociological group in the family test the list is almost impossible to establish. Economic units, law, social or intellectual are sociological groups, nations and their subdivisions, i.e. citizens, social classes and ethnic groups.

Through The Keyhole

By BARKIE

Plants are looming for the Sweetheart Ball and the current topic of conversation around school gossips are things like this: "Say Mohrboch's gonna ask to the dance?"

"I haven't asked yet, but maybe I should ask Tom."

"Oh, ya, wouldn't you, data, you know been gonna ask him, only I couldn't get up and explain it."

"Well, I certainly won't ask Dick. He says he's too shy."

"I wouldn't be caught dead asking Bob."

"(etc. etc. etc.)"

But serially girls, it's time to start thinking about it, and you must firmly walk up to the man of your dreams and mumble into his ear: "I... u... e... what did you say to the French assignment yet?"

In order to promote friendship and fellowship among the weary and worried students who are defeated by the strain of a five day week at BJC Bill Rame has proposed the "Thank God it's Friday Club".

Little Willie

Willie protected father's tea; his brother is asleep. Mother came, and looked quite revolted. "Really, Willie," she said, "What next?"

Willie fell down the elevator.

"Don't tell me either," said Little Willie.

No one else was there.

"Then the neighbors snifled. "Gee, what the deuce happened to Willie?"

Willie as he entered the room: "I promise you, I am nobody."

Forbod by the disturbance caused by fellow students, Wally Walker pursued his perusal of page after page of economy and growth, "Must of! I almost had a complete thought."

Not far behind No. 1 was No. 10. That's right, a little sweet and lovely song; you have guessed it. Well, you probably try in a little: "HOW HIGH, MOTHER made tops by these people— Bing Crosby, Vaughn Monroe and Jack Owens. So you take your pick of the three and I know you'll find the number."

Now comes the biggest surprise! No. 2 on this week's parade is—

"I'M GONNA GET A GIRL, made pop by two great bands—Tony Pastor and Larry Green. Both these boys certainly do a swell job on this number. Just for the heck of it I think I'll tell you what the up and coming record i'll give you three big guesses—"

By FAIE SPIELBURY

This week with eye wide open, I wandered through the halls of BJC past the usual afternoon crowd. I was surprised at how many novelties were on display there and here as I saw them flash by.

A fine trio of girls clad in ski suits almost alike passed by. They were none other than Ann Ashley, Edith Ellman and Dorothy McFann finishing up classes in the morning and strolling down the afternoon. Their jackets were black and red with navy piping and ski pants of blue or white. Junior High students Chuck Graham has a striking ski outfit, which consists of navy blue ski pants and bright red jacket. Girls aren't the only ones who come into our attention. We were very much taken with some very fine looking commuter jackets on the male part of the campus. Captain Galen has a purple canvas jacket that looks very nice. Freddy A. Bill Rosen and John Geyer have been spotted some nice ones too. A wine colored one is worn by Jerome Bader and he wears brown and white checked pants just to make that outfit better. There is a pretty flashy pair of checked trousers too and to dull the bright effect, wears a tan pull over sweater."
