Roundup, October 22

Associated Students of Boise Junior College

Although this file was scanned from the highest-quality microfilm held by Boise State University, it reveals the limitations of the source microfilm. It is possible to perform a text search of much of this material; however, there are sections where the source microfilm was too faint or unreadable to allow for text scanning. For assistance with this collection of student newspapers, please contact Special Collections and Archives at archives@boisestate.edu.
Lexene Sproat Gets Roundup Editor Post

Lexene Sproat has been appointed editor of the Roundup for the fall year, according to announcement by Mrs. Helen Farrer, drama director, and Miss Helen Maskin, editor of the Roundup for the last semester of fall, before graduation this spring. She was a member of Quill and Rorabaugh journalism group.

The play will take place in Spain, in a convent of Dominican Nuns. The spirit of the Nuns is the central theme of the play. The modern and traditional Nuns are portrayed, which the typical student, who is interested in the Nuns, can draw from and discuss. A number of students are present, who have studied in Spain, and have seen the Nuns in action.

The play will be presented on October 29th, at 8:00 p.m., in the Student Union. The cast includes the following students:
- Gregorio Siena, as Conception, a young and attractive Nun.
- Elizabeth Madsen, as Sister Anna of the Cross, a kind and gentle Nun.
- John Worth Wine, as Brother John, a helpful and dedicated Brother.
- Bill Proctor, as Brother Mark, a humorous and cheerful Brother.
- Steve Belko, as Brother Steve, a strong and determined Brother.
- Jerry Agee, as Brother Jerry, a quiet and thoughtful Brother.
- Mary Hostetler, as Sister Joanna of the Cross, a strong and determined Sister.
- Betty Bryant, as Sister Betty, a kind and gentle Sister.
- Paul M. Massick, as Brother Paul, a humorous and cheerful Brother.
- Joan Wahle, as Sister Joan, a kind and gentle Sister.
- Jameson, as Brother James, a helpful and dedicated Brother.
- George Holt, as Brother George, a strong and determined Brother.
- John Breckenridge, as Brother John, a quiet and thoughtful Brother.
- Suzanne Craven and Larry Sandmeyer, as two students, who are interested in the play.

Homecoming Tops BJC Activities As Big Day Nears

Plans for the gala Homecoming activities are nearing completion. Bill Jameson and Rosita Alpari, on-campus announcers, have been selected to announce the events.

The activities will begin under cloudy skies, October 29, when the homecoming celebration begins. The student body president, John Jameson, will address the gathering of fans. After the rally every event will continue to the student union where the intercollegiate knight band playing the last song will denote the event as over.

Come Saturday and the Orange and Blue wave is beginning to gain momentum. At noon the initial events will gather at the capital building for preparatory lining. All fans are welcome to attend. Individuals wishing to enter a float or participate in any manner in the parade must have their float in place by 2:00 p.m. The announcement of the parade will be made.

The Vandal Frosh, coached by Steve Belko, worked out impressively last evening under the lights of BJC field and promted the Vandal Frosh to the attention of Boise State Agricultural College Frosh, impressively, and hold a decisive trim over the four-year-old Vikings from Idaho State College.

The Vandal Frosh have played only two games and have dropped them both; 1-147 points. They lost to the Vikings on Friday night, October 29, with a score of 0-147.

In previous games the Broncos have come out of the locker room with a powerful gang of Boise Junior college Broncos-unbeaten this year and promise a stiff test for the battle of the year. The Bronco team will be the first team to be defeated by the Broncos.

Seven freshmen have scored for the Broncos, the Anti-Broncos of Idaho State College. The Anti-Broncos have had seven points scored for them by the Broncos.

The first encounter of the two teams came in 1938 at Homecoming time, with the Broncos winning a close game, 7-6. The Broncos have won the last two contests of the season, 7-6 and 6-7.

In previous games the Broncos have been facing the Anti-Broncos of Idaho State College. The Anti-Broncos have lost seven games in a row, and the Broncos have won the last two games.

The Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Anti-Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.

In previous games the Anti-Broncos have scored seven points in the last two games, and the Broncos have scored six points in the last two games.
HOMECOMING
Ya know what? We've got a darn good football team! Ya know why? I think it's because we're smarter than the other teams. How else could we have had a 'well balanced variety that any school would be proud to claim.

A brand new dayum,e vocational course is now in its second year here at BJC. The Life Science Dept. skeleton is playing bridge at the Union the astounding success on record.

In the bag. Are they itching yet, boys? Did you say, cutting their hands on glass rods in the lab? Doesn't stop 'em.

The Bill Shooey - Jean Nelson - Tom Mullis are to open, especially on October 30. It's only in the play "CRADLE SONG." Nellie: "When his mustache is on his chin?"

If you Don't Feel So Hot, It Really Doesn't Matter if He Has a Cold.

You can answer no to the above mentioned questions you are normally healthy and have nothing whatever to worry about. Careful observations you all.

How are you studying? Have you set the cogs of progress, and the astounding success on record.

Here's something else for each person reading this to take so hungrily. On this last day of work, time and patience to be spent in preparing for the Homecoming celebration, and in just such a way as to show how much you really mean to the other fellow.

CAMPUS CUTIES: Dick Black: "I've a friend I'd like to see so much.

Athletic girl: "What can I do for you?"

Don: "How much money have you got?"

Librarian: "What does he read?"

Selfish girl: "What's his faith?"

A BJC coach: "Who are you?"

Eugene Lyle: "Would you consider me your boyfriend?"

RoseLou Pallion: "No, but I think it would be desirable out of place.""}

Worn out. Nobody ask Juanita Richards why she calls Lany Trimble "Captain Perry."

What's your group the of BJC are to open, especially on October 30. It's only in the play "CRADLE SONG."

A greenhaired young man in the Chemistry departmen... Because of this all the fellows in the Chemistry departmen... on the grounds just to the building are completly closed.

But then you say: "What happened?"

Beating that are members of the Chem. II class are to open, especially on October 30. It's only in the play "CRADLE SONG."

You can answer no to the above mentioned questions you are normally healthy and have nothing whatever to worry about. Careful observations you all.

Are they itching yet, boys? Did you say, cutting their hands on glass rods in the lab? Doesn't stop 'em.

Beating that are members of the Chem. II class are to open, especially on October 30. It's only in the play "CRADLE SONG."

You can answer no to the above mentioned questions you are normally healthy and have nothing whatever to worry about. Careful observations you all.

How are you studying? Have you set the cogs of progress, and the astounding success on record.

Here's something else for each person reading this to take so hungrily. On this last day of work, time and patience to be spent in preparing for the Homecoming celebration, and in just such a way as to show how much you really mean to the other fellow.

CAMPUS CUTIES: Dick Black: "I've a friend I'd like to see so much.

Athletic girl: "What can I do for you?"

Don: "How much money have you got?"

Librarian: "What does he read?"

Selfish girl: "What's his faith?"

A BJC coach: "Who are you?"

Eugene Lyle: "Would you consider me your boyfriend?"

RoseLou Pallion: "No, but I think it would be desirable out of place.""
Bob Mays Competes
For Soph Prexy
On Vandal Campus
Bob Mays, former BJC student and recent football star, is the framates' candidate for president of the student body at the University of Idaho this year. His opponent is Vernon Rahn, a student who is sponsored by the independent students at the college.

There are many other former Boise State students who are campaigning for various class offices. The school election is scheduled for October 27.

BJC Students Rally
In Honor of Team
After Weber Victory

Boise Junior college students—those of them—took about ten minutes from classroom activities Monday morning as they staged a pep rally on the steps of the college Administration building.

Occasion was the welcoming home of the victorious BJC football team which defeated Weber college 120 to 0 at Ogden last Thursday night.

Chers were led by leaders Eugene
Liles, Dick Black and Gaynor Darrien, with music by the school pep band.

Coach Lyn Smith spoke briefly on behalf of the team.

SALE!!

USED SKIS $2.00 to $9.95 A PAIR
USED SKI BOOTS $2.00 to $5.00 A PAIR
USED SKIS With BINDING $7.50 to $10.00 A PAIR
(Same Metal Edged)

Sib Klaflch

818 Jefferson

Iodo’s Favorite Sport Spot

Phone 3877

Addrs Refreshment
To Every Occasion.

The Funne That Refreshes

Coca-Cola

“Coke”

5¢

Ask for it either way... both trade-marks mean the same thing.

ROSTER UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY INLAND COCA-COLA BOTTLING CO.
© 1949. The Coca-Cola Company

Jean Hammer

BJC Spanish Club

Newly elected officers of the Spanish
Club, which met at the home of Miss Carmelia B. Power, sponsor, last Wednesday evening, are: Jean Hammer, president; Charles Griffin, vice president; Rosita Alegria, secretary, and Dana Pellegren, treasurer.

Rosita Alegria spoke on her trip to Mexico during the summer vacation and also showed colored movies and souvenirs.

Also the members heard Spanish songs and chose a theme song for the club. They also sang in Spanish.

Gallegos Law provided refreshments.

Meetings will be held the first Wednesday of every month. The next meeting will be at the Student Union.

Jean Hammer

BJC Spanish Club

Highlights at Weber

A student committee came to be-ministered at its first meeting that all students will attend prior to games.
The committee met Wednesday. The next meeting will be at the Student Union.

The committee chose a theme song for the night. "Let's go to the shopning center" will be the song for the night.

While the students were being sung in music, they were being sung to music.

Carla Jo and Jack Upton

Nubia's former

Dye Works

919 Idaho St.

44

RECENTLY CLEANSER

Dye Work's

Always Kind to

Your Clothes

CONVENIENTLY LOCATED

Cash & Carry - Pick-up & Delivery

E 440

600

BOISE CLEANERS

ADDI'S

Sports Shorts

By AEGE AND SPONSOR

SPORT SHORTS

May 21, 1948

BJC Roundup

Page 3
