Roundup, February 4

Associated Students of Boise Junior College
The performance of the 1949 BJC to Boogie show captured the attention of the campus crowd with a great amount of talent displayed. Every number of the first half and the second hour show was well received.

The show began with an invitation to BJC to Boogie. The initial section was immediately by the BJC Cappella choir, who sang three numbers: "Prize God, The Lord" by John Gilbon, "I'm Getting Ready for the Double Choir" by Frank Carlton, and "Wrestle and Pray" by Phyllis Quacy and Rheta Ann 1. by C. Griffin Brotti of the Boise Junior College.

The second section of the classical section was begun by an "Invitation To The Dance" done by the pupils of Lloyd Curleton, DeNice Elders then played a violin solo, "Romance" by Winielski. "Si Mi Chiang Mano Misa" from La Boheme was sung by the voice of Lloyd Curleton, Monday evening the vocal solo will be "Goody" by J. P. Toad sung by Suzanne Craven. A piano solo by Bob, "Prelime and Fugue" in B Flat Major, was played by Phyllis Quacy, Friday evening the piano solo will be "Captiocto" Op. 116. No. 1 by Brahmas played by Mr. Carroll Meyer, instructor of music at the college. The list number was "Alligoo From Quartet No. 3" by Haas, played by the string quartet, DeNice Elders, Mary Jane Holmes, Robert Wood, and John E. Best, faculty.

When the curtain went up for the modern section the scene was supposedly the BJC Student Union where an audience, Mr. Merle Carpenter, and a television cameraman, John Gilbon, were getting ready for a big scene. The king and queen of peas were looking over the decorations, as was announced by Ellyn Johnston, decoration chairman.

There will be a potluck dinner in the Union at 6:30 P.M. followed by a short musical program. The problem will be opened into the Chinese Province. "A Shoe Boat to China" will be the theme for the decorations, as was announced by Ellyn Johnston, decoration chairman.

There will be a potluck dinner in the Union at 6:30 P.M. followed by a short musical program. The problem will be opened into a motion picture discussion with Dr. Baker as coordinator. The discussion will be a potluck dinner in the Union at 6:30 P.M.

All International Club members are asked to attend at this time, as the beginning of a series of discussions in which the club will be asked to participate.

The fellows in the balcony at the basketball games work harder than the fellows on the floor. But then they ever get tired.

I heard that Gertie got flirty with Poxle Pete. They never kissed, they married, but they were discreet. They couldn't sleep on the slopes. What did they do? Buy a Les Bois and find out!!!
It's Your Own Fault!

Too many of BJC's students are used to having their work done for them. They can't seem to realize that a college even a small one isn't like a high school. They talk and talk about how they are being treated like little high school kids. In high school everything is arranged for them or to their satisfaction without any output of work on their part. (The work being referred to is school projects, extracurricular activities, and school sponsored fun.) In college they are expected to do some of the work themselves. If they don't do it for themselves someone does it for them and it is just like a high school.

There are always a few students who are interested enough to do the work that should be done by the student body as a whole. When these students don't do enough by themselves they are condemned for not doing their part.

Every plan and idea thought up to help the student in some way needs the cooperation of the student to make it work. There are many such activities going on in the school now but few seem to care what happens to them. With a thing for someone if the person who will benefit does not enough in the school to do the work that should be done.

A student body attitude like that the few who are trying to operate? With a thing for someone if the person who will benefit does not enough in the school to do the work that should be done.

a Good Gripe!

You have to stick your neck out once in a while and write an editorial and plan an activity to jump down somebody's throat when they need it.

Anyone who attended the home game with the NNC will agree that there was editorial inspiration. Inspiration in the form of a few jokers who started a Good Gripe!

There are some people Wholeave never had a Good Gripe before.

It makes you thin, it makes you lean.

Freshman Class To Vote Thursday On Constitution

Until now one of the largest organizations on the campus has been without a constitution. The officers of the freshman class have now drawn up a constitution for the organization of the entire freshman class.

The class will be able to vote on this new constitution all day Thursday. If the majority vote in favor of the constitution the freshman class officers will have the power to organize campus clubs.

One of the clubs under consideration is a men's organization on an equal level with the Associated Women. All men in school would be eligible to join.

Copies of the constitution will be available before the balloting.

Boiseans After Revenge Tonite In Second Tilt

RECKSBERG (Special to the Roundup)—A battling gang of Vikings from Ricks college pulled an upset basketball victory out of the bag last night when they trounced the invading Boise Junior college Broncs 61-42 on the Ricks court.

The two teams will meet again tonight.

Boise still holds the lead in Intermountain Conference northern division play, but Ricks will take over the balance if it repeats with another win over the Broncs tonight.

Allen Hubinger, Boise center, made the first two points of the game with two charity tosses. But Ricks came right back and tied the score at 2, 4, 6 and 8.

After Denver, Ricks’ star forward, Glen Dalling, put the Vikings ahead with a field goal and they stayed ahead the rest of the way, by a point advantage through the first half.

The half ended 32-27 for Ricks.

After the rest Ricks clicked in 33 to 2 for a 55-29 lead at the end of the third quarter.

The NNC star Johnny Cramer had a hard time both nights slipping his few points past Ray Coley and Joe Dietrich.

The second game held at Nampa was an even more decisive win for the Broncs, who jumped into a six point lead almost immediately and increased it to a 23-11 score at the half. The score was never closer than the 31-21 in the third quarter. With the final tally 53-33 in favor of the battling Broncos.

The forgotten men who give their time to hold up well with the unbeatable spirit which is always to be expected of NNC musicians put on at the half-time arrangements and lots of talent entertained the audience.

Boise made the first two points of the game and Ricks put the Vikings ahead with a field goal and they stayed ahead the rest of the way.

The game was a record of four wins and three losses in the northern division of the Inter- mountaine Conference. Boise has six wins and three losses.

Out of the Bronco’s Mouth

By DICK NELSON

Since the printing of this paper BJC’s basketball team has come a long way. Allison lost two to the tiny five from Boise. Then an over-confident crew from NNC came over and to their astonishment lost one to the tune of four points, and on the following day BJC motored to Nampa and added injury to insult with a defeat of 33 to 10. However, the thriller of them all did not have such a happy ending.

Though Boise fans saw the C of 1 nose out the favorite sons 69 to 62 they went home satisfied that they had won one of the finest contests ever witnessed in these parts. The forty minutes of mad tussel saw Boise ahead with a field goal and came over and to their astonishment lost one to the tune of four points, and on the following day BJC motored to Nampa and added injury to insult with a defeat of 33 to 10. However, the thriller of them all did not have such a happy ending.

A little item that beckons to be mentioned though not especially in the sport category is, the fine performance that a handfull of NNC musicians put on at the halftime of their game at Boise, with odd arrangements and lots of talent they made the halftime rest period go by shorter than we believed possible.

The BJC Broncos headed two resounding defeats to the NNC Crushers in the two game tournament last Friday and Saturday night. The first game, held Friday night in the BHS gym was a heated contest one, however, when the final buzzer sounded BJC was on the long end of the 48 to 44 score.
