The 1987 Summer Showcase

Some Enchanted Evening: The Songs of Rodgers and Hammerstein

A musical celebration of the best from Rodgers and Hammerstein. The songs that have become part of our lives are sung and danced by five outstanding performers.

June 17-20 and June 24-27

Greater Tuna by Jaston Williams, Joe Sears and Ed Howard

A hilarious look at the small town of Tuna, Texas, as presented by two actors. The play, a long running Off-Broadway hit, has 20 characters in it, and through the actors' tour de farce of quick change artistry, both of costumes and comic characterizations, the audience is treated to a delightful evening of hilarious fun.

July 8-11

Little Mary Sunshine by Rick Besoyan

A successful Off-Broadway musical that is a spoof of the old-time operettas (i.e., Rose Marie, Naughty Marietta). There are 24 songs in all, including huge chorus numbers, schmaltzy waltzes, lilting duets—all kidding and all in fun. The story is a little bit of everything: Colorado Rangers, a stalwart Captain, a lovely Mary, a chorus of schoolgirls and, of course, a villain. A loving, enjoyable, fun lampoon of a charming and bygone art form—the operetta.

July 15-18 and July 22-25

Each of the performances will be in Stage II of the Morrison Center at 8:15 p.m.
Tickets may be purchased through Select-A-Seat Outlets ($5.00).
