Preparation for an Annual "Day of Action"

The first mixer dance of the year was given for the Associated Women Students Thursday, September 21, in the Student Union. Nearly two hundred students and faculty members were invited to attend this mixer, each girl had a big sister who helped her get acquainted with the sisters. Business was also on hand to greet the newcomers.

The festivities were of an autumn theme, and coffee, tea, and a Viennese waltz were enjoyed. The Maudness Ernest Bedford, Gene Steinauer, Eugene Chaffee, Corin Matthews, Lucille Foster, Arthur Cramer, C. J. Hersey, and Miss Helen Meier announced the annual mixer on the dummy and contract. Oscar Worthington, Vice President, announced the Les Bois football squad for the season. The opposition that day was the Bronco. The following students were in attendance:

Dr. J. B. Chaffee addressed the occasion. He introduced other speakers during the course of the program. He further stressed the importance of the students to their country. BJC needs to keep up with the grades, to take the lower grades, to keep them in school year round. BJC has a chance to build its future.

Dean Mathews warned students of the dangers of smoking. He stated that students were not registered for classes, thus no registration forms were needed. The registration form is complete and that unless the instructor has signed, the grades cannot be given or in the case of a decision on the degree, the grades would be unknown and deferment would be unknown.

He also advised students planning to transfer to four year schools to discuss the option of deferment with Mrs. Hervey, director of admissions. Anyone with housing problems should see Dr. Baker, dean of men. Financial problems come under the administration of Dr. Chaffee. Agriculture and home economics are under Mr. Hatfield's direction.

The future, Dean Mathews said, assemblies will be called to discuss the students' needs. There will be no set time of day for them.

Dean Mathews also stressed the responsibility of the students to themselves and to the faculty. Here is "to help you, but upon service your hand."
... farewell to a Great Guy

Leaning back in his chair, Lt. Lyle Smith turned on his smile and said, "It's going to be rough thinking of the team taking the field without me but you can be sure I'll meet the boys in Pasadena for the Little Rose Bowl."

With these words the impact of the departure on Oct. 8 of Lyle Smith, Boise Junior College's nationally renowned football coach, hits home.

Lyle's family will remain in Boise during his tour of duty; for as Lyle says, "I have been very happy here in Boise and I will continue to make it my home."

... asked for a quote, Lyle expressed his "appreciation to the swell bunch of boys whose love of football has put BJC on top. "A record such as ours would have been impossible without the cooperation of all the students and faculty of Boise Junior College."

Although Lyle has to exchange his lucky grey hat for a year of heavy recruitment by the playing field, he expects a promising season. "A record such as ours would have been impossible without the cooperation of all the students and faculty of Boise Junior College."

... so good bye and best wishes to our Lyle Smith.

Ray Anthony's Popularity Grows

For five years young Ray Anthony, a former member of Glenn Miller's orchestra, has been establishing himself and his smooth horn as part of the pop music scene. Angeloles will have the opportunity to hear him for the first time at the Hollywood Palladium, starting October 30.

Ray has held his share of hard luck. For five years he was a member of Glenn Miller's band established himself and his smooth horn as part of the pop music scene. Angeloles will have the opportunity to hear him for the first time at the Hollywood Palladium, starting October 30. Ray has been breaking bus office records throughout the country. His band has been lauded as the most danceable and listenable by tradesters as well as collegians. Featured within his band are popular trumpetists, Ray's own horn, Charlie Shavers, Eddie Butterfield, trombonist, and his regular reed section.

When Ray was 18 and playing at a dance in Hollywood, he was approached by Howard Aiken, then head of the studio, and offered a job. Aiken was impressed with Ray's horn work and signed him to his future band. Ray's musical career began in the early 1940s.

In 1944 Ray joined the Navy, but upon his discharge, he was offered a job with Ray Anthony's band. Ray was impressed with Ray's horn work and signed him to his future band. Ray's musical career began in the early 1940s.

Since that time Ray has been touring the world, playing over 300 dates a year. His band has played in every major city in the United States and has appeared at the Hollywood Palladium, the London Palladium, and many other venues around the world.

Ray's music has been featured on numerous television shows, including The Ed Sullivan Show and The Tonight Show with Johnny Carson. His music has also been used in numerous films and commercials.

Ray Anthony's unique style of music has earned him a dedicated fan base. His smooth horn sound has been described as "mellow" and "easy on the ears." Ray's music is characterized by its simplicity and emotional depth.

Ray's popularity continues to grow, and he is now one of the most sought-after musicians in the industry. He remains committed to creating music that connects with people on a personal level, and his unique style of music continues to inspire and entertain audiences around the world.

Behind the running and passing of Larry Jackson the Boise Junior College Broncos tallied an impressive 33-13 victory over Modesto in the new Boise stadium. 8,000 fans watched Lyle Smith's football machine pummel their 33rd straight victory.

Boise started slow in the first quarter due to several fumbles which were recovered by the Modesto Pirates. Boise's first score came when Modesto fullback, Will Barmore, fumbled on his three-yard line. Jackson had just kicked the ball into the coffin corner, and it rolled out on the 4-yard stripe. Jim Pullum, Bronco guard, recovered the fumble. Jackson went to the one, and Bill Oliver went over for the first Boise score. Martin Howard's attempt for the extra point was low out of the crossbar. That was all the scoring for the first half, with BJC leading 6-0.

The Broncos came backstrong in the second half, with four touchdowns, three in the third quarter and one in the fourth quarter.

Boise scored again when a bad snap of Modesto's went out on the 19-yard line. The Broncos had the ball and the Pirates were penalized on the 7. A pass from Jackson to Whitney Simmons was good for 6 points. Howard again missed the extra point.

Boise kicked-off to the Pirates and the kick was fumbled by Streeter Dorrocke, Bronco defensive tackle, recovered the fumble on the 15-yard line. On the first play, Bob Wilder reversed his left end and ran for the end zone untouched. Howard split the uprights for the extra point.

The Broncos scored three minutes later on a drive that carried them to Modesto's 5-yard stripe. Wilder, Jackson and Oliver led the drive and ran into the end zone for the Broncos fourth touchdown. BJC again split the uprights and took a 33-0 lead going into the final quarter. One touchdown was added to the score when using the end zone.

The winner in the contest must register to enter the contest must register to enter the contest must register to enter the contest must register for homecoming. Everyone is invited to come out and enjoy the annual beard growing contest. By Phil Weber, manager of the Pep Band.Boise will be joined by their club and to settle their coaching staff held our club of the Broncos, tipping the scales in their favor for the championship in 1948. Morrie Durrocke, Bronco defensive tackle, recovered the fumble on the 15-yard line. On the first play, Bob Wilder reversed the left end and ran and into the end zone for the Broncos fourth touchdown. BJC again split the uprights and took a 33-0 lead going into the final quarter. One touchdown was added to the score when using the end zone.
