Congratulations kids! We know you'll do a swell job!

Dean Announces Work Available

The office of the dean of men is prepared to help men students find part time jobs. If you desire a part time job please call at room 211, administration building. The bulletin board in the lower hall of the Administration Building carries a list of the jobs now available to BJC men students. If you take one of the jobs listed, be sure to report to the dean of men so that it may be removed from the list on the bulletin board. From the calls for part time students it appears that part time jobs will be available for all those who want them. At present there are over twenty-five jobs available and more calls are coming in each day. The businessmen of Boise should be commended for the fine thing that they are doing in making these jobs available for BJC students even though in many cases it is an inconvenience to them.

"What Makes America Tick"

Dr. Seger, distinguished newspaperman and former German legislator, will speak to the student body in a general assembly Wednesday.

"What Makes America Tick" is a pertinent question which Dr. Segar asks, during the course of his remarks. He answers it from the point of view of a German-born American.

The confusion caused by the above question has impelled the officers and directors of various clubs to invite Dr. Segar, one of the best informed men on world political affairs, as well as a shrewd analyst of the American way of life, to be the guest speaker at their meeting, as well as the various schools.

One may not agree with all of his conclusions, but they are intensely interesting and stimulating and will afford the audiences much food for thought.

IK's to Usher At C of I - Idaho State Game

The Boise Junior college IK's have been invited to join the College of Idaho IK's in ushering at their game with Idaho State which is to be held in the Bronco Stadium the night of November 16.

Front Page Humor

There are moments when we all make blithering idiots of ourselves. Among my own embarrassing moments I confess the following: There was my parting tribute to a very distinguished guest of honor at a reception—I assured him fervently that I was terribly sorry to have met him; and this misstatement so flurried me that when he smiled forgivingly, and tried to introduce me to a lady standing with him ("Mrs. Smith, this is Miss Brush.") I responded with redoubled earnestness by saying, "How do you do Miss Brush?—thereby confusing Mrs. Smith and myself no little—

There was also the time I tried to dance with a headwaiter (it was in a crowded night club, and he had murmured something, and I had risen automatically, thinking he was one of the men of our party and continuing so to think until I'd practically propelled him into motion). And there was the day I stepped out of the door of a shop at Madison Avenue and walked up the street, serenely unconscious of the fact that the six

Students to Submit SSCQT Applications

Applications for the December 13, 1951, and the April 24, 1952, administrations of the College Qualifications Test are now available at Selective Service local boards throughout the country.

Eligible students who intend to offer this test on either date should apply at once to the nearest Selective Service board for an application and a bulletin of information.

Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application and mail it immediately in the envelope provided. Applications for the December 13 test must be postmarked no later than midnight, November 5, 1951.

According to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test for the Selective Service System, it will be greatly to the student's advantage to file his application at once, regardless of the testing date he selects. The results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student.

Choir to Receive New Robes

Choir members were measured last Tuesday for their new robes. The choir hopes to have these in time to come forth in their shining new maroon colors for the Christmas concert.

The choir helped raise the money for their long awaited robes by making a recording for the Idaho Mutual Benefit Association last year. And with that little bit of help along with the greatly appreciated aid of the student council, the members of BJC a capella choir wish to extend their thanks.

Rah Rah Hats Now On Sale

Something new has been added to the line of wearing apparel, and that is the new Rah Rah hats. These hats are sporting the Boise Junior college colors and will add to the school spirit during the various sports such as football, basketball and baseball as well as advertising BJC.

These hats are now on sale for only $1.25 so hurry and get yours as the supply is running low. Help put BJC in the eyes of its competitors (U of I and the C of I).

Our college can also have school caps, and we should be proud to wear them.

policemen I saw ahead of me were part of a platoon, and that there were 12 more policemen behind me—all marching two-by-two in a column, with me in the middle of it. I must indeed have looked like dangerous jail-fodder to the passers-by.

And then there was the time somebody told me that black mustache-wax made a wonderful mascara for the eyelashes, and I tried it out. It seemed to work, and I went to a party all really quite starry-eyed with mustache-wax. The trouble came later in the evening when a man I was talking to said to me, "I beg your pardon, but you have a black smooch on your cheek."

"Oh, dear," I said to him, "that's my mustache-wax." I never did have a chance to explain. By the time I remembered to, the man, looking shaken, had moved off.

The students who have been perplexed by Dr. Baker's rather different facial expressions can rest at ease now. The fact has been revealed that he made quite an extensive study this summer of the totem poles in Alaska.

Dr. Baker, along with 43 other educators from the National Education Association, took an educational tour to Alaska this summer. While there he made quite a study of the Klondike gold rush and reports that the outstanding experience of the trip was following the old gold trail up Dead Horse gulch. The N.E.A. group, he assures us, returned much richer (in educational knowledge) than did many of the wealthy paupers that lived to return from their strikes in the gold fields.

Religious Group Participation Asked

Dean Conan E. Mathews, in the first student body assembly held this year at the Boise Junior College, encouraged all the students to participate in the religious group organization of their choice. He said, "It is the policy of the BJC to encourage all students to take part in some religious group organization because we feel it will lend stability to your lives as you pursue your course of education. Your school experience will also be enriched by church contact, participation and association. For this reason we have encouraged the organization of religious clubs within the school so that you might have the opportunity of associating and mixing with the others of your own faith."

The religious clubs from the campus this year will include the Canterbury Club (Episcopal), The Newman Club (Catholic), The Lambda-Delta-Sigma (L.D.S. Mormon) and the Methodist Club, which as yet has no name. Each of these clubs is in the process of organization, therefore planned events, meetings and activities will be forthcoming.

The LDS Club, under the direction of Z. Reed Miller, former stake president, and Vern Cooley, chairman of the church education committee, has scheduled an organizational meeting today at 12:30.

The Canterbury Club is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Robert Dunn. Dr. Donald J. Obee is acting as college contact man. Episcopal religious services are held at St. Michaels, 8th and State.

With the return of Father Pepsinskei, known to all as Father Pep, the Newman Club is welcomed back into activity. Dr. Joseph B. Spulnik is the college contact man.

The Methodist Club, under the co-sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Swarner, is welcomed as a new addition to the religious clubs in the school. Dr. Donald J. Obee is the college contact man. A religious meeting of the group is held at the First Methodist Church, 10th and State St., each Sunday at 7:00 p.m.

The Presbyterian group will meet Sundays in the Presbyterian church from 9:45 to 10:45 with Mrs. Turnpseed as teacher of the class.

Jimmy was assigned by his teacher to write a composition about his origin. He questioned his mother. "Mom, where did Grandma come from?"

"The stork brought her."

"Well, where did you come from?"

"The stork brought me, and you, too, dear."

So the small modern wrote as the introduction to his composition: "There have been no natural births in our family for three generations."

SUPPORT YOUR TEAM

Now that football season is under full swing let's get all the pep and enthusiasm we can into our yelling sections at the games. Let's give the cheerleaders the support they are entitled to and should have. Not only does it make it easier for them but it also shows the fellows on the team that we are behind them one hundred per cent.

So, let's get out and help our cheerleaders, and show our Broncos that we appreciate them!

Weekly Wisdom

By Cleon Kotter

TRUTH OR SUPERSTITION

Observe a building under construction and then ask of yourself concerning the matter: Will it weather the storms of time or will it crack and crumble when exposed to the glaring rays of scientific investigation and sensible reasoning? The strength of truth, like that of a building is determined largely by the time endurance of the foundation.

Scriptural Wisdom: Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house upon a rock: And the raid descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. (St. Matthey 7:24-25)

College Wit

Reporter: No, but a hydrant sprinkled one.

"Certainly not — I'm his mistress," the good woman blurted.

From now on the IK's have asked all males to throw out their razors—the beard growing contest for Homecoming is on! The lucky winner will be announced sometime October 27.

This year the IK's welcome back two old, old members—Chad White and Bill Moulton. With these and others, and Neil Howard as Duke, the fellas ought to really go places this year.

P.S.: The Valkyries are sponsoring the beard-growing contest, so you men should try to save your energy for the contest and LET THAT BEARD GROW!!

At a general assembly held last Wednesday morning in the auditorium, the remaining officers of the Associated Women's organization were announced.

Since some of the officers elected last year did not return this year it was necessary to elect new ones to fill the vacancies.

Those elected were vice president, Sue Clare Freeman; secretary, Shirleen Shaffer; sophomore representatives, Mary Lee Moss and Gerri Previtt, and freshman representatives, Marion Watson and Virginia Harris.

The officers who did return this year are Annette Black, president; Laura Lyman, treasurer, and Gloria Johnston, social chairman.

Morrison News

Friday night after the BJC-Oregon Tech game a birthday party was held in Morrison Hall for Gentry and Jim Walker. It was an informal party held in the recreation room for the girls and their guests.

Morrison Hall was represented at the President's Ball Saturday night by Shirleen Shaffer with Dwight Dickey; Peggy Wood with Dean Hogenmiller; Virginia Worley with Bill Moulton and Bonnie Cady with Harold Stroud.

We have no idea how fast the mail is coming into suite A from annapolis but it certainly is going out frequently. Valdosta, Georgia, isn't doing so bad either, but since he is home on leave the out-going mail has slackened.

DRISCOLL HALL

Driscoll Hall's nights have taken rather a hectic turn. It seems as though the old college idea of anything for a laugh is being carried to extremes. They not only have forgotten the idea of study completely but have tried to turn the dorm into a dog laundry.

Remember

Remember—Wednesday is the deadline for having Les Bois pictures taken! Pictures are taken from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. in the basement of the Administration building. It's really a bargain—$1 for three poses—it only takes a few minutes, so don't be camera-shy, have your picture taken.

Passenger: Drive on. She wasn't talking to you.

B.J.C. Whips Ricks

One week ago Friday our gridsters traveled to Rexburg to play Ricks college. The Broncos were out for revenge after their defeat at Olympic and proved their point by crushing Ricks 39-0.

The Ricks team made a good stand in the first part of the game but soon crumbled. The Broncos scored three times in the first quarter. After that they had complete control of the game and seemed to score whenever they pleased.

Winslow, Howard, Miller and Bates each romped over for 6 points while "Little Gorgus Gus Pastos" scored 12. DD Fowler showed his stuff by kicking 3 out of 6 extra goals for a 50% average. For such free scoring Boise's casualties were very light with Barton being the only injured player.

Boise had approximately 30 students at the game. They made a good showing against the Ricks rooters although they were badly outnumbered. It seems some brain of the crowd brought along enough noise makers for the entire gang. It didn't take them long to strike up a band which our school can be proud of.

At half time the Ricks band put on a colorful performance. They formed different letter formations and demonstrated how to kick a

The W.A.A. field hockey team will play host to Caldwell at game here Tuesday, October 15 at 4 p.m. Those powering the team and hoping to score a goal will be Pauline Paulson, Bernaola, Charlene Stilwell, Gl Johnson, Dorla Jo Hogenmiller, Louise Gaylord, Leta Caruth, Mary Lee Moss, Marian Koenig, Annette Black, Laura Lyman, Barbara Compton and Edna Brown.

Plans will be discussed at a meeting for a return match at Caldwell.
