Newman Members Attend Convention

The morning after Christmas, other Peplinski and four of the B.J.C. Newman members started out to Seattle to attend the Northwest Provincial Convention. The club members who were delegates were: Miki Flaherty, Betty German, Mary Deroin and Harry Vander. Despite the road conditions, they made it safely to Seattle Wednesday evening in time to register.

For two days there were conferences consisting of lectures by Newman Club chaplains, discussion periods, and workshops on publicity, membership, extension, and social problems. Election of new officers was held on Friday afternoon. Miki Flaherty was elected from Boise as the new provincial fourth vice-president.

Students from Canada, Montana, Oregon, Idaho and Washington universities and colleges attended the conference with headquarters at the Newman House on the University of Washington campus.

A closing banquet was given for the convention delegates at the Edmond Meany hotel Friday night. The next morning, Saturday, December 29, the members were homeward bound with their heads filled with new resolutions and ideas for improving their club meeting which will be held the evening of January 14.

Drama Students Present Play

Antigone, a modern adaptation of the Greek tragedy, was presented by B.J.C. drama students on January 12.

The story of the play is practically the same as the original by Sophocles but has been changed to fit the times. It is particularly symbolic in our age in M. Jean Anouilh's adaptation of it for he symbolizes for France and the world the rejection by France of the new order with its false promise of prosperity.

An excellent cast did justice to the theme of the play and to the standards of good acting. Included in this cast were: La Rae Dunn, Dolores Coffman, Gloria Newbill, George Collear, Jim Trenkle, Bob Fulkerson, Joe Barroetabena, Darrell Randall, Phillip La Civita and John Lawson. Alternate actors included Sue Freeman, Dolores Nielson, Norman Clark, Rosalie Hartson, Donna Wood, Claire Bieseker, Virginia Worley and Greyson Andrist.

Directed by Harold Wennstrom, this classical play was presented in such a fashion as to provide an evening of great entertainment for all in attendance.

New Contests Open To BJC Students

Four topics have been chosen for this year's International Relations club oratorical contest which is to be held at BJC February 13 and 19, 1952.

The IRC has selected three timely and somewhat controversial topics: (1) Should Slot Machines Be Allowed in Boise? (2) Should Civil Service appointment be required in order to take politics out of the Internal Revenue department? (3) Is the United States doing more than she should in helping other countries? These topics have been submitted in question form to give the contest entrants a chance to speak on either side of the question they choose. The speech department has selected one more topic: (4) All college seniors should be

Former Student Receives Award

Denice Elder, a 1950 graduate of Boise Junior College, and now a music major at San Jose college, San Jose, California, has been awarded the first Bibbins' scholarship award, according to E. W. Clements, chairman of the college service fund committee.

This scholarship, a music award of $125 to be paid in three installments, is awarded only to San Jose State college music majors by a committee composed of members of the music department; and the recipient of the award is chosen because of talent and accomplishment, moral character and personal integrity, need, scholarship and industry and ability.

Students Are Urged To Pre-Register

All students are urged to start consulting their advisors beginning January 21 in regard to their class schedules for the second semester, it was announced by Dean Mathews last week.

Dean Mathews urged that everyone try to complete pre-registration with their advisors so that the work of registration on Feb. 4 and 5 could be reduced.

Final exams will begin January 29 and continue through the week. Second semester classes will begin Wednesday, February 6.

ORCHESTRA TO PRESENT FIRST CONCERT OF SEASON JAN. 20

Sneak Preview

Nominations for the King of Hearts, who will reign over the Sweetheart Ball February 8, will be held January 14, 15, and 16.

The Sweetheart Ball is an annual dance sponsored by the Associated Women Students. This is your dance, girls—the only girl-date-boy dance of the year—and it is up to you to make it a success.

There will be a ballot box in the main hall and any woman wishing to nominate someone for King of Hearts is to place her nomination there. Every man nominated will be voted on by the women students the following Monday and Tuesday.

The man receiving the most votes will be King of Hearts and the two with the next highest votes will be Jacks.

Last year's King of Hearts was Dudley Montrose and Jacks were Ray Lewis and Milas Hinshaw.

B.J.C. Students Take Part On Radio Program

Several students from B.J.C. took part in the presentation of the dramatized "Chief Joseph Story," over station KDSH Sunday, January 6 at 8:30 p.m. The story, portraying the defeat and almost annihilation of Chief Joseph and his tribe of Shoshone Indians, was a part of the regular weekly series of Broadcasts known as the Idaho Story. The B.J.C. students participating were: Madeline Hannah, John Worthwine, Jim Lynch, Darrell Randall, Jim Jewell and Ronald Cochran.

In its first concert of the season, the Boise Junior College community symphony orchestra will feature Russell Mamerow as oboe soloist. The program, scheduled as the third of the college vesper series, will be presented Sunday afternoon, January 20 at 4:30 p.m. in the college auditorium. Mr. John Best will direct.

The program, designed to give a varied musical fare for the listener, will include a Schubert overture, the "Haffner" symphony of Mozart, the Handel Oboe Concerto, and the Soiree's Musicales by Benjamin Britten. The latter number, written by the British contemporary composer, is an attempt to show by characterization some of the qualities of the music of Rossini, the great Italian opera writer and composer of such works as William Tell.

The orchestra is composed of outstanding college musicians augmented by interested instrumentalists of Boise and surrounding country. Stella Margarette Hopper is concertmistress.

The soloist, Russell Mamerow, is a former music student at B.J.C. who plans to leave soon to continue his musical studies in New York.

Phi Sigs Trounce IK's

Trounce is really the word. So far this year the IK's have played the Phi Sigs in basketball and football but have come no where in range of beating them.

Two basketball games have been played so far this season. The score of the first one was 54-47, Phi Sigs, and the second was 52-35, Phi Sigs.

These two clubs have some good boys on their teams but it seems the Phi Sigs are a little too much for their rival club. In the last game Glen Osborn was high point man for the IK's while Jim Lynch and Urdal tied for top honors for the Phi Sigs.

Joy Whipple, Louise Gaylord, Marjorie Anderson, Dorothy Gunthert and Joanne Cutler. The annual Valkyrie Tea, to which all alumni Valkyries were invited, was held on Friday afternoon, the 28th of December, in the Club room of the Hotel Boise. Dorothy Gunthert, president of the Valkyries, was in charge of the affair.

Students To Give Music Recital

Tuesday evening, the 15th of January, there is to be a mixed recital of the music students of Boise Junior College in the auditorium at 8:00. Everyone is invited to attend.

The club pro was giving a pretty young member her first golf lesson.

Pro: "The basic idea of the game is very simple. All you do is smack the pill and then walk."

P.Y.M.: "That sounds just like some of the dates that I've been on."

First Drunk: "It takesh me an hour or sho to get to shleep when I go home drunk."

Second Ditto: "Thash funny. I always fall ashleep ash soon ash I hit the bed."

First Drunk: "Sho do I. My trouble ish in hitting the bed."

When a stranger emerged from the subway to ask which way was north, a New Yorker replied:

"Uptown we got, downtown and cross-town we got—and now this guy wants to know which way's north!"

I know before you were married you used to shower your wife with expensive presents. How come you don't do it any more?

Did you ever hear of a fisherman giving bait to a fish after he had caught it?

"NOW IS THE HOUR"

You've all heard the song "Now Is The Hour"—well, with semester test week sneaking upon us so fast, it will be "now is THE hour" a lot sooner than any of us think. Of course, only a few of us need more than just a few hours brushing up on points here and there—Right??? So who needs to worry???

P. S.: Anyone running out of midnight oil before 8 a. m. January 29 may go to room 500 for a refill.

ALUMNI NEWS CLUB CAPERS

Home for Christmas was 2/Lt. Walter E. "Wheaties" Emmons, who recently graduated from the Air Force Pilot School in Lubbock, Texas. "Wheaties," a '49 B.J.C. grad, and Ann Geisinger, another '49 grad, attended the Alumni Ball the 26th of December.

Home for Christmas from Victorville, Calif., were Bob Crisp, Dick Martin, Jack Mott, Lyle Coltrin, Jim Buchholz and Warren Peppardine, all former students at B.J.C.

Madeline Meltvedt, a freshman at BJC last year, was elected Sweetheart of Sigma Ki at the University of Idaho recently.

Jimmie Joe Ponzetti is still in Korea on the front line! He says in his letters that he is following the B.J.C. Broncos everywhere through the papers he gets. He also says he would give anything to be home again, going to BJC.

Marvin Gardiner, stationed at Mt. Home Air Force Base, has been seen around the campus a lot lately. Nice to see you again, Marvin.

Bob Empie just can't seem to stay away from his old stamping grounds. He is seen in the Union quite often at noon playing cards with the boys.

David Wailes, '51 graduate, is going to school at Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York. He is really going places with that horn.

George Bettebenner, '51 graduate, is studying mathematics at Oregon State but will be home for Christmas.

Orvil Lincoln is not too far from home—just over at the College of Idaho.

From Korea Pfc. Jim Pulliam, '51 sent a clipping from the Pacific Stars and Stripes telling about

Of special note from the last I.R.C. meeting, held on Dec. 5, was the announcement by Norman Clark, club president, that the Northwest International Relations Club Regional conference will be held at Boise next year. The delegates to the conference at Portland this year, Norman Clark, Jessie McQueen and Dr. Moore, reported that as one of the outstanding experiences of their lives. Very enlightening was the term used for their discussions with students of other colleges and other countries.

VALKYRIES

The Valkyries are considering Freshman girls for scholarship. These names will be announced at the semester.

CANTEBURY CLUB

The Second Holy Communion was held on the campus with Bishop Rhea officiating. A breakfast followed the meeting in the Student Union. During breakfast, the group appointed Diane Chester and Janet Hawkins to call club meetings, and to see about having two communion services a month.

IK's

The IK's will hold a formal invitation, January 18. There will be a "grudge swap" given—will it be Chad, Steve or Bill???

BJC playing in the Potato Bowl, and sent his congratulations and good luck to the team.

Delbert Hearn, 1950 BJC graduate, and currently enrolled at Colorado State College of Education, has sent a copy of their literary magazine in which he has a story, "Error-In-Law." The story was written while he attended BJC, but has been revised considerably.

Dwight Dickey

Star of the Week

The man chosen for this week's star is Dwight Dickey or "Dead Eye Dick." Dwight has come a long way this year and so far has ended up at or near the top of the scoring list of each game.

Dwight played ball for the Broncs last year so this makes his last season at B.J.C. and it looks like he means to make it a good one. Dickey came to B.J.C. from Vale, Oregon, and as far as our basketball team is concerned I'm sure we're all glad he did.

Although Dwight only stands 5 foot 11, he can make some of the taller men look rather bad on rebounds and ball handling. One of his favorite pastimes on the court is completely confusing to his opponent.

"Dead Eye Dick" plays a very important part in making up the Bronco squad. If "Dead Eye" can continue to live up to his title I'm sure we will see a lot of him throughout this season.

"I advertised that the poor would be welcome in this church," said the minister, "and after inspecting the collection, I see they have come."

Snap! Crackle! Pop!

A few weeks back we mentioned that Bob Cole had a bad disease. It's not only bad but contagious. Marliese, Freeman took a bad attack at the Golden Plume Ball.

The greatest of all great sports history will be made this Saturday. We expect a crowd of 5,000 or more to witness the race between Phil Bocking, Rex Fraser and Gale Davis at Bogus Basin. Any other contestants are welcome to enter this race but I must warn you, the stakes are SKY HIGH.

It looks like the college men aren't good enough for our ladies. Carmen Chingrin and her crowd are flying around with Junior Bird Men. What do you think of that?

A Certain boy talked to a Certain girl and asked for some news. This Certain girl told this Certain boy that she had seen another Certain girl by the name of Jo Hartzler New Year's eve and her knees were mighty weak, but as to what this means we can't be certain.

If anyone is wondering why Carma Murdock has been going around with a tear in her eye the answer is Joe Fulwyler has blown town. I guess for certain reasons Carma feels very badly about this. Cheer up, Carma, he may return.

Jo Edwards' real name is Jessie Ora — —.

WEEKLY WISDOM

As we consider the New Year resolutions made for the year 1952 (many of which have already been broken), we might ask ourselves, "Have we balanced our 'dout's' with an equal or greater weight of 'do's'?" The most effective way to get rid of undesirable weeds in the pastures of our human personalities is to place them with grass.

Scriptural Wisdom: (balanced with the "dout's" of the 10 Commandments)

Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength, this is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. (St. Matthew 22: 37-39)
