Freshman Girls Receive Scholarships

Miss Dorothea Bretz and Miss Marilyn Bishop, freshman students at Boise Junior College, last Tuesday were presented each with a $50 scholarship by Dorothy Gunthert, Valkyrie president, and Gloria Johnston, vice-president, on behalf of the Valkyries, an honorary service organization of the college. These scholarships are presented each year to two deserving freshman girls, and they are to be used during the second semester. Dorothea, a student from Nyssa, Oregon, is a business major, and Marilyn, who is from Valentine, Nebraska, is majoring in education.

Weekly Wisdom

By Cleon M. Kotter

Exams are upon us. Not a few are those among us bewailing the sudden realization that a little habit has deprived us of the necessary preparation, the habit of procrastination—procrastination, the murky mire that stagnates the stream of progression, yes, the stumbling block that deprives one of the satisfaction that goes with being sufficiently prepared.

Scriptural Wisdom: Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye think not the Son of man cometh.—(St. Matthew 25:44)

Laboring over some work that he had brought home from the office, a weary accountant was becoming increasingly annoyed by his teen-age daughter who kept gabbling over the telephone to a high school chum about her experiences at the dentist's that afternoon.

Finally the exasperated father looked across the room at his wife and said: "I don't begrudge the money it's costing to have Betty's teeth straightened, but—good heavens!—I didn't intend to have her mouth wired for sound!"

"Oh, honey, bring a half-dozen mousetraps when you come home this evening," said the bride. "Why, I just brought six yesterday." "I know, but they have mice in them."

It's love when she sinks in his arms—and ends up with her arms in the sink.

Let's Give Our Support NOW!

Have YOU turned in YOUR blood donor pledge card? If you have not, please do so as soon as possible. This is the word from Sherman Snyder, who is in charge of getting the pledge cards signed. Sherman points out that in order to bring the Red Cross Blood Mobile to BJC, the Intercollegiate Knights, who are the sponsors, must have a certain number of signed pledge cards. So, let's give our support to a real worthy cause! Turn in your pledge cards to Sherman Snyder right away!

Heard over a California station: "We bring you five minutes of the latest news compiled by the wild word facilities of the United Press."

Mary Ulrich Receives Award

Miss Marlene Ulrich, Boise freshman education major at Boise Junior College was awarded last Thursday with the annual $25 scholarship presented by the BJC chapter of the Future Teachers of America.

This scholarship is presented to a deserving freshman education major and is to be used for tuition and fees during the second semester.

The men in the nudist colony were giving the new entrant a bit more than a glance. One of them exclaimed, "Man, Ill bet she looks good in a sweater."

Front Page Humor

Comment on a glamour gal in a television show:
"What an evening gown! You couldn't tell whether she was inside, trying to get out, or outside trying to get in."

Boss: "I suppose you know when quitting time is?"
Secretary: "Oh, certainly. Whenever somebody knocks at the door."

When a politician inquired about public sentiment in a rural community, one of the natives replied: "Still going strong—there were 16 cars parked in my lane last night."

The marriage ceremony had just been concluded and the groom thrust his hand into his pocket and inquired, "What do I owe you, Reverend?"

"We do not charge for this service," replied the minister, "but you can pay me according to the beauty of the bride."

"Okay," said the young man, and he handed the minister a quarter. The minister raised the bride's veil, took a look and dug into his pocket.

"Here's fifteen cents change, young man."

Angry motorist: "Say, this car can't climb a hill. You swore up and down it was a good car."
Salesman: "I didn't swear up and down. I said 'on the level' it was a good car."

As far as the dollar is concerned, confidentially, it shrinks.

Spring has sprung, Fall has fell, Winter's here, and it's colder'n—ever!. To prove this bit of poetry and the term is used loosely, we find Don Countryman and Jerry Hochstrasser enjoying the big snow. Jerry seems to have given up and retired to the car, but Don seems to be reveling in his 'big' achievement.

This is your new editor for the second semester, hoping that I can do as good a job of editing The Roundup as Ruth Pond has done first semester.

Credit is also due to Diane Huschke, first semester advertising manager. Assisting me this semester as advertising manager will be Diane Chester.

Together with my staff, I'll work to keep The Roundup an interesting and timely paper, and I'll be willing to listen to any suggestion to make it better at any time.

Into the Fire—or My Will and Testament

As the smoke clears away and the ruins of destruction come into view, I leave the remains of this beloved paper, poor grades, and sarcastic remarks (which, I hope, have been satisfactorily revised by our wishes to please the students) to your next semester's editor, Mary Salazar, and her staff.

I have enjoyed bringing you the events of the first half of this year's school and the many humorous happenings. This could not have been accomplished without the aid and super job of my staff.

I sincerely hope all of you have enjoyed the paper as much as I and my staff have enjoyed bringing it to you.

Again I offer my thanks and appreciation to my staff, the advisor, Mr. Gottenberg, and the student body.

Bye now,
Ruth E Pond

Dear Miss Dee Mener:

Dear Miss Dee Mener:

My boyfriend, when he arrived in America from France, was hit by a truck. Do you know if this will cause him any defects?—Worried.

Dear Worried:

As I don't know the extent of his injuries, I cannot give you any definite answer, however, it may cause him to speak broken English.

Dear Miss Dee Mener:

My wife insists on picking my clothes for me. She has pretty good tastes, but I would like to do my own picking. What could I do to make her understand this?—Desperate.

Dear Desperate:

You do have quite a problem and I cannot give you any solution except to be thankful she doesn't pick your pockets.

* * *

Dear Miss Dee Mener:

I love a homely man with a sour disposition, but another fellow, who is handsome and has a lot of money, is in love with me. Which one should I marry?—Debatable.

Dear Debatable:

By all means marry the one you love!—and send the other one's name and address to me.

* * *

Dear Miss Dee Mener:

Will you please tell me what the French Syntax is?—Inquisitive.

Dear Inquisitive:

It is probably a tax on fun.

SHE'S THE KIND OF A GIRL YOU
THIS LIKE AT LOOK

With wives, it's hair today and gown tomorrow.

"How are you this evening, honey?"
"All right, but lonely."
"Good and lonely?"
"No, just lonely."
"I'll be right over."
