Bach to Boogie Is Readied

FOUR PERFORMANCES TO BE HELD THIS YEAR OF MUSICAL SHOW

Roundup

Boise, Idaho, Monday, February 25, 1952

Get your tickets for the IK-Valkyrie Carnival! Diane Chester, Rex Fraser, Mary Moss and Bill Palmer get ready to "dish out the tickets!!!"

IK-Valkyrie Carnival Friday

Whoopee!! Carnival time again! And is this ever going to be a carnival to top all carnivals. I guess! You've never seen such acts, so much fun and so darn much food all floating around at one time in one building.

What carnival is this, you ask? You mean to say you haven't heard? It's the Valkyrie, Inter-Collegiate Knights Carnival, sponsored annually by these two organizations.

Rex Fraser is the general chairman, with Diane Chester and Bill Palmer, co-chairman. Don Bagley is publicity chairman and everyone in both the clubs is on some committee.

Here are some of the things you won't want to miss. Pie-throwing, wrestling (you'll get a laugh out of Bill vs. Bill), taxi dance (something new all the time!), car race????, spook house, FOOD, and I do mean food, kissing booth, dart throw, fish pond, make-up booth, baseball throw, penny toss, ring toss with live ducks, and — here it is—the most amazing thing you've seen in ages—an auction that you fellows, especially, will really go for. And how!

No fooling, you'll not be sorry you went to the IK-Valkyrie Carnival on Friday evening, February 29, at 7:30 in the BJC auditorium. See ya there.

Weekly Wisdom

By Cleon M. Kotter

What a great lesson can be learned from an artesian well gushing forth sparkling life sustaining water for fields of crops where once was desert wasteland. From this we may learn that our own lives can be changed with "living water" from a barren unfruitful wasteland to a field producing a bounteous harvest of personal, community and national advancement.

Scriptural Wisdom: The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. (Isaiah 35:1). ("Living water" see St. John 4:6-14).

Night Registration Tops Day Students

A total of 529 night students are registered at Boise Junior College for the second semester, according to Dean Mathews. The night courses number over fifteen, with several of them having more than one section.

A total of 370 students are enrolled in day school, which is considerably less than the enrollment in night school. The night school enrollment not only tops the day school enrollment, but is also the largest in the history of the school.

Newman Club Chooses Candidate

The Boise Junior College Newman Club has as its candidate for Queen of Our Lady of the Rosary's second annual Mardi Gras costume ball and card party, Miss Mary Louise Deroine, Boise Junior College freshman.

The identity of the queen—there are four candidates running—will be revealed at the ball Tuesday night, with the selection of the queen being governed by ticket sales.

It's amazing the heights a man can attain by remaining on the level.

Students Hear Talks On Brotherhood

At a general assembly last Friday morning, BJC students heard from religious speakers representing the Methodist, Jewish, Catholic and L.D.S. faiths talk on the various phases of brotherhood.

Rev. Herbert E. Richards, representing the Protestant churches, spoke on Brotherhood in the Schools and said, in part, "Our traditions are together and not parted. I sincerely hope that we still remember that we are still a family, with a common ground of faith under God."

Mr. Robert L. Hamersley, of the Jewish faith, who talked on Community Brotherhood, said, "... we cannot help but realize that brotherhood, as we practice it, is tantamount to our community behavior... we, as individuals, formulate community policy... the other peoples of the world are looking toward the communities of the United States to find the solutions they seek."

Father Raymond Peplinski, of the Catholic faith, spoke on Inter-faith Brotherhood and said "We must find the common ground to achieve Inter-faith brotherhood by keeping loyalty to God, to our fellow man and to ourselves."

Mr. Z. Reed Millar, of the L.D.S. faith, who spoke on International Brotherhood, said "... our greatest contribution to the world in the spirit of brotherhood... is our principal of freedom and liberty under law."

These talks by the various speakers concluded the Brotherhood Week observance on the campus.

F.T.A. Chapter to Sponsor Social

The Boise Junior College chapter of the Future Teachers of America is planning a social for the Future Teachers of America from the Boise and Meridian High schools. The social is to be on March 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Union.

General chairman is Dorothy Chatburn, with Barbara Wartman and Mary Louise Deroine on the program and entertainment committee; and Rosalee Hartwell, Mary Salazar and Marlene Ulrich on the refreshment committee.

Long Live the King!! King of Hearts Gus Pastos and his date, Betty German, at the Sweethearts' Ball February 15. Get the expression on King Gus' face — Hmmm!! What were you thinking about, Gus? She is a pretty luscious dish at that—eh, King?

The Boise Junior College Choir's annual musical show, "Bach to Boogie," has scheduled four performances this year, in contrast to last year's two performances. This year's performances, which fall on the nights of 6-7-8 of March, will be the regular shows for the public. An added show will be presented on the night of Feb. 27 to the members of the American Railroad Development Association, who will be in Boise attending a convention that week.

Tickets will go on sale for the public shows at the Boise music stores in the very near future.

This program is presented by the members of the choir who have collaborated to bring some fresh lines and new musical arrangements to the music lovers of Boise.

The production manager of this year's show is Jim Jewell, with Marliese Freeman as director. Assisting Marliese will be Sid Nelson.

Others of the production staff are: Fred Gherler, in charge of musical score and arrangement; Ronald Cochran, managing lighting arrangements and staging. In the costume department, Myrtle Siebe will be helping Sue Clare Freeman with the capes and cottons for the show. Bob Fulkerson is this year's business manager, with Bob Cole helping in the printing of programs and the sale of tickets. Sharon White is in charge of selling advertising to be inserted in this year's attractive program. George Hopkins, a newcomer to BJC this semester, is by and large responsible for the theme of the show.

She works in the department of plots and ideas. Chad White and Dick Frost are the stage crew. An unnamed position is occupied by Shirleen Shaffer, who is in charge of miscellaneous and et cetera.

Part of the cast of the show proper includes as follows: Judge, Rex Frazer; bailiff, Barry Binings; defendant, Greyson Andrist; members of the jury, Margaret Bailey, Carma Murdock, Colleen Shanahan, Peggy Wood, Shirleen Shaffer, Charlotte Parker, Bonnie Cady, Diane Chester, Mary McCullum, Madeline Hannah, Charles Riddle, Robert Quinley, Dick Frost, Wayne Personette and Ed Hedges.

A boys quintette including Bob Bakes, Bob Watson, Bob Cole, Jerry White and Steve Hadley, will sing a western selection. Myrtle Siebe will sing "Can't Help Lovin' That Man", a contralto solo from Show Boat. A dance similar to modern ballet and modern ballroom dancing will be performed by Don Luce and Dorla Jo Hogenmiller. LaRae Dunn will sing an alto aria from Sampson and Delilah. A new tenor, Harry Binning from Weiser, Idaho, will sing "Una Furtiva Lagrima," a tenor aria from "L'Elisir D'Amore".

A special attraction of the show will be a brass sextet playing "Circus Days." Members of the sextet are Bob Fulkerson, Ray Moore, Cliff Jackson, Eugene Urtel, Vostrez, and Hostetler.

Another combo event is a special alumni jazz combo who will play varied modern jazz and bebop selections.

Before you fall in love with a pair of bright eyes, be sure it isn't the sun shining through the back of her head that makes them look that way.

Soon after her fourth child was born a young mother received a play pen as a gift. "Thank you so much for the pen," she wrote. "It's a Godsend. I sit in it every afternoon and read, and the children can't get near me."

English Students Work on Themes

English Composition Students are busily compiling their bibliography cards for their research themes, working for the next few weeks.

B.J.C. students will hunt for information both in the BJC library and in the Carnegie library in downtown Boise. For the convenience of the students, a page hired by the College will be at the library during the following hours to serve the students needing magazine references: Monday-Thursday, 7:30-9:30 p.m.; Saturday, 2:30-5:30 p.m.; and Sunday, 3:00-6:00 p.m.

The Measure of the Golden Rule

We have been left with much to mull over in our minds, the advice given this past week by various religious leaders concerning our attitudes toward one another as brothers has been well received. We might do well also to consider the thought that in life, as well as in school, one is no better than another, regardless of social, financial, or racial standing, unless he does better and lives better, judged from the standard measure of the GOLDEN RULE.

Morrison Hall

Something new has been added to Morrison Hall this semester. Four new girls moved in which brings the total to twenty girls again. They are Mary McCollum, Caldwell; Bonnie Johnston, Home-dale; Charlotte Parker, Portland, Oregon; and Marilyn Bishop from Nebraska. Welcome to Morrison Hall and to Boise Junior College, girls.

A semi-formal, candlelight induction ceremony on February 11, was arranged by Gloria Johnston, Ginia Harris, Shirleen Shaffer and Barbara Moulton for the new girls. The ceremony consisted of a pledge to Morrison Hall, the reading of the rules and regulations of the hall and a welcome by the president, Dorla Jo Hogenmiller. Lucille Spackman sang 'Sin.' After the ceremony cocoa and birthday cake were served. The birthday cakes were in honor of Shirleen Shaffer and Gloria Johnston whose 19th and 20th birthdays were the 11th and 12th of February.

A fireside was held in the living room last Monday night by the Brotherhood Week program committee with discussion on racial prejudice. Students attended from the College of Idaho at Caldwell and from the Northwest Nazarene College at Nampa as well as from B.J.C. Dr. Martin, religion professor at the C. of I. was the speaker. Refreshments were served following an open discussion.

Spring Sports Start at B.J.C.

Well, kids, now that our football and basketball teams have come through this year with flying colors we can now turn our attention to baseball, track, tennis and golf.

As for baseball, BJC can boast a few lettermen but a good part of the team left last year. I'm sure we can depend on the baseball boys to come through as we have additions as well as losses. The

Aboard the Slats

By Gale Davis

Well, ski lovers, our school Ski Club is about to sponsor its annual ski race at Bogus Basin. A tentative date for this event has not been set yet, but from all indications it is to be held this month.

Doc Obee, the Ski Club advisor, said that those wishing to compete must abide by the same rules that apply to other school athletic events, in addition to having their Ski Club dues paid to date. All those desiring to race should register with Diane Chester, secretary-treasurer of the Bronco Ski Club.

The defending champion, Gerri Privett, of the women's division, will be up against some terrific competition. Jean Fisher, Diane Chester and Virginia Worley are going to be trying to take Miss Privett's crown from her.

In the men's novice division, such racers as Dean Hodges, Don Folkerson, Rex Fraser, Norm Clark and Joe Jones will be making their bids for the top notch in their division.

In the men's White Stag Trophy Run, Stan Pottle, Don Countryman, Jim Lynch and Don Luce will be fighting it out. These races show promise of being a little more than terrific since they pit some of the better skiers of the Boise area.

team had a fine record last year and if the boys work hard I'm sure they can better it this year.

Bob Gilbert seems to be the big prospect in track this year. From last year's records I think we can count on him to score for BJC again this year. Another boy we can watch for in track is Jerry McDaniels. Jerry lettered in track at Boise High last year and plans on doing his stuff for BJC.

There are a lot of kids out for tennis this year and from the looks of things a good team can be organized. It seems a little more enthusiasm should be shown toward tennis as it's a fine sport and it takes a good person to master it.

C. W. Totten, No. 23, and an unidentified N.N.C. man struggle for the ball, which seems to have a mind of its own!

Driscoll Hall

New Driscoll Hall Club officers were elected for the second semester at a house meeting February 11. They are: President, Jack Masterson; vice-president, Wayne Personette. Officers reelected were: Secretary, Bill Worley; treasurer, Travis Barnes, and social chairman, Dwight Dickey.

New faces seen at the dorm this semester belong to Richard De Garmo, Wally Gerhauser, Johnny Hamrick, Charles Pugh, Richard Symons, and Dick Thomas.

A ping pong table has been installed in the recreation room, and cues and discs have been provided for the shuffleboard court.

The new missionary asked the cannibal king, "Did you know my predecessor, Mr. Brown?"

"Oh, yes!" he replied. "He was the pride of the land."

"Then why did he leave such a nice island?" asked the missionary.

"He didn't, sir," said the cannibal king. "You see, times got so hard that we had to swallow our pride."

Broncs End Season

B.J.C. traveled to Nampa last Monday evening and was defeated by the Crusaders 60-70.

The following night the Crusaders came to Boise and our boys were out to even the score. The first half of the game was a sea-saw battle with the Crusaders leading at the half. Our team came out strong in the second half and when the game ended the Broncs were leading 57-49.
